From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto ...

The spreading of this insidious and very contagious Coronavirus is getting more and more dangerous in our beloved Florida, where more than two million Floridians have taken the test, resulting in many more infected persons, many of whom not even reported any symptoms, but nevertheless still were spreading the virus, especially to us elderly parishioners. It is an act of charity for younger parishioners to be considerate to us elderlies and be gracious enough to wear the mask, keep social distance and wash hands at every time necessary.

And remember to ask our patroness St. Martha, to grant us protection and a quick end to the pandemic. The intercession of the saints, so close to God in paradise, is powerful in God's providence. Typical example is Blessed Michael McGivney, the founder of the Knights of Columbus, of which I am the chaplain of Council 3358.

"Knights of Columbus around the world rejoiced May 27 at the news that Father Michael J. McGivney, the Order's founder, had advanced a step closer to sainthood.

The previous day, Pope Francis approved a decree recognizing a miracle attributed to Father McGivney's intercession, clearing the way for him to be declared "Blessed". It is anticipated that his beatification Mass will be celebrated in the Archdiocese of Hartford sometime in the coming months.

An additional miracle attributed to the priest's intercession will be required for his canonization.

Born of Irish immigrant parents in 1852 in Waterbury, Conn., Father McGivney was ordained in Baltimore in 1877. He ministered to a heavily Irish-American and immigrant community in New Haven and Thomaston, Conn. At a time of anti-Catholic sentiment, the young parish priest worked tirelessly to help his parishioners live out their faith, in part by finding practical solutions to their many problems - spiritual and temporal.

With a group of the leading Catholic men of New Haven, he founded the Knights of Columbus in 1882 at St. Mary's Church to provide spiritual support for Catholic men and financial resources for families that suffered the loss of their breadwinner.

He died of pneumonia Aug. 14, 1890 - two days after his 38th birthday - after falling ill amid a pandemic.

The miracle paving the way for the beatification occurred in the Diocese of Nashville, Tenn., when an unborn child was healed of a very serious medical condition. Doctors gave the parents, Michelle and Daniel Schachle, no hope for their child's survival and offered abortion, which they refused.

A general agent with the Knights of Columbus, Daniel asked his wife to join him in praying to Father McGivney for a miracle and suggested that if the boy survived, they name him after the Order's founder. Other family members, friends and co-workers also invoked Father McGivney's intercession.

A few weeks after the initial diagnosis, an ultrasound found that the unborn child was completely healed of the conditions, defying any medical or scientific explanation. Michael McGivney Schachle, affectionately called "Mikey" by his family, was born May 15, 2015." Venerable Micahel McGivney to be Beatified, Columbia, July/August 2020

Let's ask Blessed McGivney for a special miracle we need today in our lives.

In today's Gospel, our present humanity is symbolized in the dragnet thrown into the lake that is collecting all kinds of fish, some edible and some useless. This dragnet is carried by the boat under water and, finally, slowly, sees the light of the sun when the fishermen hauled it ashore, and then proceeded to make the selection of the good fish.

The present humanity embraces all of us, good and wicked, and like the fish we are confused by being compressed into a tight squeeze by the net. We, too, are confused by the presence of evil people and unimaginable human tragedies, so that sometimes we cannot discern the hand of God in our every day life. But one day, sooner or later, the angels will bring us to the bright presence of our God who is the Eternal Light, and with whom we will be living forever! Do not let your hearts be troubled then; have Faith in Jesus, the Infinite Love!

Many times we receive requests to bring Communion to shut-ins at home or nursing homes. If you have such a request now, or in the future, please contact Pam in the Church Office. Remember Covid-19 restrictions.

As you may know, there are three boxes for the "Poor" in our church, and two in the Parish Center, dedicated to Caritas. Your donations help the poor and the needy in our area. Please continue your generosity. God will reward you.

Next Sunday is Caritas Sunday, when the members of Caritas (all volunteers) seek your donations at the doors of the church to help them to continue to assist the needy of our area. Just walking downtown you can see how many people need our assistance. Caritas is called upon even more now during the summer months when so many parishioners are traveling. Last month we collected the generous amount of $1,267.89 at the doors of the church from you dear parishioners. Thank you and please be generous once again this month.

Wednesday, July 29, we celebrate the feast of St. Martha, the Patroness of our Parish. For us, this will be celebrated as a Solemnity.

Martha was the sister of Mary of Bethany. We know only what we read about her in the Gospels of Luke and John. Whatever is said about her early life comes to us from apocryphal writings, which usually are no more than the work of somebody's imagination. We know that she busied herself preparing a meal for Jesus and his disciples, then went to Jesus to complain that Mary did nothing while she had to do all the housework. It was at that time Jesus reminded her that Mary had chosen "the best part."

We see her again when, at the tomb of her brother Lazarus, she pronounced those profound words of faith which have come into our funeral liturgy: "I know he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus told her: "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, though he should die, will come to life; ...Do you believe this?" "Yes Lord," she replied, "I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God; he who is to come into the world."

The cult of St. Martha began, as far as we know, about the year 1200. Where or how she died we do not know. Whether hers was a martyr's death or a natural one, we do not know. We do know that she is our patroness for whom Jesus was like family, and therefore, a powerful intercessor in the presence of God. Because she took care of the hungry Apostles, the followers of Jesus traditionally know her as the Patroness of housewives, waiters and waitresses. Let us follow her example in caring for the homeless, poor, and HIV sufferers among us!

Let us pray to her for the needs of the parish and for our own personal needs, material and spiritual. The prayer to St. Martha is as follows:

“St. Martha, I resort to thy protection and aid. Comfort me in all my difficulties and through the great favor thou didst enjoy when the Savior was lodged in thy house; intercede for my family that we may always hold God in our hearts, and that we may be provided for in all our necessities. I ask, St. Martha, to overcome all difficulties as thou didst overcome the dragon at thy feet.”

This novena may be said for nine consecutive Tuesdays with the Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be to the Father for the intentions of our Holy Father.

We Catholics are in the “Laudato Si” encyclical in its fifth anniversary celebration (May 24,2020-21). Let us meditate on the Pope’s words: “What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up?” Let’s leave our created earth in better shape than when we were born.

Some parishioners have sent some suggestions about our present Covid-19. We’ll try to accommodate it! One way was to open the balcony or to put people every other pew; unfortunately this suggestion is not in keeping social distance, and any breath particles expelled from the balcony will follow below, I was told. Another request we were asked to consider is to give missalettes at the hall Masses; this could be done, but the missalettes (as bulletins also!) have to be taken home and not passed from parishioners to parishioner hands.

CIVILIZE IT

DIGNITY BEYOND THE DEBATE

2020

A divided country. Fights at the dinner table. Political vitriol. What does it mean to love our neighbors in the midst of such a climate?

As Catholics, we have a long tradition of engagement in the political process as a means of putting our faith into action. We are called to bring the best of ourselves and our faith to the public square—and yet today, many shy away from such involvement because our national and local conversations are filled with vitriol and harsh language, often directed at people themselves.

When personal attacks replace honest debate, no one wins. This kind of attack, no matter the reason, only serves to further divide our communities. As Catholics, we must model a better way. We invite you to join the Civilize It campaign by taking the pledge below as a way to promote civility, love our neighbors, and build community.

Civilize It is about making room in your heart for those with whom you disagree. We are called to recognize that each one of us is a beloved child of God and to respond in love to that reality. Civilize It is a non-partisan call to focus on the dignity of all people, even when we disagree, and to put faith in action by bearing witness to a better way forward.

Take the pledge below as an individual, family, or community. Anyone and everyone can commit together to honoring human dignity through civil conversation.

I pledge:

Civility

To recognize the human dignity of those with whom I disagree, treat others with respect, and rise above attacks when directed at me.

Clarity

To root my political viewpoints in the Gospel and a well formed conscience, which involves prayer, conversation, study and listening. I will stand up for my convictions and speak out when I witness language that disparages others' dignity, while also listening and seeking to understand others' experiences.

Compassion

To encounter others with a tone and posture which affirms that I honor the dignity of others and invites others to do the same. I will presume others' best intentions and listen to their stories with empathy. I will strive to understand before seeking to be understood.

ST. JOSEPH,
UNIVERSAL PROTECTOR
OF THE CHURCH,
DELIVER US FROM CORONAVIRUS COVID-19

To you, St. Joseph, we bring all the fears and anxieties that weighs us down. This pandemic has attacked God's people, bringing much illness, sorrow and death.

We ask you, dearest St. Joseph, to be our guide along this very dark path, for you are the model of faith, courage and fidelity that we need so desperately.

May the Lord send forth the purifying fire of the Holy Spirit, to end this outbreak of disease and renew the hearts of the faithful. Guide us to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, your beloved bride, and to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the hope of all humanity. O St. Joseph, pray ceaselessly for us during this time of suffering, fear and great mourning. May this current pain inflicted upon mankind be transformed by the power of Christ's cross and lead to a new springtime of hope and devotion.

Amen.

THE LEGEND OF A SAINT AND A DRAGON

In Christian lore and legend there are several saints associated with dragons. How did St. Martha leave the toil of her kitchen in Bethany to find herself conquering dragons in a faraway land? It appears in The Golden Legend, a series of oral and written traditions, that a persecution of Christians had ensued soon after Christ ascended into heaven. Martha, her brother Lazarus, and her sister Mary were placed in a boat and set adrift into the Mediterranean Sea. They arrived at the region of Aix where they preached to and converted the inhabitants. In her solo travels to Rhone, Martha was approached by the townspeople who had been plagued by a terrible dragon named Tarasque. Armed with only holy water and a cross, she found the creature feasting on a man in the cave of a dark, shadowy forest. Sprinkling holy water on the dragon, he was stunned into a trance and Martha tied her girdle around his neck. The townspeople then immobilized the beast and killed it with spears and stones. Thereafter, the people were converted to the Faith and named their town Tarascon to commemorate the monster that Martha overcame.

Because of our belief and hope in the Resurrection, we can face death not with fear, but with preparation... We prepare for eternal life by choosing to love and follow God now, in our daily lives and decisions.

What is a Payable on Death (POD) beneficiary designation?

A Payable on Death (POD) account designation allows for the money remaining in the account when the account owner dies to pass directly to a beneficiary named by the account owner. POD beneficiary designation can be setup for checking, savings, money market, certificate of deposit and brokerage accounts.

While the owner of the POD account is alive, the beneficiary named by the owner will not have any access to or control over the POD account. By naming St. Martha as a POD beneficiary, the remaining balance of the account will transfer to St. Martha at the account owner's death. Setting up a POD beneficiary does not require a change to your will or trust.

Please contact Teresa McCoy in the Parish Office at 941-366-4210 or tmccoy@stmartha.org and we can provide you with details and instructions.

Thank you for your support of St. Martha Parish. Our parishioners are our only source of funds and your contributions keep the lights on, enable parish ministries, and support our outreach to the poor.
