2015 YEAR OF CONSECRATED LIFE

Consecrated life is one of generosity, of responsibility, of attentiveness to the needs of the other, of compassion, and of being engaged with world around them. Very often, these are the virtues first learned in one's family, from one's parents. We can pray along with Saint John Paul II: "I pray that you, Christian families, united with the Lord through prayer and the sacramental life, will create homes where vocations are welcomed."

From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto ...

My Dear Friends,

HOW INSTRUCTIVE IS THE GOSPEL OF TODAY! Notice how Jesus makes a distinction between saving one's soul ("What must I do to share in everlasting life?"), the bare minimum required by God from any Jew in the Old Testament, and the state of perfection: "Go, sell what you have and give it to the poor ... after that come and follow me." If we want to save our souls, we must observe the ten commandments, plus receive the Sacraments (Baptism and Eucharist in the first place), our foundation for salvation. As the good Lord told us, "Those who eat this bread will live forever!"

But some of us are called to a higher degree of loving intimacy with Jesus, renouncing all human comforts and joys to follow the lonely way of Calvary. Anyone can receive the call, man or woman, married or single, rich or poor, in any social state of life, although it is much easier to follow the Lord in a more sustaining band of monks, friars, nuns or sisters practicing the three vows of poverty, chastity and obedience. Just think: "Looking at Him with love," a special loving relation between God and the one called is thus created.

There is also to consider in this Gospel the sad remark of Jesus, when the rich man declined to follow Jesus' invitation: "It is easier for a camel to pass through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God." In Judaism, wealth was often taken as a sign of divine favor upon any Jew who followed the Mosaic covenant. In a certain sense, we think the same, considering a good financial position, or good health, or a successful career, as a sign of blessings given to us by God. And so, when a reversal of fortune follows, we are quick to complain bitterly to God.

Even a worse scenario follows when we conclude, as soon as illness strikes, that God is punishing us, instead of seeing in His plan the look of love that Jesus reserves for His chosen ones. The cross sent by God is such a mystery for us, and a contradiction of the loving father image that Jesus has told us about, that we remain shaken and mystified in our faith. But in reality, if we could grasp the meaning of today's Gospel, all is so clear and simple; when we suffer, we are crucified with Jesus on the cross! After all, Jesus is on one side of the cross, the back side of the cross is empty, it is our place to be crucified. Let us go and hang with Jesus; our agony will eventually fade away in the shining light of the Resurrection!

OCTOBER 18 IS WORLD MISSION SUNDAY. The day you were baptized, you became a missionary, called by our Lord to share your faith with those around you—and to be part of the Church's mission to the world.

Your ongoing support of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith is vital to the missionaries serving in 1,150 dioceses throughout Asia, Africa, parts of Latin America and Europe, and on the Islands of the Pacific. World Mission Sunday, organized by the Propagation of the Faith, is a day set aside for Catholics worldwide to recommit themselves to the Church's missionary activity through prayer and sacrifice.

Please be as generous as you can be in your gift next weekend. Please take time to read the message from our Bishop Dewane concerning World Mission Sunday.

I WOULD LIKE TO THANK YOU FROM THE BOTTOM OF MY HEART for all your love, prayers, support, smiles, cards and gifts you lavished on me last week, for my 80th birthday. And the party last weekend was so as the kids say— "AWESOME!" WOW! And we must thank Beth Cannata of the Hospitality Committee for making it run very smoothly. I also want to thank the committee and volunteers for their planning, and making the room so festive. Special thanks to Mary Kenealy Events, Joe Barbetta, Bill Waggy, and Gold Coast Eagle Distributors. And of course we cannot forget to thank those who helped set up tables and clear the room for early Sunday Masses: Miquel Jimenez, Peter Shalski, Jesus Hernandez, Manuel Rodriguez and Junior Guerra. You are such wonderful people! Thank you! Thank you!

AFTER SOME 40 YEARS, with the old dilapidated, falling apart little mobile trailer that houses Caritas, our emergency helping hand of the parish, we are applying to transfer the charity across Fruitville on the Bethesda House site. We will replace the mobile trailer with a solid structure able to resist any wind that the good Lord sends our way. It will be slightly larger than the existing Caritas Center with a waiting room, conference room, bathroom and a closet so we can offer emergency vouchers for electricity, water, food, medicine and clothing. We have applied to the City Planning Commission for the permits and, until we obtain them, Caritas will operate Monday through Friday, 9 to 11 am, from our Geenen Hall. We hope to begin Monday, October 26. We still need volunteers during those two hours. Caritas volunteers meet in the St. Martha Conference Room on the first Wednesday of each month at 7 pm; Tony Cocco and Br. Tom Flanagan are in charge and you can reach them by calling Sara in the parish office.

Let's continue to pray for the soul-healing success of the Synod of Bishops in Rome in session today and going until October 25.

Smile, God loves you and so does Fr. Fausto with your St. Martha's priests: Frs. Patrick, Wojciech, Sebastian, Philip & Jerry; Deacons Bill, Patrick, & Kevin; Brs. Bill, Tom, Paul & Lawrence and Srs. Cathy & Marianne

It's not too late to join Fr. Fausto for his 80th Birthday Celebration at the Ritz Carlton, on Saturday, October 17. Please call Bridget Spiess at 941 720-6304 for ticket price and details. It will be a memorable celebration for our wonderful pastor.

OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY—JUST DO IT!

PRO-LIFE CORNER

Every human life is sacred and a unique gift, and during October -- Respect Life Month -- we invite you to not just respect life, but to love it and defend it.

If there's something in the Church's teachings on life issues that you have questions about, give the Church a chance by examining why She teaches as She does. Many answers are right there in your Catechism. A section called "Respect for Human Life" is under the 5th Commandment; it covers abortion (#2270-2274) and euthanasia (2276-2279).

A Message from our Bishop...

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On October 18, Catholics throughout the world celebrate World Mission Sunday. This special day has been celebrated every year since 1926 and on that day Catholics are asked to reflect on the Church's missionary efforts. We do this through prayer, personal evangelization, and, equally important, through our generosity toward others who work in the mission field.

Pope Francis reminds us, "Mission is a passion for Jesus and at the same time a passion for His people." On this Sunday we are reminded of our baptismal call to be "missionaries" in a spirit of love through our prayers as well as our support so that we too may share our passion for the gift of faith, especially with those less fortunate.

In the Diocese of Venice, the World Mission Sunday collection takes place the weekend of October 17-18. The funds collected will be used in assisting the poor in the formation of catechists and lay leaders, building health facilities, providing emergency aid, educating seminarians, building mission chapels and much more.

The celebration of World Mission Sunday provides Catholics the opportunity to unite with their missionary brothers and sisters, particularly those in the poorest part of the world, and to support the good work that they do, oftentimes under difficult and dangerous circumstances. Please know of my gratitude for your generosity and your prayers for missionaries.

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers for you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Bishop Frank J. Dewane

Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
