From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto ...

My Dear Friends,

Today is “REJOICE” Sunday, when our Mother the Church, reminds us of the joy of giving up our sacrifices to God. It does seem strange to hear about this “Joyful Season of Lent” as the preface proclaims. We do associate joy with the Christmas season, and sadness with Lent. Why be joyful then? For the same reason that the Apostles rejoiced when the members of the Sanhedrin had them flogged, and the Acts of the Apostles (5:41) tells us that the Apostles “left the presence of the Sanhedrin, REJOICING that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name (of Jesus).” We, too, should REJOICE then, when we answer the Lenten call to suffer for Jesus! Today, the priestly vestments are not purple, color of Penance, but rose, the color of joy.

What a great and merciful God we have! He is the most tender and forgiving daddy of all. The parable of the prodigal son is misnamed; it should be called the parable of the generous daddy! And note the sinful ways of the younger son, like his arrogance in asking for his inheritance, If I had been the Father I would have told my son: “Rascal you! I am not dead yet ...actually, I do not think I’ll leave you anything ...please, would you turn around. All of a sudden I have an itchy foot ...”. But the most generous father gives him half of all his fortune, which the rascal promptly dissipates, not in charity or in building his own future, but in dissolute living.

Note also that the repentant son regrets not having lost the fortune received from the father, or daddy’s pain, or his sinful life ...not at all, but, selfish as ever, he misses only the abundant food at daddy’s dinner table. And that miserable excuse of a son plots worming into daddy’s tender heart with a charade of false remorse. And, boy oh boy, it surely works very well, because his father’s love is so immense and boundless!

Note also the elder brother’s anguish and anger, which reflects the old questions of the suffering and persecuted righteous children of God. “Why do the good ones suffer and labor, and the evil ones triumph?” “Why do the good die young?” “Why is there so much evil in the world if God is so good?”

Note the contrast: “This son of yours” and “This brother of yours!” Wow! We are all brothers and sisters to the merciful Father of Heaven, without reference to race, religion, nationality, sex or social status!

And the parable concludes with the great feast of heaven for the righteous ones and the repentant sinners, all saved by the gracious mercy of God, freely given to all!

Let us not make useless the Death of Jesus! Let us think of the murderer and thief crucified alongside Jesus, who, at the very last hour of his life, asked Jesus for forgiveness so to enter into Paradise. Through the eons of time, the consoling words of Jesus reach all of us sinners: “Today you will be with me in my kingdom! Let us trust in Jesus’ crazy love for all mankind, and especially for us, his chosen Christian Children!

Next Sunday is Caritas Sunday! The dedicated volunteers will be outside church to ask you to donate to the needy of our parish. Please be as generous as possible.

That time of year of catching colds and the danger of the flu is still here! Some of us have already suffered! On behalf of all parishioners, please avoid shaking hands and/or kissing at the sign of peace and as you enter and leave the Church. I always encourage the Fist-Bump! Your smile is the best greeting (but please still put your money in the collection... germs or not!).

As you know, I visit all St. Martha School classrooms on every Friday. I pick up a manila envelope with my name on it, and answer anonymous questions by the children. Here is another batch of questions, and I’m curious to see what your answers, dear parishioners, would be:

- Jesus was human, so why didn't he sin?
- Did Martha have a good relationship with Mary?
- If you go to heaven or hell, do become older or younger?
- Why are there other beliefs for other people?
- Did Jesus receive First Communion?
- How did Jesus make the bible?
- Why is it so hard to prove the existence of God?
- Why do we have to be baptized before any other sacrament?
- Why did you become a priest?
- Why was Saul mean to Christians when he was spreading the Gospel?
- Why did the Romans want to kill Jesus?
- How many animals were on the ark?
- Who helped Noah build the ark?
- Why did God create light first and not humans?
- How did God make the world?
- Was there a specific moment you realized you wanted to be a priest?
- Who was God born from?
- What is your opinion on global warming?
- Why do you like science so much?

Smile, God loves you and so does Fr. Fausto with your St. Martha clergy:

Fathers Patrick, Wojciech, Jan, John & Jerry Deacons Bill, Patrick & Robert and Brothers Tom & Lawrence & Sister Cathy

THE ST. MARTHA ALTAR SOCIETY NEEDS YOU!!!

Would you like to foster love for the house of God and labor for its care and adornment? Join the St. Martha Altar Society! The general purpose of this ministry is to promote a greater devotion to our Lord by providing for the needs and maintenance of the church.

If you are interested, please contact the Parish Office at 941-366-4210

REGISTRATION WEEKEND

Be on the lookout for our registration table this Weekend. We will have registration forms and invite all those who are not registered to join our parish family!

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

Please make time in your schedule between March 29 and April 3 to see the movie "Unplanned" which will be playing at the Regal Hollywood, AMC Sarasota 12 and AMC Bradenton 20. This is the most important movie you will ever see on the most controversial issue of our time. From the writers/co-producers of "God's Not Dead", this film brings us an eye-opening look inside the abortion industry from a woman who was once its most passionate advocate.

LECTIO DIVINA

Thursdays during Lent
Starting on March 7th
Br. Geenen Hall at 6:15 p.m.

"Those who listen to the Word of God and act upon it will enter the Kingdom of God"

Lectio Divina is the ancient way of praying and listening to The Word of God. With it, generations of Christians have prayed and deepened their relationships with God. Through the listening to the Word of God they have found and done the will of God in their everyday lives. We invite you to join Fr. Jan Rykala, S.A.C. during Lent to learn more about it and follow this way of praying.

St. Martha Service Club is collecting trial size toiletries during Lent. The items will be used to make "Blessing Bags" for the Resurrection House which is a non-profit, faith-based organization that serves as a day resource center to the homeless of Sarasota County. Please turn in donations to the Parish Office or the upstairs Religious Education office.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In regions around the world affected by violence, many people must flee their homes and find refuge in compounds that are filled with other displaced families, often living in a makeshift shelter of cardboard, sticks, and plastic. The living conditions are unsanitary and many of the children become sick. To address this, Catholic Relief Services (CRS) supports important Catholic organizations that carry out God's work around the world by working with local authorities to relocate these families and help them create a new future.

Further, CRS staff provides plans for simple houses, with frames that can be collapsed. The families contribute labor and local materials. Together, they build clean and spacious dwellings, which dramatically change the family's quality of life. Remembering these humanitarian obligations is part of our role as Catholics, answering the call of Jesus in disguise. Your support of CRS through the annual Collection helps these families re-establish themselves through job skill training which then leads to job placement and the opportunity for a future, all with a minimal roof over their heads. The children are provided services to assist them when returning to school giving them the hope they desperately need.

The CRS Collection will take place in the Diocese of Venice the weekend of March 30 and 31, 2019. Your support of this collection makes a difference for so many around the world. This is one more opportunity for each of us to express compassion and generosity during Lent!

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration as well as my prayers throughout this Lenten Season.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

All are encouraged to attend.

Cuarto Domingo de Cuaresma 31 de marzo de 2019

El que vive según Cristo es una creatura nueva; para él todo lo viejo ha pasado. Ya todo es nuevo. — 2 Corintios 5:17

DIOS PERDONA

El Señor dijo a Josué: "Hoy he quitado de encima de ustedes el oprobio de Egipto". Después de cuarenta años de andar por el desierto, este pueblo insensible finalmente llegó a la Tierra Prometida. Ya no comerían más maná en el desierto, pero compartirían los frutos de esas nuevas tierras. Dios ha mantenido la promesa a sus padres en Egipto. A pesar de que fue un pueblo que pecó, muchas veces interrogando a Dios e incluso adorando a dioses falsos, Dios los perdonó y cumplió la promesa. El "quitar" para nosotros es que no hay pecado que no se perdone. Quizá hayamos ofendido a nuestro prójimo, dado mal ejemplo a alguien, incluso adorado a falsos dioses como dios dinero, dios poder. Pero Dios es misericordioso, verdadero a las palabras que nos ha dirigido. Dios perdona todo y nos llama de regreso al amor.

St. Martha Church Marriage Preparation Classes

*Please come and build a Relationship...
Friendship that will last forever.*

Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, [love] is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails! 1 Corinthians 4-8

Mentors Wanted! Be a support couple (Buddy Couple) to an engaged couple preparing for marriage.
