From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto...*My Dear Friends,

According to the NY Times (statistics as of Thursday, July 29) our state had 17,589 Covid cases, double the cases of a week ago, with 56 deaths.

Our Sarasota county had a seven day average of 128 new cases and no deaths. I received a couple of hours ago a private report, and I quote "Today (July 30) Sarasota Memorial Hospital had a huge increase in intensive care patients: 29 plus another 115 with Covid/Delta."

The U.S.A. had 95,083 cases with 389 deaths. According to Google, hospitalizations and deaths are rising again as the extremely contagious Delta variant is the dominant strain in the U.S. More than 97.4% of hospitalization from Covid, right now, are of unvaccinated people said Dr. Walensky, Director of CDC, on Friday. This is becoming a pandemic of the unvaccinated.

Again, I repeat what I wrote last week: For us Christians, still healthy and unvaccinated, with no medical restrictions or allergies, let us consider in front of God, what is the best outcome for the welfare of all people.

Just before going to press, August 1st has brought more than 21,000 new covid cases (with more than 10,000 hospitalizations) to Florida, making our state the most infected in the nation.

The question most often asked by teens to their parents is: "Why must I go to Mass on weekends?" This question is the teenager's version of the adult's question: "Is it a sin to miss Mass on Sundays?"

Today's Gospel answers these questions when Jesus says: "This is the bread that comes down from heaven...I myself am the living bread...if anyone eats this bread, he/she lives forever..." We go to church for Mass because this is the only place where we can become one with Jesus, so that we receive His assurance of life eternal. We go to Mass because, as the Gospel of next Sunday shows: "If you do not eat the flesh of the Son of man...you have no life in you!" We go to Mass because Jesus commanded us to do so: "Do this in my memory!"

Jesus did give us the command to celebrate the Eucharist, and the apostles celebrated the anniversary of His Resurrection weekly, on the first day of the week, the day after the Sabbath. Two thousand years later, we still do; gathering at Mass is our distinguishing mark, the visible mark of us Catholics! It is not just a law to be followed, but also our deepest encounter with Jesus. Missing such an encounter is to deny our commitment to Jesus. Eucharist is the mark of us Catholics when we meet weekly to strengthen our bond of love with Jesus and among ourselves! We, Jesus' people, the Church of Christ, are all united in love and determination to make our Lord reign in the world. We renew in the Eucharist our commitment to unite with the shepherds He had given us! And, by the way, this is the reason why non-Catholics cannot receive communion at our Mass, because they are not united with us! It would be a lie to use the Sacrament of Unity for a fractioned, divided Christendom!

Some people are concerned and confused still about mortal and venial sin, as in: "Is it a mortal sin to miss Holy Mass on Sunday and Holy Days of Obligation?" The Magisterium of Our Mother Church can tell us which conditions of our actions result in a mortal sin: (1) Full knowledge and awareness of our actions; (2) Full will to offend God; and (3) Serious matter, with severe consequences of our actions. Obviously the first two conditions, babies or sick people at home and so forth and so on. I hope this brief explanation will help you all!

Our St. Martha School opens its doors tomorrow, August 9. Please pray for the staff and children so that these pupils may be well formed as good citizens and excellent disciples of Christ.

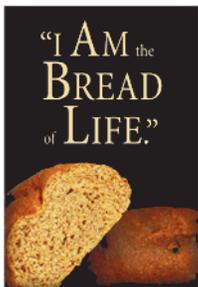

The St. Martha School will continue to have the children attend Mass in the Deacon Wren Chapel every day (Monday through Friday) at 1:55 p.m., starting after Labor Day weekend. However, there will be NO 1:55 p.m. Mass during the week when the "full school" attends Mass in St. Anne Hall on all first Fridays and other special Holy Days, e.g., Ash Wednesday.

By the way, the new Feast of St. Martha is combined, starting this year, with her siblings St. Mary and St. Lazarus.

Next Sunday is the Solemnity of the Assumption of our beloved Mother of Jesus.

Smile, God loves you and so does Fr. Fausto with your St. Martha clergy:

RESPECT LIFE

respect · love · protect

"Although we may feel unsure how best to comfort those who mourn, we must stand with them in their time of suffering. Miscarriage touches the lives of many people, yet all too often this tragedy remains unaddressed. This lack of response not only often leads to unresolved grief, but also fails to clearly manifest our belief that each person, from conception onward, is precious and unique."

"The opportunity to worship and participate in liturgy is especially important to all Catholics. Our families are continuing to learn and appreciate their Catholic faith and traditions. Our faith and traditions culminate in our liturgies and Eucharist, which are the summit and source for our Catholic family." -Fr. Fausto Stampiglia

Prayer for Safety During Hurricane Season

The 2021 Hurricane Season officially began on June 1 and will continue until November 30. All are encouraged to pray for protection from the storms that often threaten Southwest Florida. The devastation of past hurricanes reinforce the fact that we need to pray for God's protection and care.

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awaken from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies, whose memories are still so vivid, and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.
