From Our Pastor, Fr. Fausto...

According to the Florida Department of Health reports as of Friday, March 25, the Covid-19 statistics for Florida are as follows:

- New cases: 8,774 (cumulative 5,841,469)
- Positivity: 2.3% (cumulative 26.3%)
- Deaths: 45 (cumulative 73,027)

For our Sarasota county: total number of people vaccinated are 329,666 (77% of population 5yrs+), Covid-19 cases are 89,031 with 22.8% positivity.

Bishop Frank J. Dewane has sent us a letter updating the mask policy, and I quote:

"As you will recall, in my letter of August 30, 2021, it was asked that all Ministers of Holy Communion wear a mask for the distribution of Communion. At this point, considering the significant improvements in the Covid situation, it has been determined that masks will no longer be required for Communion Ministers at Masses in the Diocese of Venice. Masks should be considered optional and any Minister, Ordinary or Extraordinary, of the Eucharist who wishes to continue wearing a mask should be permitted to do so."

The mass media is full of tragic news of the incomprehensible slaughter of civilian children and their parents done by Russian troops in Ukraine. From 1940 when I was five to 1944 at age nine, we Italian children were shipped back and forth from Rome, already under more than forty bombings, to the countryside, and then at the coming closer of the front, back to Rome, declared open city. Who can describe the days and nights under endless bombing and endless hours in a deep wine cellar without electricity, food, beds, water, or bathrooms. Add the starvations and the terror at the first screaming of the sirens announcing the immense drone of hundreds of bomber planes...starvation was present companion...away from family...I shudder to think of Ukrainian children, of that same age of mine, crowding their dark cold shelters and going through the same madness I suffered 80 years ago. Lord have mercy on them, have mercy!

Today's Gospel passage in some Biblical manuscripts is in the Gospel of Luke, and is totally absent in the most ancient Johannine Manuscript. Biblical scholars suspect that it was a Lucan Episode transplanted to John's Gospel, but anyway it is another powerful example of Jesus' mercy.

In reality, it was a trap set by the Scribes and Pharisees to discredit Jesus in front of the people or, more wickedly, to accuse him to the Roman authorities. In the Book of Deuteronomy (22:23-24), a woman either engaged or married, who is caught in the act of adultery, must be stoned to death. The Pharisees knew that Jesus was a softhearted and merciful person, so that when they brought this adulteress before Jesus, they were sure to triumph over the Lord. If Jesus had forgiven the woman, then He would have gone against the Mosaic Law and been labeled a blasphemer and a betrayer of the law. And if Jesus had upheld the Mosaic Law and had condemned her to die, the Pharisees would have accused Him of usurping Roman Authority. Pilate was the only one capable of applying capital punishment. In one way or another, Jesus' fate was sealed! (Or so they thought!)

But the Lord does something extraordinary, and with His finger writes on the dusty ground; this mysterious action, still puzzling today, has the effect of making the Pharisees run away in such a manner that the woman is left alone before Jesus, and surrounded by Jesus' friends.

Some authors suspect that Jesus began writing down the sins of the accusers, starting with their chief elders... only in paradise will we know what Jesus wrote.

And then the mercy of God covers the shame and tears of the poor woman: "Neither do I condemn you, go in peace, but from now on avoid this sin." Jesus absolves then - and now!

One of the traditional Easter duties for all Catholics is the annual Confession and Holy Communion, according to our Church Laws, which I am now quoting for your convenience.

Holy Communion can be received twice a day. This is a law given by our late Saint Pope John Paul II.

The Eucharist fast, excluding water and medicines, should be observed before Communion by abstaining from any food, or drink, for at least an hour, unless a person is elderly or sick.

About the obligation to receive Communion once a year, the law Church Law Canon #916 says: "A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive Communion without prior Sacramental Confession, unless grave reason is present... in this case, a person is to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible."

About the Sacrament of Penance, Canon 960 states: "Individual integral Confession and Absolution constitute the only ordinary way by which the faithful person, who is aware of serious sin, is reconciled with God and with the Church."

About the obligation of Confession once a year, Church Law Canon 989 says: "After having attained the age of discretion, each of the faithful is bound by an obligation faithfully to confess serious sins at least once a year." The obligation of Confession is applicable only in the case of grave sins. Venial sins can be forgiven either by communal or private confession, by receiving Holy Communion, non-sacramental penitential rites (like the one at the beginning of Mass), almsgiving, sacrificial actions, acts of charity, but the best gift we can give our good Lord is our contrite, humble heart, repentant of all our sins.

The sacrament of Reconciliation, which we usually call Confession, is the best Lenten gift we can give God. Some Catholics feel uneasy about confession for many reasons, such as:

1. I do not go because I have forgotten the starting formula (Forgive me Father for I have sinned...) or the Act of Contrition. Do we really think that postponing confession for another year will improve our memory?
2. The Act of Contrition should be expressed in our own wording. Can you imagine if, after a fight, the wife will say to the husband: "Oh my supreme husband, I am truly sorry to have offended thee, because you are so good and worthy of all sacrifices... etc. etc." It sounds so silly, doesn't it? How simple it is to say in confession: "My good Jesus, I'm sorry, I'll do better from now on!"
3. All mortal sins must be confessed! Sometimes we feel ashamed as if our sins are so horrendous, and we're afraid that we will shock the priests! On the contrary, I'm afraid that our priestly sins will shock you, every time they are reported in the mass media! Besides being sinner, like everyone else, we priests had two full years of studies in Moral Theology, and there is not a sin that we have not studied in detail or heard before!

Some of us have the feeling that our sins are so serious that God cannot forgive them! Nonsense! The mercy of God is infinitely superior to any of our sins! The worst temptation of the devil is to convince us that the Spirit of Love of God cannot forgive, and so we do not ask pardon, and remain separated from God in this, and (God forbid) in the other life!

To facilitate your reception of the Sacrament of Penance, we Priests of St. Martha have scheduled 30 hours of individual Confession during Holy Week. Come during these hours, and you will find one of our priests waiting for you in the confessional room, next to the courtyard entrance of the Church.

Let's think how we would answer the following questions from our school children:

- What is your favorite part of Mass?
- Did you have a job before becoming a priest?
- Do you like to drink water?
- If you could take one sin away what would it be?
- Why do the priests have to wear different colors?
- Have you ever made a mistake as a priest?
- How can we use Jesus' teachings in our everyday lives?
- When did you need Jesus most in your life?
- Has God ever talked to you?
- Who came up with the idea to write about Jesus' life?
- How do you know that God is with you when you are talking and praying with Him?
- Why did they put spices in Jesus' tomb when he died?
- Why did Judas betray Jesus? Did he do it for money?
- What does God look like?

PRAYER TO END ABORTION

Lord God, I thank you today for the gift of my life, and for the lives of all my brothers and sisters. I know there is nothing that destroys more life than abortion; yet I rejoice that you have conquered death by the resurrection of your Son. I am ready to do my part in ending abortion. Today I commit myself never to be silent, never to be passive, never to be forgetful of the unborn. I commit myself to be active in the pro-life movement and never to stop defending life until all my brothers and sisters are protected and our nation once again becomes a nation with liberty and justice not just for some, but for all, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Sarasota's Good Friday Pilgrimage

Everyone is invited to Walk Your Faith this Holy Week by experiencing The Stations of The Cross on Good Friday, April 15th. City and county commissioners, pastors, priests, church leaders, choirs and youth groups will be taking parts in this Sarasota-Happening. Father George Suszko will be leading us in the liturgy at the forth station. Stopping for worship and prayer at each of the fourteen Stations will offer an opportunity for reflection upon the different moments of Christ's passion journey. The Christian pilgrimage gathers at 7:15 a.m. in front of the Hollywood 11 Theater. For those who want to park at the final station at the Church of the Redeemer Episcopal Church, Siesta Trolley will be transporting pilgrims from Redeemer Church beginning at 6:30 a.m. to Hollywood 11. The final station is at the Church of the Redeemer, 222 S. Palm Ave. and will be reached near 8:30 a.m., when all are invited to a Service of Morning Prayer (Matins). Come observe Christ's passion on the day the world celebrates it.
