From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto ...

My Dear Friends,

Today's Gospel is the masterpiece of the Evangelist John, and sometimes I cannot keep from smiling, just thinking of this Samaritan woman, who seems to be a cross between harebrained and smart.

As you all well know, there was bad blood between Jews, descendants of the Babylonian exiles, and the Samaritans, the poor Jewish indentured farmers left in Israel by the Babylonian Emperor. Such hostility was also the reason why the Samaritans did not allow the free traffic of Jews going from Judea to the Decapolis and to Galilee, because the road went through Samaria. In 52 A.D., the Roman Legions had to intervene to clear away the Samaritan roadblocks.

The woman is surprised that a Jewish man would approach a woman (no gentleman would have done that) and a Samaritan, but instead of politely and silently ignoring Jesus' request, she chats away with some scornful attitude.

Later, when Jesus tells her that he has some special water, and if anyone drinks it, will never be thirsty again, she goes head-on: "Give me such water." A smart person would have ridiculed Jesus with a: "Well, if you have such miraculous water, dear charlatan, why are you still thirsty?" However, our dear lady goes on extolling the Patriarch, Jacob, until Jesus asks her to call her husband, and that spunky lady had had five husbands and was now living with a sixth man, and she remains flabbergasted when Jesus reveals His knowledge of her messy love life. Then Jesus got her in His tender power, and guides her into the new relationship with God, not tied to Jerusalem temple or to Mt. Gerizim Temple, but going beyond time and space boundaries to unite the immense, eternal Father in heaven and his fragile human children of the earth.

Then Jesus proceeded to show her that He is the Prophet, Messiah, the Savior of mankind, and the equal to God. This is naturally what we Christians firmly believe, and this is the chasm that totally divides us and those who reject Christ as the Son of God. How blessed we are to have received the light of faith, to be one with Jesus, now and forever! Let us be worthy of such a Savior!

I'm encouraged by the large number of parishioners attending daily Holy Mass. Lent is not only the time to give up our bad habits and the little pleasures of life, but it is the time to give in to God! Let us pray more at home and on the road, especially by receiving Jesus in our hearts! Remember that our late, beloved Pope John Paul II gave permission to all Catholics to receive Jesus in Holy Communion twice a day, when they participate twice in the Holy Sacrifice. Let us offer our second daily Holy Mass for all the people who offend God by not going to church, so that our Communion will bring them back home to the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary.

That time of year of catching colds and the danger of the flu is still here! Some of us have already suffered! On behalf of all parishioners, please avoid shaking hands and/or kissing at the sign of peace and as you enter and leave the Church. I always encourage the Fist-Bump! Your smile is the best greeting (but please still put your money in the collection... germs or not!).

Many of you have already answered the request from the Bishop, begging your generous hearts to donate your hard earned money to our Catholic Faith Appeal (CFA) on behalf of St. Martha's Church. Today more than ever we realize how blessed we are here at St. Martha because of your sacrifices. As we pray for guidance in making our commitment to the CFA, it is important to remember that the appeal helps our parish pay its annual operating assessment of $332,000, in 2017, to the Diocese. One hundred percent of any pledge over our goal is returned to our parish. Your gift is a gift to your family, your parish and your Diocesan family.

If you have not made a pledge to the Catholic Faith Appeal this year, remember, you can participate by putting a Catholic Faith Appeal envelope in the regular collection.

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) members will undergo their first of three Scrutinies today at the 10:30 a.m. Mass. The scrutinies are rites meant to uncover, then heal, all that is weak defective or sinful in the hearts of the elect and then to bring out, strengthen all that is upright, strong and good. Please keep them in your prayers.

Thank you, Thank you for making this year's Fausto Festa Italiana a big family success! There was lots of joy and fun as well as good dancing! We would like to give a big thanks to our Sponsors: Michael's on East, Café Baci and Mercato. Without their generous donations and delicious food the party would not have been as successful! But above all we would like to thank our Parish Hospitality Ministry, chaired by Beth Cannata, and her team Joanne Gonet, Nicole Martin, Michele Mician, Ashley Fledziewski, Denise Haggerty, Pat Pomfret, Ivanna, Sue Thompson, Liz Barrett, Maryann Turcotte, Janine Budesheim, Clair Collins, Ann Marie Fledziewski, Fred Gonet, Bill, Norman Pomfret, Gioia Palmerio, Greg Fledziewski, Dale Thomspon, and Carol and Peter Fegan.

Our Parish will be changing its organization from an unincorporated association to become a Florida nonprofit corporation. The idea of incorporation has been under consideration for many years. Priests and laity alike have suggested that the Diocese consider incorporation for many reasons, especially to have the civil structure of a corporation mirror Canon Law. The parish operations and ministries shall continue to serve our community with little change in procedure.

One reason is to help resolve a conflict between theological identity and civil identity of our parishes. Parishes are recognized under Canon Law as separate juridic persons with right of ownership of their own property and the right to enter into business transactions and agreements; however, they have no such right under civil law. Establishing a separate nonprofit Florida corporation will mirror Canon Law.

The Pastor, who serves the spiritual leader of the Parish will serve as the President of the nonprofit corporation. The Pastor, Vicar General and Chancellor have moral obligations to the Bishop imposed by Canon Law and shall serve as the initial Board of Trustees of the corporation. Thereafter two lay persons will be elected to the Board of Trustees.

Smile, God loves you and so does Fr. Fausto with your St. Martha clergy:

ST. JOSEPH
MARCH 20

According to the gospels, Joseph was a skilled craftsman (a builder or carpenter) and a descendant of King David. Matthew's infancy narrative in particular focuses on Joseph's dilemma. Embarrassed my Mary's pregnancy with a child he knew was not his, Joseph, as an upright man who followed the prescriptions of the Mosaic law, decided to quietly dissolve their marriage contract in accordance with social and legal customs. But he is told in a dream to take Mary as his wife and make her child his own, and so he became the earthly father of Jesus. His feast has been observed on this day since the 10th century. He is a patron of the universal Church and is also honored as the patron of the dying. Living with Christ

Norma McCorvey, the "Jane Roe" of the Roe vs. Wade Supreme Court decision legalizing abortion, became pro-life long before she died at age 69 on Feb. 18 last month. In fact, she never did have an abortion. And 20 years ago this Thursday, March 23, she declared: "I am now a child of God, a new creature in Christ; I am forgiven and redeemed. Today, I publicly recant my involvement in the tragedy of abortion. I humbly ask forgiveness of the millions of women and unborn babies who have experienced the violence of abortion."

Seven Deadly Sins/Seven Lively Virtues

A Catholic Spiritual Study presented by
Fr. Robert Barron
Through Word On Fire Catholic Ministries

Join us for a four part video series with Fr. (now Bishop) Robert Barron as he enlightens us in his study on sin and virtue. Over the course of this study we will be taking a look at what Catholic tradition calls the Seven Deadly Sins and contrasts them with the Seven Lively Virtues. Lent is a perfect time to assess and enhance our lives as disciples of Jesus Christ. Barron offers much spiritual guidance and relevant examples of how to live more fully our lives as Christians. The sessions include videos of Fr. Barron on each of the sins and virtues. There is ample time for study and discussion for the group. The facilitator is Dr. Elizabeth Johnston of St. Martha Parish. We will meet Mondays (March 20, 27 & April 3, 10) from 6 to 7:30 p.m. and offer the same materials Tuesdays (March 21, 28 & April 4, 11) from 9:15 to 10:45 a.m. Study materials will be provided.

Chrism Mass

Tuesday, April 11 at 10:30 a.m.
Epiphany Cathedral

The faithful of the Diocese are invited to join Bishop Frank J. Dewane for the blessing of the Holy Oils which are used in the administration of the Sacraments at each parish throughout the year. Also, priests and deacons celebrating 25 and 50 years of ordination are recognized at this Mass. All are encouraged to attend in support of our clergy and to participate in this important Holy Week celebration.

WEEKEND OF APRIL 29 & 30

ST. MARTHA ROSARY MAKERS GIVEAWAY

A Message from our Bishop...

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon the Diocese of Venice will be taking up The Catholic Relief Services Collection (CRS). By participating in this collection, you are responding to Jesus in disguise in some of the most marginalized communities in our world. The CRS Collection provides services for immigrants, humanitarian aid in the wake of natural disasters, refuge for the displaced, and advocacy for peace and justice around the world. Let us join in this collection to support those suffering and on the margins of society.

In Western African poor and rural farmers, almost no matter how hard they work, are hit by droughts that are shortening the rainy season, and thus leaving harvests too small to support families and communities. Your support of CRS is helping connect companies and organizations that provide drought-resistant seeds to these communities. It is precisely these new relationships that are providing hope to these communities for a sustainable future. Should you wish to learn more of how CRS assists around the world, please go to http://www.crs.org/.

The CRS Collection will take place in the Diocese of Venice the weekend of March 25 and 26, 2017. Your support of this collection makes a difference for so many around the world. This is one more opportunity for each of us to express compassion and generosity. Thank you!

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration as well as my prayers throughout this Lenten Season.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Bishop Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Let us ask the Lord to help us understand the law of love. Pope Francis

Living Water

In today's Gospel Reading from John, we hear the story of the Samaritan woman whom Jesus confronts at the well. Jesus and His Apostles are traveling from Jerusalem in the south to Galilee in the north. The quickest route, although inconvenient in some ways, was through Samaria. Jesus' followers went to the nearby village of Sychar to procure food while He sat tired and thirsty by what is called Jacob's Well. It was about noon, the hottest part of the day, and a Samaritan woman came to the well to draw water. Jesus breaks three Jewish customs in His exchange with the woman. First, He spoke to a woman, something forbidden to men with strange women; second, she was a Samaritan woman, a group with whom Jews did not normally mix; third, He asked her to give Him a cup of water, which would have made Him ceremonially unclean from using her cup or jar. The woman was rightfully shocked. However, Jesus told her that He could give her "living water." At that time some spring water was carbonated and it seemed "alive" as it bubbled up from the ground, so it was called "living water." Jesus meant that the water He offered was alive in a different way because it could both give life and quench spiritual thirst. Although the whole situation is amazing to the woman, she is particularly struck by how much Jesus knows about her. She reports to her fellow Samaritans "He told me everything I ever did." That is not what she found so surprising though. What truly astonished her was that in spite of that knowledge, Jesus still loved her. Jesus loves us as well, despite our many shortcomings and sins.

Tercer Domingo de Cuaresma
19 de marzo de 2017

Cristo murió por nosotros, cuando aún éramos pecadores.
— Romanos 5:8

SEDIENTOS DE LAS AGUAS QUE DAN VIDA

Especialmente durante la Cuaresma, la Semana Santa y el tiempo de Pascua, los textos de oración de la Iglesia Occidental se deleitan con imágenes paradójicas de Cristo: la vida eterna que muere, el anfitrión de la cena que es también alimento, el crucificado sediento del que mana agua de vida de su costado. Estas imágenes fluyen de las representaciones de Jesús por parte de los evangelistas y de su mismísimo ministerio, durante el cual muchas veces cambió o invirtió las expectativas que las personas tenían sobre él o sobre los designios de Dios. Esta "inversión" está en juego en el Evangelio de hoy, cuando Jesús habla con una extranjera enemiga que está por debajo de su condición social. Además él, el que tiene sed, demuestra que la mujer es la única que tiene sed verdadera. Él –cuyos labios secos dirán "Tengo sed" antes de morir– es la fuente de vida y del agua que da vida. La Cuaresma nos llama a reflexionar sobre cómo cada uno de nosotros tiene sed de Cristo y nos lleva, en última instancia, de vuelta a las aguas dadoras de vida de nuestro bautismo en su Cuerpo.
