*From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto...My Dear Friends,

We are in the middle of the traditional vacation period: enjoy your well-deserved rest if you can find the time (...and the money) to enjoy it! Please remember the three capital rules of vacation:

1. If you drink, let someone else drive.
2. Attend Mass on weekends. If sometimes you miss it because there is no church where your hotel (or campground) is located, do not have a panic attack: recite the rosary or read a biblical chapter that day, so to praise the Lord always on His Holy Day.
3. Whenever you put your key into the ignition to start your vehicle, say a prayer with the other passenger(s), asking your Guardian Angel, the Blessed Mother, St. Christopher, or your patron Saint to join their prayers to yours, so that God will protect you and your dear ones from all harm during your trip. By the way, I also pray to God thru the Blessed Mother's intercessions for the poor souls of Purgatory whenever I drive near a cemetery. I am sure that when they reach Heaven they will intercede to God on my behalf.

Today's Gospel is the basis on which the Monastic Life in the Church found its ideal. Living together (two by two...) in convents and monasteries, shunning marriage for the sake of the Kingdom (vow of chastity), carrying very little of the goods and possessions of this world (vow of poverty), obeying the Lord Jesus in the person of the superiors (vow of obedience). As Jesus remarked once, not everybody is called to this way of life.

Following the monastic ideals, from the IV century, a call was made in the Western Roman Empire to have priests, deacons, and bishops start an ascetical life of abstaining from conjugal rights, or not ordaining married men to Holy Orders. The bishops of the Council of Nicaea (325) rejected a request from Spanish bishops to restrict ordination only to unmarried men. For centuries debate between promoters and opponents of married clergy continued unabated. The debate ended for the Eastern churches in the Trullan Synod in 692. Which decreed that bishops must not be married, priests and deacons should be monogamous (one wife), not allowed to remarry. That is why the term "celibacy" started to indicate that, after ordination, no cleric could be legally married. The sacrament of Holy Order would make null and void a subsequent marriage. Pushed by the Spanish bishops, the Western churches (Roman, Ambrosian, Gallican or Mozarabic) starting with the Council of Elvira (300 A.D.) continued instead with not allowing married men to be ordained, or directing already married priests with abstinence from marital act for 7 days before celebrating Mass. One of the strongest champions of unmarried clergy was Pope Leo I (460-461).

But especially in the Dark Years of the Middle Ages, some bishops ordained married men to the priesthood, creating scandal among the faithful because married clergymen were enriching their children with goods given to the churches. This situation ended with the reforms of Pope Gregory VII (1073-85). Trent Council (1545-63) declared that celibacy is not of Divine Law, but only a church law. Vatican II (1962-65) allowed married men to be ordained to the Order of Deacons, but with the rule of celibacy remaining in force.

In this day and age, good men and women are still choosing religious life. Unfortunately, the media never puts this in headlines. These men and women represent a wide range of backgrounds, ages and experiences. Are they perfect people from perfect homes? NO! But they are wholesome, creative persons who feel inspired by God to serve His people in a unique way.

Truly, at this time in history, the Church needs to strengthen its priestly and religious ranks with happy, healthy persons who have the desire to make a difference in the Church, and in the world, which is today filled mainly with struggle and confusion. All religious communities are looking for persons to whom God is significant in their lives, persons who can offer a compassionate service to others. The Church needs men and women who have leadership skills and can work well with a variety of people. No one is born a priest, brother, or sister. Vocations are God-inspired and home made.

In looking at Jesus in His time, we notice that He was never half-hearted in His way of calling forth His disciples. His great desire was to bring God's healing presence and reign in the world. Thus, Jesus looked potential followers right in the eye and invited them to join Him. Even today, Jesus has a mission to fulfill and a message to share. Challenges from the left or right would not stop Him, or us, His loving followers.

Jesus' call for disciples and co-workers must go out today as boldly as ever. His message and mission are still dynamic and must be shared. To be a brother, priest or sister is a way of responding dramatically to that call. It is not the only type of response, but a highly significant one. Those who open themselves in faith to the power of the Spirit in their lives, and choose to answer "YES" to the Lord's invitation: "Follow Me," are surely helping to bring about a new dawn in the Church.

The object is not to push more people into the priesthood and religious life. It is not a numbers game. Rather, it is to call forth those among us who have what it takes to live and serve in this way. As we continue to shape the Church of the future, we need generous and creative ministers among us. Consider it! This could be you or someone you know.

By the way, sometimes we wonder how the Bishops have ordained certain unworthy men to the Holy Orders; but priests and deacons are chosen from among us, and we are all sinners! Just compare the twelve handpicked apostles by Jesus: What a motley crew! No Bishop today would have ordained or even considered guys like these! In all four lists of the Twelve Apostles, Simon, to whom Jesus gave the name Peter (from the Greek petros = rock), is always the number one, the first pope, but the one who denied he even knew Jesus; some choice!

Andrew was the brother of Simon, both first were followers of John the Baptist and both were commercial fishermen, not exactly the best scholarly and theological profession toward being a preacher.

Another set of brothers, James the elder and John the beloved, also professional fishermen, were called "boanerges" in Greek (probably from Hebrew "beverages") which in colloquial English could be rendered as "hot tempered," not an enticing quality for the patient and gentle care giving of a minister.

Thomas (the "twin") steadfastly refused to believe the women and the apostles who saw the Risen Lord, with that famous crude expression, "Unless I poke my fingers into the nail-holes of His hands and my fist into His side, I will not believe;" lack of faith is definitely not a recommendation for a minister of God!

Matthew belonged to the most hated profession in Rome dominated Israel: tax collector (merciless, rapacious and exceedingly greedy). Not a recommended career to step up to ministry!

Then we have Simon the zealot or qanana. This last Jewish word can today be loosely translated as “terrorist”, a stunning choice for the all-embracing, love-thy-enemy follower of Jesus.

Judas Iscariot (the man from Karioth, a southern village of Judea) was the treasurer of Jesus, so greedy that he betrayed his master...wow!

Of the four remaining apostles: Bartholomew (son of Talmi), Levi, Thaddaeus, and Jude, we know nothing, and even there is some confusion about their names and identities! They were nobodies, so nothing recommended them to become the pillars of the church. But as God said “My ways are not your ways, and my thoughts are not your thoughts.” Jesus chose them and they established the Holy, Roman, Catholic Church, the billion-strong family of Jesus’ friends, bent on proclaiming the Good News of a loving God to a murderous world.

So...if today you, my dear people, hear or read about the failures and sins of deacons, priests and bishops, please remember that we clerics are chosen by God not because of any super-human quality, but because of a mysterious and inexplicable design of God on our lives to which, sometimes foolishly and sometimes generously, we have answered “yes”! As the song says, “Here I am, Lord. Is it I Lord? I have heard you calling in the night.” Please pray for us clerics; we are not perfect, just forgiven!

Friday, July 16 is the Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, the Lady of the Scapular. The Blessed Mother appeared to an English Carmelite Friar, St. Simon Stock, and promised that no one would see the flames of Hell if they piously lived and died wearing the Scapular (an outside special vest that Friars wear). In the past, many Popes have approved such apparitions, and recent Popes have even allowed the substitution of the Scapular with Medal, which I wear around my neck day and night. Wear your Scapular or Medal!

We would like to welcome Fr. Alphonse Tri Vu, C.R.M., to St. Martha Parish as successor of Fr. John Cao. Fr. Alphonse was ordained to the priesthood on June 2, 2012, by the Most Reverend James Vann Johnston, Bishop of Springfield-Cape Girardeau. His first priestly assignment was as Associate Pastor of Immaculate Conception Parish, in Springfield, Missouri. He was then assigned as Associate Pastor of Christ the King, Fort Worth, Texas, and recently, as Associate Pastor of St. Ann and Joseph Hien Church in the Archdiocese of Saint Paul - Minneapolis, Minnesota. We pray for Fr. Alphonse and wish him a very spiritual ministry for us, Jesus’ flock of St. Martha!

Smile, God loves you and so does Fr. Fausto with your St. Martha clergy:

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

Pope Francis instituted the Church-wide celebration of World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. Beginning this year, this special day will be held on the fourth Sunday of July (July 25), close to the liturgical memorial of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus. The theme chosen by the Holy Father for this World Day is "I am with you always" (cf. Mt 28:20) which is a way of expressing the closeness of the Lord and the Church to every older person, especially in these challenging pandemic times. "I am with you always" is also a promise of closeness and hope that young and old can mutually share. Not only are grandchildren and young people called upon to be present in the lives of older people, but older people and grandparents also have the mission of evangelization, proclamation and prayer, and of encouraging young people in their Faith.

Prayer for Safety During Hurricane Season

The 2021 Hurricane Season officially began on June 1 and will continue until November 30. All are encouraged to pray for protection from the storms that often threaten Southwest Florida. The devastation of past hurricanes reinforce the fact that we need to pray for God's protection and care.

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awaken from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies, whose memories are still so vivid, and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.
