My Dear Friends,

Happy Birthday To All! Today, Pentecost Sunday, is the birthday of the Catholic Church, founded by Christ; and We are the Church! On the day of Pentecost, the Holy Spirit, the third person of the Blessed Trinity, descended over the Apostles, the pious women and a great number of disciples gathered in prayer around Mary, Jesus’ mother. This Spirit of Love of God, for the last 2,000 years (and until the second coming of Jesus), has guided our Catholic Church: helping us Catholics to be faithful to Jesus’ universal teachings, committed to love one another even if we have broken each other’s hearts, ready to accept, serve, and live in harmony with the ugly, the unlovable, the poor, society’s rejects, the hungry, victims of AIDS and the oppressed. This Holy Spirit gives us many gifts; among them is that confidence and unshakable trust in God that will help us overcome fear and anxieties: “There is no fear in love, but perfect love drives out fear because fear has to do with punishment, and so one who fears is not yet perfect in love.” (1 Jn 4:18). Let us always pray: “Come Holy Spirit, and enkindle in us the fire of your love!” Once again, Happy Birthday to All!

Before the Holy Gospel today, we will pray together the famous Sequence. It is an ancient prayer to the third Divine Person; in this hymn our true doctrine is expressed. Let us pray it with true faith and deep devotion.

Pentecost means “fiftieth day” and is celebrated fifty days after Easter. Red is the liturgical color for this day. Red is symbolic of the love of the Holy Spirit and recalls the tongues of fire in which the Holy Spirit descended on the first Pentecost. The color red also reminds us of the blood of martyrs. These are the believers of every generation who, by the power of the Holy Spirit, hold firm to the true faith even at the cost of their lives.

With Pentecost, our Catholic calendar ends the Easter season (white vestments) and enters the so-called Ordinary Time when the priests wear the green vestments. The Easter Candle is put back in its place, away from the pulpit, where it stood since that glorious Easter night, when we greeted the risen Lord. In the Baptismal Rite, the candles of the newly baptized are lit from the Easter Candle, as a sign of our future birth in paradise. By the way, did you know that the ancient Christians never used to say: “Today is the anniversary of the death of this Saint.” They instead always said: “Today, we celebrate the birthday of this Saint,” referring to the beginning or birth of our eternal life.

On a related topic, many times non-Catholics ask: “Why do Catholics have to go to confession?” The answer is given in today’s Gospel when Jesus gave the most awesome power to the Apostles of forgiving sins, and of reconciling God and us: “If you forgive people’s sins, they are forgiven them; if you hold them bound, they are held bound” (John 20:23). It is mind boggling to me why Jesus gave sinners the power to forgive the sins of other sinners. Maybe God thought that being sinners ourselves, we priests will be much more merciful and forgiving of them... I hope we priests will always be good mirrors of God’s compassionate love.

Congratulations on the 25th Anniversary of Ordination of Fr. Robert (Babu Gangolu) who is celebrating 25 years of priesthood. For a few years he was a good associate pastor here at St. Martha. Next Sunday he will preside at the 10:30 a.m. Mass; may the good Lord give him protection and joy in the priesthood!

Our Bishop Nevins Academy with the sister schools St. Martha and St. Mary, is closed for the summer vacation and will reopen on August 10. By the way, another one of our pupils has won the prestigious Christmas Artwork Contest of the Missionary Childhood Association in Washington, D.C. Congratulations Hana Mullen! We are proud of you and of our talented art teacher, Mary Jo Salomone.

We are saddened by the reported death of Sr. M. Frances Nevolo who was the director of Bethesda House from 1993 to 2005. We admire the incredible love she had for the people who were rejected and condemned. Please add your prayers with her fellow sisters so that from heaven she will always protect our little ministry of Bethesda.

Smile, God loves you and so does Fr. Fausto with your St. Martha clergy:

St. Boniface

June 5

Born in England, Wynfrid was raised in Benedictine monasteries. Pope Gregory II gave him the name Boniface, along with a commission to preach to non-Christians, and he was made bishop of Germany. At Geismar, he converted many when he cut down the sacred pagan Oak of Thor without being harmed by their gods. In 754, he and thirty companions were killed by non-Christians while preparing to confirm more converts. His work as a missionary, organizer, and reformer earned him the title of “Apostle of Germany.” Like Boniface, let us pray to “stand fast in what is right and prepare our souls for trial.”

If you visited Rome and went to see St. Peter’s Basilica, you would not be able to enter with shorts or sleeveless shirts. St. Martha Church is the house of the same God. Remember that you are in the Lord’s house, please dress appropriately when you come to Mass.
The same Spirit of Pentecost who came to the disciples also gives us voice to speak, to advocate for all our brothers and sisters in need, including the most vulnerable, the unborn.

3. How come we can receive Holy Communion and Penance in 2nd grade, but not Confirmation?
4. Why did God create humans?
5. Who inspired you to become a priest?
To pray for a person with whom I am irritated is a beautiful step forward in love, and an act of evangelization. Let us do it today! -Pope Francis

 Domingo de Pentecostés
4 de junio de 2017

Entonces aparecieron lenguas de fuego, que se distribuyeron y se posaron sobre ellos. — Hechos 2:3

ENVÍA TU ESPÍRITU

La semana pasada oímos que después de la Ascensión, los discípulos, María y otros seguidores del Señor se retiraron al piso alto donde perseveraron unánimes en la oración. Esta semana escuchamos que, mientras estaban en oración allí, el Espíritu Santo vino sobre ellos. La promesa de Jesús, luego de su Resurrección que el Evangelio de hoy relata, se cumple: el poder del Espíritu Santo viene sobre los seguidores de Jesús. San Pablo nos dice que a todos nosotros, de alguna manera, se nos dan los dones del Espíritu Santo, dones que se pueden usar para anunciar la Buena Nueva. Hoy es una de las más grandes fiestas de la Iglesia. Llevemos con nosotros el estribillo del salmo responsorial: “¡Envía tu Espíritu, Señor, y repuebla la faz de la tierra!” (Salmo 104:30).

PENTECOST

Today, Pentecost Sunday, is called by many the birthday of the Church. Not only does the Lord imbue His followers and Apostles with the Holy Spirit, but He sends them out into the world to accomplish and further His mission. There are strong connections to the concept of stewardship throughout the readings on this day, including the statement by St. Paul in his letter to the Corinthians, “To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” That is a prompt to us that we are gifted in different ways, but we are to be willing to use those gifts to assist and support the Church and others. Nevertheless, in the First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles is also a reminder to us about living a stewardship way of life. They are celebrating Pentecost, 50 days after Passover (which, for us, is Easter). Passover (as reported in the Book of Numbers in the Old Testament) was a time when the first sheaf reaped from the barley harvest was presented to God; however, at Pentecost the first fruits of the wheat harvest were given to God. This concept of giving the first fruits to God is at the heart of stewardship. How do we share the bounty that has been given us? The people of Jesus’ time were deeply conscious of all their gifts, including the gifts of the earth. Everything we have comes from God. This is a day to contemplate that and to respond to it.
