From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto ...

My Dear Friends,

Today's Gospel on the Feast of Christ the King, which concludes our Church Liturgical Year, points out the Last Judgment of humankind, the second coming of Jesus, King of the Universe! It is this second coming that we are invoking at every Mass: "Come Lord Jesus!"

The Feast of Christ the King does sound strange to us in good ole' USA, since we rejected the King of England more than two centuries ago.

But I grew up in Italy, during World War II, and I remember looking in awe in a magazine at the Italian Cavalrymen charging Russian tanks in the icy plains of Russia, screaming "Savoy," the reigning monarchy of Italy. Ah! To die for the king was, I thought in my blessed innocence, the greatest proof of loyalty and devotion.

It is in this perspective that we can understand the meaning of this feast at the end of our Liturgical Year: We must prove our devotion to Jesus everyday and even to the point of shedding our blood for Him!

Notice how in Today's Gospel Jesus gives us the norms to be His loyal followers: Take care of the poor, the famished, the jailed, the persecuted and rejected, the homeless, the people with AIDS, the orphans ... Let us do this, and we will hear the King of Kings telling us: "Come ...inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world." Following the Holy Gospel, the presider or the deacon will recite the Act of Consecration of the Human Race to the Sacred Heart of Jesus (which is printed in this bulletin), and we will be acquiring the plenary indulgence for ourselves, or for a designated soul in purgatory, with the usual conditions, which are a prayer for the intention of the Holy Father (one "Our Father" and one "Hail Mary"), receiving Holy Communion, and going to confession within a month, before or after today. It is also essential that we have the desire to avoid all sins, venial or mortal ones. Plenary Indulgence means that all the time of expiation, what we must do in Purgatory will be totally remitted and, if applied to a soul in Purgatory, that soul will enter into Paradise.

The Diocesan Convocation for Priests will be held from Monday afternoon, November 27 - Thursday, November 30. Please pray for our priests who will convene for a general assembly of prayer and study and planning under the hands of our Bishop Dewane. If you cannot find some of us on these days, you know that we are praying and sharing apostolic vision with our Bishop. Please check the "Mass Intentions" in this bulletin for Mass and Communion Service schedules on those days.

Friday, December 1, is World AIDS Day. This is a day set aside nationally to help us remember the hundreds of thousands of people infected with HIV/AIDS. Today we are remembering all of those people in a special way in the prayers in each of our Masses. We pray also for God's help in eradicating this disease from the face of the earth. Keep also, in your generous hearts our people with AIDS/HIV who are assisted by us at Bethesda House on 4th Street. Let's be merciful and not judgmental, as Jesus came not to condemn, but to save!

Also, may I impose on you to say a tiny prayer for me, because today I am celebrating 57 years of my priestly ordination. Thank you! And I, a sinner, would like to apologize for all the times I did not give you the good example as required by a Jesus' follower and a cleric. Luckily, for all of us sinners, we Christians are not perfect but forgiven. And, also, please pray for Fr. Partrick, who is celebrating the 12th anniversary of his ordination. Pray to the good Lord that he will continue to be a true mirror of Jesus' meekness and mercy.

Smile, God loves you and so does Fr. Fausto

JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

ACT OF CONSECRATION OF THE HUMAN RACE TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS (PLEASE KNEEL)

Loving Jesus, Redeemer of the world, we are yours, and yours we wish to be. To bind ourselves to you even more closely, we kneel before you today and offer ourselves to your most Sacred Heart.

Have mercy on all who have never known you and on all who reject you and refuse to obey you: gentle Lord, draw them to yourself.

Reign over the faithful who have never left you, reign over those who have squandered their inheritance, the prodigal children who now are starving: bring them back to their Father's house.

Reign over those who are misled by error or divided by discord. Hasten the day when we shall be one in faith and truth, one flock with you, the one Shepherd. Give to your Church freedom and peace, and to all nations justice and order. Make the earth resound from pole to pole and with a single cry: Praise to the Divine Heart that gained our salvation; glory and honor be his for ever and ever. Amen.

We often hear people speak of a pregnant mother by saying, "She's expecting a child." Now if one is expecting a package, the package is not yet there. However, this is not the case with the mother. Her gift is already there. The pregnant woman, a mother already, does not have a child "on the way," but has a child already present and in full possession of his or her human rights, starting with the right to life.

ADVENT JOURNEY

Please join our parish and the entire Diocese of Venice in an Advent journey entitled, Journey to Jesus through Mary, following the structure found in 33 Days to Morning Glory, by Father Michael Gaitley. This journey will lead you to a greater understanding of Mary's role in our salvation, and how our Blessed Mother is waiting for you to open your heart to her so that she may lead you to her Son, Jesus. The conclusion of this Advent study will be a Diocesan-wide Christmas Eve consecration whereby we will individually, and as a collective whole, dedicate ourselves to Jesus through the Immaculate Heart of Mary. For more information and study materials, email Patty in the Religious Education department at sileo@stmartha.org.

Starting next week, each Sunday in Advent you will find Marian Advent reflections in our bulletin. Each reflection will focus on a particular Marian Saint: St. Louis de Montfort, St. Maximilian Kolbe, St. Teresa of Calcutta, and St. John Paul II and their insights on Marian Consecration tied into the Advent Season.

CCW CHRISTMAS TREE RAFFLE

This beautiful Christmas tree could be yours! Tickets are $2 each or 3 for $5. Tickets are available at the Ministry Fair this weekend, Sunday Coffee Service, and during the week in the Parish Office. The raffle will be on Sunday, December 17 at the CCW Christmas Bake Sale.

"[E]stuve hambriento y me dieron de comer, sediento y me dieron de beber". — Mateo 25:35

CRISTO, REY DE TODOS

En este, el último domingo del año litúrgico, celebramos la solemnidad de Cristo Rey. Al concluir el año con esta fiesta proclamamos nuestra fe en que Jesucristo es el solo y único rey sobre todos los tiempos, todos los pueblos y toda la Creación. Al final del tiempo que conocemos, quedará completa la obra de Cristo de restaurar todas las cosas en unidad y armonía con Dios su Creador. Este domingo, cuando proclamamos que Cristo es nuestro Pastor y nuestro Rey, reconocemos nuestro llamado a participar en la obra salvadora de Cristo al cuidar de quienes Cristo llama "aquellos más insignificantes" (Mateo 25:45).
