From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto ...

My Dear Friends,

Last Sunday's Gospel presented to us the famous mission of the twelve, whom Jesus sent to prepare the villages to receive the announcement of the Good News of the Kingdom of God. From the recommendations of Jesus, we had the vision of the monastic and friars life of Christianity: living together in community and poverty.

Naturally, the group of apostles was composed of married men, only John, the beloved, was single and that explains the deepest attachment and undivided love he had for Jesus. Also, remember that in the winter and in the rainy season, the apostles went back home to their families, and in the good season they traveled with Jesus, bringing the Good News to Israel. When traveling with the good Lord, the apostles were sustained by the alms of the people (a tradition which continues up to now) administered by the group treasurer, Judas Iscariot, and served by a group of ladies deeply dedicated to the Good News. I suspect that things not always went smoothly and the Gospel tells us that one time Jesus' mother and relatives came to see him because they thought that his emotional and physical well-being were threatened.

That group around Jesus prayed, preached, dined and danced, took care of the sick and of the poor. In a few centuries, the ideal of community living around Jesus in the Eucharist gave birth to the monks and nuns with the famous monastic rules of St. Benedict and St. Scholastica.

Notice how Jesus realizes the universal need for R & R, rest and relaxation, for Himself and his disciples, as today's Gospel recounts.

How are you doing with your vacation? Just NEVER MISS SUNDAY MASS, except in those localities where it is almost impossible to find a Catholic Church (always check www.masstimes.org). From the time of the risen Lord's breaking bread with His disciples at Emmaus up to now, almost two thousand years later, the center of our faith has been the Eucharist, our total immersion in the Divinity, Body and Soul of Jesus. Some of our Protestant sisters and brothers insist on baptism only. While it is true that we have to open the door to enter into the joyful warmth and security of our house, and the door of the house of God is our Baptism, we cannot remain just inside the door!

Our Religious Education office is planning our Summer Activity Week from tomorrow, July 23 to Friday, July 27 from 9 a.m. to Noon. This year, it will held at the NEW LOCATION, St. Martha School (4380 Fruitville Road). It is for children age 4 to 10 and the cost is $35 per child. It is always a fun and thoughtful week!

We continue to pray for the success of the Catholic Faith Appeal. The Catholic Faith Appeal supports the Safe Environment Awareness Training and Certification. Part of the Diocese's continuing effort to provide a welcoming and healthy environment for all those served by the Church, especially children and the vulnerable. Mandated for all employees - clergy, religious and lay - and those volunteers who have contact with children and the vulnerable, Safe Environment training is also offered for all parents and children in religious education programs and Catholic schools.

This is one of the many programs the Catholic Faith Appeal supports, and St. Martha has not reached their 2018 goal of $340,000. As of July 11, 2018, we have received pledges of $271,974, which is 82% of our goal. We still need your help. Once our goal has been reached, St. Martha receives the "over goal" gifts for our own essential needs. Continue to pray and be as generous as you can!

Finally, our tiny building of Herrig Caritas has been completed across Fruitville Road, with the entrance on the north side Church parking lot. Our deepest gratitude goes to Steve and Nathalie Herrig, who paid for the full cost of the building and then had to wait almost a generation to see their dream of a new building for the poor to be realized. The reason was that at the time, we had started the campaign to build the new school and thereafter the Zazarino Center. Then we had to fight for the survival of Bethesda House and of Caritas, itself. Zillions of thanks to Pietro Moschini and Chris Sileo who finally brought the Herrig Caritas building to its completion.

This week I'm in Louisiana to celebrate 50 years of Permanent Diaconate in the U.S.A., the very first nation which has chosen to start renewed Holy Order by the Second Vatican Council.

God gave me a tremendous grace to be included in the establishment and involvement of the diaconal program, as Director of Permanent Diaconate for 41 years in the Diocese of Pensacola, St. Petersburg, Corpus Christi and Venice.

Also, in our parish we have the Diaconal Formation Director, Dn. Bill Ladroga with his associate Dn. Bob Gaitens and for years we have also had Dn. Pat Macaulay. I do not know how we priests could have done such a good ministry without the immense sacrifices of these three servants of God's people. I pray God to send us more deacons full of love for His people!

Smile, God loves you and so does Fr. Fausto

THANK YOU!

Dear St. Martha Parishioners and art lovers who visit our beautiful church, we are blessed to have a set of very fine, historically significant "Stations of the Cross." The stations have been with us for many years and have been in need of cleaning and restoration for some time. Our parishioners, the Lawrence family, was gracious enough to introduce the parish to their daughter, Cyndi Lawrence, who holds degrees in art restoration with years of experience. Cyndi has completed the restoration of all the stations and they are now hanging proudly in our Church, with all their renewed color and attraction. On behalf of our St. Martha Parish, we sincerely thank Cyndi for accepting this major undertaking. Her kind and professional efforts will continue to be appreciated for many years to come. God Bless You!

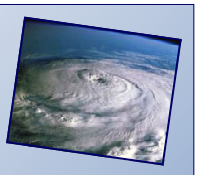
2018 "HURRICANE SEASON" JUNE 1 TO NOVEMBER 30



The devastation brought by Hurricane Irma in 2017 reinforces the fact that we need to pray for God's protection and care.

Prayer for Safety In Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a storm less eternity awaits us. Amen.

Decimosexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
22 de julio de 2018
Viene un tiempo, dice el Señor, en que haré surgir un renuevo en el tronco de David. — Jeremías 23:5a

DESCANSA EN EL SEÑOR

Durante varias semanas hemos escuchado lecturas que relatan la difícil tarea de los profetas y discípulos. En el Evangelio de hoy, el Señor Jesús escucha lo que le cuentan los discípulos enviados "de dos en dos" a servir a la gente. Jesús, comprendiendo que están fatigados, les dice: "Vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario, para que descansen un poco" (Marcos 6:31). Quizás esto también es lo que el Señor les dice a sus discípulos del año 2018. Debemos hacer un alto en nuestro camino de discípulos y simplemente descansar en el Señor. La Misa del domingo brinda muchas oportunidades para la reflexión, en especial durante los períodos de silencio luego de las lecturas. ¿Por qué no dedicar algo de tiempo hoy a permitir que la palabra salvadora del Señor penetre tu corazón en esos silencios? Pídele al Señor que te renueve en cuerpo, mente y espíritu para que puedas continuar con la ardua tarea de ser un buen discípulo.
