From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto...

My Dear Friends,

Holy and Happy Easter to all of you, St. Martha parishioners and visitors!

When on that fateful Friday, a little, sad funeral was hastily bringing Jesus' lifeless body to be buried in a brand new tomb donated by a friend of the Master, everything seemed lost and pointless! The Romans, oppressors of the Jewish Nation, had crucified Jesus.

The Great Healer, who could raise the dead, was Himself a pierced, lifeless, dead body! The intoxication of the triumphant entrance into Jerusalem had faded into an unbroken despair! All the dreams of a glorious restoration of a Jewish Kingdom were now seen just as a bad joke: "We were hoping that He would be the one to redeem Israel" (Luke 24:21). All the talk of being the Son of God and to rise from the dead (Mark 9:9-10) was now seen as the manic expressions of a kind and gentle, but self-deluded, mentally deranged healer.

Nobody on that early Sunday morning took Jesus' resurrection seriously! The disciples were locked in their upper-room, waiting for the fateful knock on the door by the Temple guards, waiting to be arrested, or worse, for following Jesus. The women were just wondering who was going to roll the tombstone. If they would have believed in Jesus' resurrection, they would not have gone to the tomb! Of all the people standing at the foot of the cross only one did not go to the tomb: Mary, the Mother of Jesus!

Mary of Magdala was the leader of the women who went to cry over Jesus' body. But when the women went to the tomb, they found an empty tomb. Mary of Magdala ran up to the cenacle, the upper room of the Last Supper, and told Simon Peter: "They have taken the Lord from the tomb and we don't know where they put Him." Meanwhile, the other ladies were the object of an angelic vision which stunned them into speechless silence. Peter, John and Magdalene went to the tomb, and young John was puzzled not only by the fact of the empty tomb itself, but by the fact that the burial shroud was there, but rolled up on one side and the Sudarium (face cloth) was rolled up in another place. Immediately, John realized that the body was not stolen, but that the Lord was risen. Then, leaving Magdalene kneeling down in tears facing the black opening of the empty tomb, Peter and John left and they went back to the cenacle, where the news of the empty tomb had brought so much sadness; because the other disciples realized that Jesus' enemies did not even want to let His body rest in peace.

Then Jesus, alive and well, appeared to Mary Magdalene! And the few passers-by of the still deserted streets of Jerusalem saw a young woman running and screaming like crazy: "He's alive, He's risen!" But the disciples in the upper room were so frightened to attract attention and they had their hands full with her delirious non-sense, pitying her emotional outburst.

And then ... "Shalom" (Peace to You) ... they turned and just inside the locked door, unmistakably alive, smiling and radiant, was Jesus. He did rise as He promised! They could not believe their eyes. Actually some of them thought Jesus was a ghost so Jesus asked, "Don't you have anything to eat?" Then the fear was broken, ghost do not eat. And then the banquet started and continued up to today at Mass.

Today we, Jesus' followers, share the inexpressible joy of the early disciples in recognizing the incredible, impossible, mind-boggling reality of Jesus' Resurrection, which makes us certain of our own resurrection and eternal life in Paradise, forever and ever!

So, my dear friends, let us follow Jesus in accepting to carry our crosses, in facing our sufferings and death, in looking at our tomb as a door to heaven, all knowing well that we, the Christians, will have a second, glorious, endless life with our Savior, Jesus.

Next Sunday, April 11, is Divine Mercy Sunday. The Pope established plenary indulgences on Divine Mercy Sunday. The plenary indulgence is granted under the usual conditions of confession, Eucharist and prayer for the intentions of the Pope. On Divine Mercy Sunday, which is the first Sunday after Easter, the faithful have to recite the "Our Father," the "Creed" and any devout prayer such as, "Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!" St. Martha will have a Divine Mercy Holy Hour, including a Mass, in the Church on April 11 at 2 p.m. All are invited to this special event.

Delayed a week because of Easter, next Sunday is Caritas Sunday. The first Sunday of each month the Caritas volunteers are at the door after each Mass to ask for your donations to help the needy in our community. Please be as generous as possible. Thank you.

I exhort all of you, dear parishioners to come to one of our Easter Services, but in case there is no room in the Church or Hall, at least go the confessional window in the cloister to receive Holy Communion.

Easter time medical reports are not encouraging (March 24). We Floridians have had 1,944,995 cases since March 1, 2019 with 32,266 deaths, out of our population of 20,598,139. Out beautiful Sarasota County with a population of 412,144 had 26,182 cases with 750 deaths. All persons 50 years of age and older are now eligible to receive the free vaccine. A person younger than 50 can still receive the vaccine if: is a health care worker with direct patient contact or is a staff/resident of a long-term care facility or is extremely vulnerable and is recommended by a physician (form required).

Total Floridians vaccinated so far is 5,346,471 (164,524 in Sarasota). Let us pray the good Lord to accelerate the healing of our nation and of our state. Looking at certain TV pictures of wild spring-break vacationers, I wonder how insensitive some people are to others...mama mia! Well, anyway: Buona Pasqua, Happy Joyful Easter!

Smile, God loves you and so does Fr. Fausto with your St. Martha clergy:

Fathers Patrick, Jan, Chris, John, & Jerry
Deacons Bill, Patrick, Robert, Vern and Kevin
Sister Cathy and Brothers Lawrence & William

The obligation to attend Sunday Mass is currently dispensed (Bishop Frank J. Dewane will indicate a new date).

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
APRIL 11, 2021

Next Sunday, St. Martha will have a Divine Mercy Holy Hour in the Church. This will begin at 2 p.m. with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and the Divine Mercy Chaplet, followed by Mass at 3 p.m. There will be the opportunity for Confession between 2 p.m. and 3 p.m.

Hearty Meals Project

Thank you to our wonderful St. Martha Religious Education students and parents and St. Martha parishioners for your generous donations to the Service Club - Hearty Meals Project. Thanks to you we were able to make and donate 330 lunches to the Streets of Paradise Organization and donate 5 shopping carts full of food to Family Promise.

A SPECIAL THANK YOU to our Service Club mom, Kristen Dooley who organized the entire project and every week picked up the lunches from the church and delivered them to Streets of Paradise.

POPE FRANCIS PRAYER INTENTIONS
APRIL 2021

We pray for those who risk their lives while fighting for fundamental rights under dictatorships, authoritarian regimes and even in democracies in crisis.

The Herrig Caritas Center has reopened!

During the Covid-19 pandemic, the Herrig Caritas Center had to temporarily close. And although we have been able to offer assistance in other ways, such as work boots and the food pantry, we are happy to announce the Caritas Center has reopened. The assistance is currently limited to FPL bills and the interview process is done over the phone (no visitors allowed). It is a big step in the right direction!

If you are in need of assistance, please call (941) 366-5620 Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. - 11 a.m. to speak with a volunteer.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

An Easter Message from Bishop Frank J. Dewane

Christ is Risen! Alleluia! Alleluia!

I wish to extend my Easter Greetings, and rejoice with you in the joy of the Resurrection. I pray that the Easter “Alleluia”, which echoes forth from the Church, will refresh the hearts of all the Faithful.

This Easter Season also brings us the hope that the worst of the Pandemic is somehow behind us and that we are drawing close to the time when our Parish Churches can once again resound with the voices of all the Faithful. Throughout history, God has miraculously provided: new vaccines promise protection from the virus and new therapeutics are beginning to thwart the worst effects of the Coronavirus. In the near future, it is my prayer that we will be able to embrace the full practice of our faith once again together and without fear.

Let us rejoice fully in the Praise of God this Easter. Through the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ, we have been made new in the waters of Baptism and become co-heirs to life-eternal. Christ did not forget us during these difficult days, but has been with us! He has strengthened the weak, comforted the dying, and inspired health care workers, scientists, grocery store workers, clergy and others who provide essential services, to help them persevere. Learning from Christ’s compassion has also led us to protect and care for the lonely elderly, sick and vulnerable of our brothers and sisters.

Easter is a time for us to be courageous witnesses to your Faith. Our family, friends, and neighbors need to hear the joyful message of Easter - Jesus Christ is Lord, and we have life in His name! May our hearts be opened to the need for something greater than ourselves. In this time when all things seem virtual, people are hungry for what is real, Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today, and forever. Be witnesses of Christ this Easter Season.

Know of my prayer for each of you and your family. I kindly ask the same of you. Let the light of the Risen Christ, symbolized by the Paschal Candle which shines in our churches during the Easter season, shatter any darkness you are experiencing. Allow the joyful Alleluia to refresh your faith, hope, and love.

Have a Happy and Blessed Easter.

What is a Payable on Death (POD) beneficiary designation?

A Payable on Death (POD) account designation allows for the money remaining in the account when the account owner dies to pass directly to a beneficiary named by the account owner. POD beneficiary designation can be setup for checking, savings, money market, certificate of deposit and brokerage accounts.

While the owner of the POD account is alive, the beneficiary named by the owner will not have any access to or control over the POD account. By naming St. Martha as a POD beneficiary, the remaining balance of the account will transfer to St. Martha at the account owner's death. Setting up a POD beneficiary does not require a change to your will or trust.

Please contact Teressa McCoy in the Parish Office at 941-366-4210 or tmccoy@stmartha.org and we can provide you with details and instructions.

Thank you for your support of St. Martha Parish.
Our parishioners are our only source of funds and your contributions keep the lights on, enable parish ministries, and support our outreach to the poor.

Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, “God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end.”

The Youth Mental Health First Aid USA curriculum is primarily focused on information participants can use to help adolescents and transition-age youth, ages 12-18. Youth Mental Health First Aid USA is an 8 hour public education program which introduces participants to the unique risk factors and warning signs of mental health problems in adolescents, builds understanding of the importance of early intervention, and teaches individuals how to help an adolescent in crisis or experiencing a mental health challenge. Mental Health First Aid uses role-playing and simulations to demonstrate how to assess a mental health crisis; select interventions and provide initial help; and connect young people to professional, peer, social, and self-help care.

WHAT WILL PARTICIPANTS LEARN?

The course teaches participants the risk factors and warning signs of a variety of mental health challenges common among adolescents. Participants learn to support a youth developing signs and symptoms of a mental illness or in an emotional crisis by applying a core five-step action plan:

- Assess for risk of suicide or harm
- Listening without judgement
- Give reassurance and information
- Encourage appropriate professional help
- Encourage self-help and other support strategies

Cost is $25 per person. Space is limited to the first 30 people registered at each site. Register at dioceseofvenice.regfox.com/workshop-on-youth-mental-health-first-aid by April 25.

HELPING HOMELESS FAMILIES

Family Promise of Sarasota takes a holistic approach to the crisis of families with children who are facing homelessness. Although Covid-19 has slowed its shelter efforts, their Home for Good program is active in preventing family homelessness whenever possible. Through its partnership with multiple social service agencies, FPS offers families with children a variety of services: case management, affordable child care referrals, negotiation strategies with debt agencies and landlords, emergency funds and other community resources to stay in or obtain safe, sustainable housing. FPS is supported by 20 interfaith congregations, including St. Martha through new coordinators Kate and Dave Shaver.
