From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto ...

The Pandemic seems to have a resurgence now. People there are clamoring to go to work, I hope that, now that the elections are over, let's pray together for a return to normal, productive lives. I did mention about the Encyclical "Fratelli Tutti" which translates "(We are) All Siblings." I wish to present to you a few quotes, so to understand this often misunderstood Pope...

Opened by a brief introduction and divided into eight chapters, the Encyclical gathers, as the Pope himself explains, many of his statements on fraternity and social friendship, arranged, however, "in a broader context of reflection" and complemented by "a number of letters, documents" sent to Francis by "many individuals and groups throughout the world" (5). In the first chapter, "Dark clouds over a closed world", the documents reflect on the many distortions of the contemporary era: the manipulation and deformation of concepts such as democracy, freedom, justice; the loss of the meaning of the social community and history; selfishness and indifference toward the common good; the prevalence of a market logic based on profit and the culture of waste; unemployment, racism, poverty; the disparity of rights and its aberrations such as slavery, trafficking, women subjugated and then forced to abort, organ trafficking (10-24). It deals with global problems that call for global actions, emphasized the Pope, also sounding the alarm against a "culture of walls" that favours the proliferation of organized crime, fueled by fear and loneliness (27-28). Moreover, today we observe a deterioration of ethics (29), contributed to, in a certain way, by the mass media which shatter respect for others and eliminate all discretion, creating isolated and self-referential virtual circles, in which freedom is an illusion and dialogue is not constructive (42-50).

Today's Gospel reflects the customs of Israel at Jesus' times. The groom would go in the evening to the bride's house and was met by the bridesmaids who were young ladies, obviously virgins themselves, who with lighted up lamps would lead the nuptial procession. As it happened, the groom was late and the organized bridesmaids were smart enough to carry flasks of reserve oil for their lamps, so they could weather the delay. But the absent-minded bridesmaids had to leave the procession to find fuel for their lamps, and when back to the spot, they found no one. They rushed to the groom's house, but the groom didn't receive them. Jesus then gives us a warning: "stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour" when God stops the clock of our terrestrial life. Heart attack, an act of terrorism, a fatal traffic accident can cut our lives suddenly, and we will find ourselves facing God's judgement: will we be in a state of grace? Let's be ready and in the state of grace.

Tomorrow we celebrate Rome's Cathedral. If you have visited any basilica in Rome, the guards will not allow women with skimpy or sexy clothing. Here in Sarasota, a beach city, sometimes we have a cavalierly attitude about church dress code. Let's review the rules of conduct in church. We must be conscious of Jesus' presence in church and conduct ourselves according to the faith we profess with our lips, not according to our climate, hot and, even in winter, usually warm. The etiquette of church conduct starts at home.

1. Dress modestly. What might be sexy and appealing at a bar, a beach or at a party, is an insult to God. We are so "politically correct" in our speech and conduct that we would not dream to offend anyone, but we have no scruples to offend God. Remember that God has created us and He knows perfectly how we are made, both body and soul, so we do not need to parade our bodies in His house - RIGHT?
2. Prepare for your generous offering to God, and bring your name tag, so that your priests and fellow parishioners will know you and greet you by name.
3. Have breakfast, if attending later Masses, but keep an eye to the Eucharistic fast of one hour. Usually by the time we drive, participate at Mass, one hour is surely accounted for.
4. Be on time. You would not dream to be late going to a movie, opera, concert, sporting event, or even a private dinner invitation. You young mothers and fathers have children that you feed, dress them up, make sure you sent them to the bathroom before your departure for church, and then nice and happy you are ready to start the car, on time, and then a little voice in the back seat pleads, "Mom, I need to go potty"...argh!!
5. On entering the church, hats off for men, maybe a veil (optional) for ladies if they so wish. Make the sign of the cross, lightly touching the Holy Water, with a heart sorry for our sins, this greeting will erase our daily venial sins. It is the same effect achieved at the Penitential Rite, or Holy Water sprinkling at the beginning of the Mass. By the way, Holy Communion has the same effect. These directions are when the pandemic ends.
6. Genuflect with your dominating knee, or as in the case of us arthritic elderlies, bow to the cross or to the tabernacle. Let's get in to an available pew, kneel or sit and pray, and now is the time to turn off the ring of our cell phones. In this pandemic keep a safe distance.
7. Respond and sing out loud, following the songs offered by the cantor. "Those who sing, pray twice," St. Augustine said. If God has not given some of us a singing, tuned-up voice, then let's hum it. In this pandemic, we limit singing.
8. The rules to follow at the Mass are:
  - a. Stand at the beginning of the Mass, as the priest enters, through the penitential service, the Gloria and the opening prayer.
  - b. Sit at the beginning of the first reading to the end of the second reading.
  - c. Stand from the Alleluia to the end of the Gospel, during the Creed, and Prayer of the Faithful.
  - d. Sit during the Sermon and Offertory.
  - e. Stand at the Invitation to Prayer - "Pray Brothers and Sisters..." to the end of the Holy, Holy, Holy.
  - f. Kneel for Eucharistic Prayer until the Great Amen, if you are in the pews.
  - g. Stand from Our Father to "Behold, the Lamb of God"
  - h. Sit after Communion until the Final Prayer.
  - i. Stand from the Final Prayer until the end.
9. Be orderly in going to Holy Communion. Answer

The obligation to attend Sunday Mass is dispensed until November 27, 2020.

Please visit our website, www.stmartha.org for a complete list of Guidelines for Masses at St. Martha Church

“Amen” with a bow to the priest saying, “The Body of Christ” and likewise to the deacon, “The Blood of Christ.” Here in St. Martha, Communion with the Body and Blood of Christ is offered on Sundays at the 9:00 a.m. Mass. It is your choice to receive Jesus’ body on the mouth or reverently in your cupped hand, sustained by the other hand. Once receiving the Sacred Body, step aside and immediately consume it, then go back and sit in the pew. In the present pandemic just follow the appropriate exceptions to these rules, as instructed.

10. Pray and reflect after receiving Holy Communion. It is often perplexing to witness people receiving Holy Communion and bolting to the side doors (the main church door cannot be used as the Communion ministers are distributing Jesus). We do not know why people cannot pay due homage to Jesus inside their bodies, so we obviously cannot judge such conduct, only God is the judge. Church traditions invite us to come back to our pew, sit and dialogue with Jesus, leaving the church after the presider is out of the door.

I’m writing this bulletin on Election Day, and I do not know how the elections went. Let’s offer to God an Election Sacrifice: a Holy Mass, a 2nd Rosary, a day without sweets, strong drinks, or TV, etc., etc. for the purpose of peace with our neighbors, and inner peace within ourselves: in 100 years we all will be in Paradise!

I hope that, following our traditions, we give due respect and love to God, and good example to our neighbors.

Smile, God loves you and so does Fr. Fausto with your St. Martha clergy:

Prayer for Veterans

Father, bless our veterans and all who serve our nation defending our freedom.

For those who bravely gave their lives, grant them eternal rest.

For those who are serving, give them courage.

For those who served, we offer our gratitude.

We ask this through Christ Our Lord.
Amen.
