From our Pastor, Fr. George...

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

I thought that it will be spiritually enriching for all of us to read various reflections on the Sunday biblical readings which we use in the church. So, I have invited our parish priests and deacons to share with us their homilies or sermons. This weekend Fr. Chris Frost shares with us his take on today's biblical message.

Sunday Sermon – Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

The Second Book of Samuel recalls the anointing of David to replace Saul as Israel's king, almost a thousand years before the birth of Jesus. "The anointed one" in Greek is rendered as Christos, in Hebrew as Messiah. Through his foster father, Joseph, Jesus, who descended from heaven to earth, is also a descendant of the Royal House of David. For his part, David was a shepherd who became a king. Jesus is a King who became a shepherd.

Chapter One of Saint Paul's Letter to the Colossians is known in Biblical history as one of the greatest spiritual hymns of all time. Paul uses these words to beautifully describe the sovereignty of the Christ, who existed with the Father and the Holy Spirit before the world was created. This divinity within the Most Holy Trinity is the source of Jesus' kingship, authority and power.

At his trial, Jesus would tell Pontius Pilate that his kingdom was not of this world. Indeed, Jesus' kingdom comes from heaven, and those who are baptized are already citizens and subjects of the new and heavenly Jerusalem. Whether we are loyal subjects of our King and his kingdom remains to be seen, but of his mercy there can be no doubt.

The feast of Christ the King was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925. Europe was still healing from the effects of World War I. The once great Catholic monarchies of Europe had been replaced by fascists, socialists and communists – all styles of government that are opposed to religious observance. Europe was beginning to turn away from God and his Church. The intent of this solemnity was to let all people know that the kings of men will never match the great and glorious, merciful and mighty Kingship of Jesus Christ. The Church was staking her claim with the powers of heaven.

In the Gospel, Jesus is mocked on the cross, even by those crucified with him. The good thief is aware that they have condemned an innocent man, undeserving of the most cruel punishment to which he was subjected. This thief, known in history as Dismas, is also well aware that he is in the presence of his Lord, Savior and King. His faith motivates his dying wish: Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom. There on Calvary, as darkness covered the earth and all hope seemed lost, a convicted sinner professed his faith – that Jesus would live again and forever, that he alone had the power to forgive and to grant new life, but most importantly, that his Kingship would reign in this world and in the next.

Let us pray that in the darkest moments of our life, when we find ourselves like the Good Thief – up against adversity, on the cross, persecuted, left behind – that we, like him, will trust in the Lord who is our friend, confidant and our King. He will set us free and remind us that one day we, too, will be with him in paradise.

Fr. Chris Frost

November – Time to remember the Faithful Departed

Let's remember all our Dead, say prayer for them. Let's pray for the Dead in Ukraine who die in hundreds in the war every day. Many of them die suddenly and brutally, may God give them eternal reward!

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord, Lord hear my voice! O let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleading. If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord, who would survive? But with you is found forgiveness; for this we revere you.

My soul is waiting for the Lord, I count on his word. My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak. Let the watchman count on daybreak and Israel on the Lord. Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption; Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen. May their souls and the souls of all the Faithful Departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

Catholic Faith Appeal

There is some way to go before we reach our Catholic Faith Appeal goal for this year and we are facing high inflation in gas and food prices. So before we make a plan for our Christmas shopping, please remember that our parish and Diocese, which depends on our financial assistance, need your generosity to continue their charitable ministry. Please, help the parish to reach the target. May God bless you for you love and kindness!

Intercession for Life

The Bishop's Conference of the USA is asking us to pray. This week we pray: For those who suffer after participating in an abortion: May they find peace through the sacrament of Reconciliation and be consoled through the Church's abortion healing ministry!

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Fr. George
