*From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto...My Dear Friends,

Here we have the most recent statistics from the Florida Health Department on September 16, 2021 (floridahealthcovid19.gov) reporting 51, 218 new cases with zero deaths. Our county of Sarasota has reported zero new cases with zero deaths (positivity 14%). On September 9, people vaccinated were 13,281,666 (69% of the population).

Even though, we are seeing the number of cases declining, let's be respectful of our fellow parishioners. If you are ill (sneezing and/or coughing) or if you knowingly have recently been directly exposed to Covid-19, stay home and celebrate Mass through our YouTube channel. Keep praying for all the plague deceased and for an end of the epidemic.

In times past, we Catholic members of the one Church of Jesus were very wary not only of other non-Christian religions, but also of our separated Christian sisters and brothers. After all, we did memorize the famous Latin sentence: "Extra ecclesiam nulla salus", which literally translated means: "There is no salvation outside the Church."

The saying naturally hinges on what the words "ecclesia" and "salus" mean. Obviously, we refer to the word "church" as introduced by Jesus Himself in the Gospel of Matthew (16:17-18): "Blessed are you Simon bar Jona... I say to you, you are Rock and on this rock I will build my church." The term "salus" (salvation) means that Jesus freely delivers all mankind from eternal death, and restores all human beings into God's embrace; this is the Catholic dogma of the universal salvific will of God (1 Timothy 2:1-6 and Matthew 26:28 and Romans 11:12, etc.) as expressed in the Creed that we recite every Sunday at Mass. So, how do we understand the saying? The Gospel of today gives us an answer which can steer us in our dealings with other people: "Do not stop Him!" Jesus is very tolerant of those who follow Him, even if they do not belong to the one Church, or are not in communion with the apostles and their successors (our bishops, with the bishop of Rome at the head of them). Jesus is much more tolerant than His apostles were (see Acts 8:13-19).

From all of the above, a few conclusions can be drawn:

1. The Church declares as heresy the doctrine that claims that Jesus died for some predestined people, and not for all humankind (D 1096).
2. It is a theological error to say that Jesus died only for the believers, or that people not incorporated into the church do not receive sufficient grace of salvation (D 1294, 1376, 1646, 1677).
3. From these doctrines of the church, and from today's Gospel, flows the famous dogmatic constitution of the church in the Second Vatican Council, from which I am quoting the following sentences:
 - This holy Council first of all turns its attention to the Catholic faithful. Basing itself on scripture and tradition, it teaches that the Church, a pilgrim now on earth, is necessary for salvation: the one Christ is mediator and the way of salvation; He is present to us in His body which is the Church.
 - The Church knows that she is joined in many ways to the baptized who are honored by the name of Christian, but who do not, however, profess the Catholic faith in its entirety, or have not preserved unity or communion under the successor of Peter. For there are many who hold sacred scripture in honor as a rule of faith and of life, who have a sincere religious zeal, who lovingly believe in God the Father Almighty and in Christ, the Son of God and the Savior, who are sealed by baptism which unites them to Christ...These Christians are indeed in some real way joined to us in the Holy Spirit for, by His gifts and graces, His sanctifying power is also active in them, and He has strengthened some of them even to the shedding of their blood.

- Finally, those who have not yet received the Gospel are related to the People of God in various ways. There is, first, that people to which the covenants and promises were made, and from which Christ was born according to the flesh (Rom 9:4-5): in view of the divine choice, they are a people most dear for the sake of the fathers, for the gifts of God are without repentance (Rom 11:29). But the plan of salvation also includes those who acknowledge the Creator, in the first place amongst whom are the Muslims: These profess to hold the faith of Abraham, and together with us they adore the one, merciful God, mankind's judge on the last day. Nor is God remote from those who in shadows and images seek the unknown God, since he gives to all men life and breath and all things (Acts 17:25-28), and since the Savior wills all men to be saved (1Tim 2:4). Those who, through no fault of their own, do not know the Gospel of Christ or His Church, but nevertheless seek God with a sincere heart, and moved by grace, try in their actions to do His will as they know it through the dictates of the conscience, those too may achieve eternal salvation.

Next Sunday is also Respect Life Sunday. Appropriately, the 40 Days for Life began on September 22 and will continue until October 31. Please pray the Rosary to stop abortion. During the 40 Days for Life, please show your opposition to the taking of innocent lives by joining the St. Martha Pro-Life group on October 4 and 25. Please take time and read the letter from our Bishop Dewane regarding the collection next week for Respect Life Sunday.

The last century of the past millennium was the bloodiest century ever when we count wars, exterminations of civilian people, rampant murders and above all, abortion. We are horrified, and rightly so, at the millions killed in the Nazi concentration camps or in the killing fields of Cambodia, but do we realize that since 1973 we have killed, in our good ole' U.S.A., over 54,000,000 babies? Let us make a solemn pledge to God that we will be the defenders of life, the greatest gift given to us by God.

We will defend the defenseless babies, the mentally ill, the poor and handicapped, the sick and feeble, the homeless refugees, the elderly, the famished, persecuted and oppressed sisters and brothers, because we are all children of God, Father of all! Otherwise, dulled by a false sense of security because of our national wealth, we will be facing God who will bring us to a bad end!

Using a document of our Holy Father, I would like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. "The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. Certainly, what happened was and remains terribly wrong." But GOD FORGIVES ALSO THE SIN OF ABORTION. So the priests absolve, God forgives, and joy and inner peace come back to us sinners.

Do not forget that this Saturday, October 2 is the Feast of the Guardian Angels and this Wednesday, September 29 is the feast day of the three archangels. The archangels Michael (“Who is like God?”), Gabriel (God’s strength) and Raphael (God’s remedy) are celebrated in the bible. Jesus affirmed the existence of the guardian angels assigned to each human being on the moment of our conception (MK 10:13-16). By the way, Michael is the protector of security forces and of the sick, Gabriel of postal and communication services, and Raphael of blind people and travelers. May we implore them to intercede to God on our behalf in special troublesome circumstances in our lives.

Remember dear parishioners that next Sunday is Caritas Sunday. Our Caritas volunteers will be at the church doors after each Mass collecting for the poor and the needy. This past month you donated $3,533.60, and the need is greater these days. Please be as generous as you can.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Church remains at the forefront in speaking out on the issue of the sanctity of life, from conception to natural death, regardless of age or condition. This year, we are focusing on St. Joseph, defender of life. His unhesitating adherence to God’s will as he faithfully and lovingly protected the Christ Child and the Blessed Mother bears witness to our own call as Christians. As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between.

Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is observed as Respect Life Sunday. During the weekend of October 2 and 3, 2021, Parishes across the Diocese of Venice in Florida will conduct a special collection to enhance this life-affirming work of the Diocesan Respect Life Office. These funds help facilitate our witness as a faith community in southwest Florida.

Please continue to pray for a greater appreciation of the sacredness of all human life. Thank you for your generosity in supporting this annual collection so that the Diocesan Respect Life Outreach can be expanded.

May God bless you with a deep appreciation for the gift of life and the courage to defend the sanctity of life. Let us remain united in prayer.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
