*From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto...My Dear Friends,

A heated political debate is brewing in our public arena on account of a spike in Covid-19. In our state, on July 21, it was recorded 8,988 new cases with 58 deaths, almost 100% affecting the non-vaccinated people, prompting calls to bring back the previous precautions (masks, safe distancing and sanitation). Politicians are telling us that the end of the pandemic will be reached when the great majority of the USA population has been vaccinated, then about 75 to 80%.

Our Governor DeSantis on the 21st of July said, "If you are vaccinated, fully vaccinated, the chances of you getting seriously ill or dying from Covid is effectively zero. If you look at the people who now are being admitted to the hospital, 95% of them are not fully vaccinated or not vaccinated at all. These vaccines are saving lives."

For Christians, still healthy and unvaccinated, with no medical restrictions or allergies, let us consider in front of God, what is the best outcome for the welfare of all people.

Today's Gospel continues the teaching on the Eucharist by Jesus Himself, with His prophecy of the gift of the Eucharist, which was given to us at the Last Supper: "I myself am the bread of Life." We have to ponder three sentences of the passage: 1) "You are ...looking for me because you have eaten your fill of the loaves." Have you noticed how many times we pray hard only for material reasons: a new joy, a new car, house... Are we asking God for holiness? Patience? Faith? 2) "You should ... be working ...for food that remains unto life eternal." Are we praying enough for eternal salvation? We may kill ourselves for social position or financial security... but what profit is it to us if we die millionaires, but are forever in hell? 3) "No one who comes to me shall ever be hungry," Jesus said! If we receive Holy Communion weekly or, even better, daily, we will have great peace of mind and inner joy. Peace the world cannot give us, but Jesus can, and does give when, after receiving Him in Holy Communion, He passes on His divine strength to us during the silent adoration of our God. Just sneak a view of paradise!

After what I wrote last Sunday about the Eucharist, some asked me to make sure to have the official canonical laws of Mother Church re-printed, and so here they are:

The rules of our Holy Church on Holy Communion are as follows from Canon 844:

1. Catholic ministers may licitly administer the sacraments to Catholic members of the Christian faithful only and, likewise, the latter may licitly receive the sacraments only from Catholic ministers with due regard for 2, 3, and 4 of the canon, and canon 861.
2. Whenever necessity requires or a genuine, spiritual advantage suggests, and provided that the danger of error or indifferentism is avoided, it is lawful for the faithful for whom it is physically or morally impossible to approach a Catholic minister, to receive the sacraments of penance, Eucharist and anointing of the sick from non-Catholic ministers in whose churches these sacraments are valid.
3. Catholic ministers may licitly administer the sacraments of penance, Eucharist and anointing of the sick to members of the Oriental churches that do not have full communion with the Catholic Church, if they ask on their own for the sacraments and are properly disposed. This holds also for members of the other churches which, in the judgment of the Apostolic See, are in the same condition as the Oriental churches as far as these sacraments are concerned.

4. If the danger of death is present or in other grave necessity, in the judgment of the diocesan bishop or the Conference of Bishops, Catholic ministers may licitly administer these sacraments to other Christians who do not have full communion with the Catholic Church, who cannot approach a minister of their own community and on their own ask for it, provided they manifest Catholic faith in these sacraments and are properly disposed.
5. For the cases in 2, 3 and 4, neither the diocesan bishop nor the Conference of Bishops is to enact general norms except after consultation with at least the local competent authority of the interested non-Catholic church or community.

Some parishioners still do not know about the privilege of receiving Jesus twice a day, as granted by the late Pope St. John Paul II in 1983. Let me remind all of you, dear friends, of the necessary conditions to receive Jesus in Holy Communion, as we all remember them well from the old catechism. They have changed little since the Second Vatican Council. Now we may receive Holy Communion twice a day, and the fast of one hour for communion has been granted to all the faithful. (One hour has to be measured with Italian not Anglo-Saxon precision!) The other rules have not been changed, especially the necessity of being in the state of Grace, which means without mortal sin staining our soul. In case of an emergency (on the battlefield, for example), when there is no time to go to confess our mortal sins, our tender Mother Church allows us to express our deep sorrow for our mortal sins, say an Act of true Contrition, go to Holy Communion, and then, as soon as possible (within a month), go to confession. This is naturally the merciful exception to the general rule, lest we commit the more serious sin of sacrilege, as the Bible teaches us: "Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily, will have to answer for the Body and Blood of the Lord" (1 Cor 11: 27). Only Catholics can receive Holy Communion, because it is the sign of belonging to the true church of Christ, and the sign of Christian Unity! And, as St. Ignatius teaches us, Jesus in Holy Communion makes many of us One Body, bringing to unity all those who receive Him. Just as one bread is made from thousands of small wheat grains growing in the great plains, and on the hills, Jesus makes us one.

Thursday, August 5 is the feast of Our Lady of the Snows, more popularly known in Rome as "Santa Maria Maggiore," the biggest Church in the world dedicated to our Mother in Heaven; one of the four major Basilicas of Rome, the other three being St. John the Baptist (Rome's Cathedral), St. Peter on the Vatican Hill, and St. Paul outside the walls.

According to an old Roman tradition, Pope Liberius (352-366) had a dream of the Blessed Mother asking him to build a church in her honor above one of the seven hills of Rome that would be covered by snow that day. When the Pope woke up because of a terrible summer storm and heard that the Esquilin Hill was totally covered by huge hail stones the size of a man's fist, he sequestered the huge building of the "Esquilinae Thermae" and turned it into a Church, which was rebuilt and dedicated by Pope Sixtus III (432-440) a couple of years after the Council of Ephesus (431), in Perpetual Memory of the title "Theotokos" (Mother of God) given to Mary by the Bishops of the Council. It is a Church very dear to my heart, because in this beautiful

Basilica I was baptized, was an altar boy and celebrated my first Holy Mass.

Today is Caritas Sunday, when the members of Caritas (all volunteers) seek your donations at the doors of the church to help them with money to continue to assist the needy of our area. Just walking downtown you can see how many people we have who need assistance in our area alone.

Our beloved Bishop Frank J. Dewane on July 21 sent a letter, and I quote:

"Recently, Pope Francis issued an Apostolic letter motu proprio: Traditionis custodes - on the use of the Roman Liturgy Prior to the Reform of 1970. The Apostolic Letter has implications for the priests who celebrate the Mass using the Roman Missal of St. John XXIII of 1962, as well as the faithful attending the liturgies according to what had been called the "Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite." However, as priests of the Diocese of Venice, I wish to inform all of you on this matter.

As Ordinary, I am studying the new responsibilities entrusted to me by the Holy Father in the motu proprio and how to implement the new norms in the Diocese of Venice. It is anticipated that, in the near future, the Diocese will issue an Instruction on how to proceed in the celebrations according to the Roman Missal of 1962.

Until then, priests who have been celebrating the Liturgy according to the Roman Missal of 1962 should know that in accord with Tradiciones custodes of Pope Francis, 16 July 2021, by this letter, I extend to you the faculty to continue celebrating the Sacred Liturgy using the Roman Missal of St. John XXIII of 1962 mutatis mutandis, that is observing the adaptations called for in the Apostolic Letter. The grant of the faculty is in force immediately and until the above-referenced Instruction for the Diocese is issued."

DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Church in Africa is growing rapidly! While rejoicing in this growth, it presents several truly difficult challenges. Many still lack access to basic resources and pastoral care to support their faith. For example, in Eritrea, government travel restrictions prevent Eritreans under age 50 from going abroad and this prevents pastors in Eritrean parishes from receiving the training they need to effectively administer their parishes.

Your contribution will assist in providing pastoral care and support to large numbers of people throughout Africa as they face many obstacles that come from poverty and unemployment, poor health care, and migration. In addition, your generosity to the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa makes it possible, especially for younger, recently ordained priests, to learn pastoral and leadership skills that they can apply to better serve their parish communities.

The Collection for Solidarity with the Church in Africa will be taken up in the Diocese of Venice on the weekend of August 7 and 8, 2021. When you contribute to this Collection, you are helping people across the African continent grow closer to Christ and to the Church. Won't you please be generous to this collection and pray for our African sisters and brothers?

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration and my prayers!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

We Are In A Blood Supply Crisis – Critical Call For Local Blood Donations

THE NEED IS NOW

Every hospital in our community is facing a critical blood supply shortage – and you, your friends, family and neighbors are at severe risk!

Your Community Urgently Needs Your Help – NOW!

Your blood donation with SunCoast Blood Centers will help ensure we have the blood products needed to save local lives. Just 45 minutes of your time will make a world of difference.

- There is no substitute for blood, it has to come from one human being to another.
- We are reaching out to other blood centers, but this is a national crisis. Many state blood supplies experiencing a 50% decrease in donations.
- Since May 28, SunCoast Blood Centers has not collected more than 100 units in a day.
- SunCoast Blood Centers mobile collections has decreased 60%. However, the need for red blood cells has increased 20%.
- On average, 150 whole blood units need to be collected every 24 hours to supply the 14 local hospitals in our area.
- On any given day one single patient could use between 25 and 40 units of red blood cells.
- A single traumatic event can deplete our entire existing local supply.

Help Us Save the Community Blood Supply Today!

Our 6 donation centers, fleet of bloodmobiles and "At Home" concierge units are waiting for you!
