From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto ...

My Dear Friends,

Today's Gospel should be proclaimed on the Sunday before April 15 because it does touch our Christian responsibilities to the government, among them the payment of taxes.

There is a good lesson to learn from today's Gospel which, by the way, shows the mounting hatred of the sect of Pharisees - now strangely allied with their political enemies the Herodians - toward Jesus. The Rabbi who wrote the Gospel of Matthew was a disciple of the former tax collector and probably patterned his gospel on the original Aramaic of his Master, which was providential for us because the original was lost. It was the only writing of the new testament not written in the common Greek which, although not as pure as the Athenian Greek, was the commerce language of the Mediterranean Basin, comparable to the "pidgin" English of today, vis-à-vis the Oxford English. As a Rabbi converted to Christ, the author of Matthew wanted to inspire us to civil obedience toward the government, even if a heathen one! To "pay taxes" becomes a duty, and it is the will of God, separating the sacred sphere from the profane. St. Peter had already made this civil obedience before Matthew. So, my dear friends, a good Christian is a good citizen, who does not steal (cheating on taxes is stealing) or create dissensions, or refuse military service, but one who drives carefully and obeys the law of the land: "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's, but give to God what is God's."

As you well know, October is Respect Life month, and Forty Days for Life continues until November 5. The mission of the campaign is to bring together the body of Christ in a spirit of unity through prayer, fasting, and peaceful activism. You are encouraged to pray for life from birth until natural death, and you can walk for life at the Planned Parenthood facility on Central Avenue. A young lady offered me this poem as a sign of her repentance:

I anxiously await the moment my soul is reunited with yours; the decision I made long ago deserves the pain which my heart endures.
Reparation I cannot achieve for the vile sin I did commit; my loss and grief has no face that I know. I made my choice, now I live with it.
At the time it seemed acceptable, many opinions were cast my way; support for my choice was all around, but God would not approve of that day.
It is hard to accept forgiveness; memories are hard to surrender; I know what I did was very wrong; my penance lives as I remember.
People are given many chances. God gives many blessings from above; sometimes gifts are taken for granted, a child symbolizes God's love.

Today, is World Mission Sunday (Propagation of the Faith). Jesus Himself directed His followers to go into the whole world and proclaim His Gospel - the "Good News" of His love for us - to all peoples (see Mark 16:15). That mission is now directed to each one of us. On World Mission Sunday, we have the opportunity to be part of the Church's missionary work. Your generosity through the Propagation of the Faith collection today will reach those who await the "Good News" of Jesus and who long to experience His hope and love. And please remember, we here in St. Martha do not like to disturb people united with Jesus after receiving Holy Communion, so we ask you to deposit both the weekly and special collection envelopes in the one collection, and if you give cash, please be extra generous! Thank you.

That time of year of catching colds and the danger of the flu is here! Some of us already have suffered! On behalf of all parishioners, please avoid shaking hands and/or kissing at the sign of peace, and as you enter and leave the Church. I always encourage the Fist-Bump!

Saint John of Capistrano
October 23

Born at Capistrano, he was a lawyer and governor of Perugia. After experiencing a vision of St. Francis of Assisi, he was determined to become a religious. As his marriage was never consummated, he received a dispensation from the impediment of matrimony to join the Friars Minor. He was ordained and spent his life preaching missions throughout Europe. May we learn from him that "we have been placed here to care for others and our lives should be an example to others, showing how they must live in the house of the Lord."

"To be actively pro-life is to contribute to the renewal of society through the promotion of the common good. It is impossible to further the common good without acknowledging and defending the right to life, upon which all the other inalienable rights of individuals are founded and from which they develop."
- Pope Saint John Paul II, Evangelium vitae

O God, to you we offer our homage. Guide us on all the paths we travel upon this earth. Free us from all the evil tendencies that lead our hearts away from your will. Never allow us to stray from you. O God, author of peace and justice, give us true joy and authentic love, and a lasting solidarity among peoples. Give us your everlasting gifts. Amen. - Pope St. John Paul II

"Den, pues, al César lo que es del César, y a Dios lo que es de Dios".
— Mateo 22:21

LUCHA POR EL PODER

Las luchas por el poder ocurren en todos los ámbitos de la sociedad, desde el escenario mundial hasta en las relaciones en el trabajo, y hasta en nuestros hogares. Luchamos por un puesto en la jerarquía de poder. ¿Quién tiene poder sobre quién? ¿Cómo lo usamos? ¿Cuál es la fuente de ese poder? ¿Cuál es la respuesta sana ante el mismo? En la lectura del Evangelio de hoy los fariseos mezclan a Jesús en la lucha por el poder sobre si los judíos deben rendir tributo a César pagando los impuestos. La respuesta de Jesús da a esta lucha y a toda lucha por el poder otra perspectiva. En consonancia con las palabras de Isaías y de Pablo, Jesús nos enseña que Dios es la fuente final de todo poder –el poder de los que gobiernan en la tierra, los fariseos, Jesús, la Iglesia y el poder dentro de nosotros. *Copyright © J.
