From our Pastor, Fr. George...

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

Sunday Sermon – Palm Sunday*From Dn. Vern*

“My God, My God, why have you abandoned me?”

All of us, from time to time, tend to think that God may have abandoned us - we think that we are left to our own resources, unable to cope, alone and vulnerable. Apparently, Jesus knew that feeling.

Matthew’s passion narrative, which was just proclaimed in today’s Palm Sunday liturgy, repeats the poignant expression, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?” And we are left with the puzzle of trying to figure out how the Son of God, Our Lord Jesus Christ---true God, true Man---could possibly have experienced the psychological abandonment that produced that outcry. We can only ponder the mystery, but the very pondering of those words can give us strength.

In today’s first reading, taken from the prophet Isaiah, puts the following words on the lips of the Suffering Servant of Yahweh: “The Lord God is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame” (Isa 50:7). Deep down in His heart of hearts, Jesus knew this; he knew that he would not be abandoned, but in some mysterious way an awareness of that fact escaped his consciousness at that dreadful moment on the cross. His face was set like flint, suggesting the presence of unshakable faith, but the consciousness of God’s presence was mysteriously absent.

Elsewhere in the Old Testament, in the Book of Genesis, the story is related of how Abraham was instructed to sacrifice his son Isaac and, although deeply troubled and confused, remained obedient to the Lord’s command. He proved himself to be up to the test. As you will recall from the Genesis account, “Abraham took the wood for the holocaust and laid it on his sons Isaac’s shoulders, while he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two walked on together, Isaac spoke to his father Abraham, ‘Father!’ he said. ‘Yes son,’ he replied. Isaac continued, ‘Here are the fire and the wood, but where is the sheep for the holocaust?’ ‘Son,’ Abraham answered, ‘God himself will provide the sheep for the holocaust.’ Then the two continued going forward” (22:6-8)

They continued going forward.

God hovered over them every step of the way unseen by them; they were unaware. They “continued going forward” and not only the eye of God but the love of God hovered over them every step of the way. Eventually, the voice of the Lord’s messenger called to Abraham, “Abraham...do not lay your hand on the boy...Do not the least thing to him.” “Again, the Lord’s messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said: ‘I swear by myself, says the Lord that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly’” (Gen 22:12)

And something similar happened with Jesus on his way of the cross, which was retraced for you in the reading of the passion narrative in this Palm Sunday liturgy. The love of God hovered over him every step of the way. Momentary expressions of that love broke through, for example, in the intervention of Simon of Cyrene whose shoulder eased for a few moments the burden of the cross weighing heavily on the shoulders of Jesus. But once nailed to the cross, he was alone, left to die. Abandoned. Or so he seemed to think when he cried out “My God, my God, why have abandoned me?”

Perhaps you know the feeling. Perhaps those words have been, at one time or another, your own. Well, as you walk the way of the cross in companionship and loving memory with Jesus today, be grateful to the courageous Christ who set his face like flint and walked on in a faith that did not fail him, toward a fate that can make sense only when viewed in the framework of the divine foolishness. Ask for the grace to see that any segment of the way of the cross that you are asked to walk during your short time here on earth is the sure and certain way to eternal glory.

You are called to live and die under the banner of the cross. The full liturgical observance of this holy week that begins today will help you see the divine foolishness outlined for you today in the reading of the passion narrative according to St. Matthew.

Holy Week – remembering the holiest days in the life of Jesus.

Since Christ accomplished his work of human redemption and of the perfect glorification of God principally through his Passion Mystery, in which by dying he has destroyed our death and by rising restored our life, the sacred Paschal Triduum of the Passion and Resurrection of the Lord shines forth as the high point of the entire liturgical year.

Palm Sunday – solemn entry into Jerusalem, where Jesus was welcomed like a king by people throwing palm branches under his feet and shouted: “Hosana to the Son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Oh, King of Israel! Hosana in the Highest.”

Chrism Mass – properly concelebrated by the bishop with his clergy. It is a sign of the unity and communion of the priests with their bishop. The blessing of the Oil of the Sick takes place before the end of the Eucharistic Prayer, but the blessing of the Oil of Catechumens and the consecration of the Chrism take place after Communion. This year: in the Cathedral on Tue. April 4th at 10.30am.

Holy Thursday – The Mystery of the Last Supper of the Lord with his disciples at which Jesus instituted the Eucharist and Priesthood and, by washing his disciples’ feet, showed that he came to serve and taught his followers to do the same.

This year especially we invite you and encourage to adore the Blessed Sacrament, exposed on the Altar of Repose at the end of our Mass of the Lord’s Supper until 10.00pm.

Good Friday – We don’t celebrate Mass on this day of the Passion of Our Lord, or any other sacraments. This is the day of the Passion and death of Christ on the cross. The Church adores the Lord, venerates the cross, fasts, prays and shows love to the needy.

Ecumenical Stations of the Cross on Main Street - Good Friday, 1,000 Marching for Jesus, Ecumenical STATIONS of the Cross Worship, Our Minister Plus 27 Other Pastors & Priests Of 14 Denominations Speaking, April 7th, 7:00 am, Begin Gathering at Regal Hollywood Theatre, 301 & Main Street, Final Prayers in front of Redeemer Church, 222 S. Palm Ave. at 8:30 am

Holy Saturday – Time of Prayer Vigil at the tomb of Christ. We adore Jesus in silence.

Easter Vigil – Special Easter Liturgy of fire (Blessing of new fire), Lighting and blessing of the Paschal Candle, Solemn procession with the Paschal Candle – “Lumen Christi” (The Light of Christ), Deacon will sing the Exultet (The Hymn of praise to the Paschal Candle, the symbol of the resurrection of Christ). Biblical readings will remind us of the fundamental truths of the history of salvation. Then we will bless the water, baptize the Catechumens and confirm the candidates. During the Mass our Catechumens and Candidates will receive the First Holy Communion and will be accepted as the members of the Catholic Community.

Easter Sunday – On this Solemnity of the Resurrection of Christ there will be a Renewal of Baptismal vows and sprinkling the congregation with water.

We pray to the Lord for the end of war in Ukraine:
Jesus, the Prince of peace, come to our help!

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

Hear my prayer, Lord; listen to my cry for mercy.

When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer me.

Arrogant foes are attacking me, O God; ruthless people are trying to kill me - they have no regard for you. But you, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.

Turn to me and have mercy on me; show your strength on behalf of your servant; save me, because I serve you just as my mother did.

Give me a sign of your goodness, that my enemies may see it and be put to shame, for you, Lord, have helped me and comforted me. (Psalm 86)

Jesus, the Prince of peace, come to our help!

With prayers for God’s blessing to you and your family,
Fr. George

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month, and in conjunction with the Secretariat of Child and Youth Protection of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), a prayer is offered for the healing of victims.

A PRAYER FOR HEALING VICTIMS OF ABUSE

God of endless love,
 ever caring, ever strong,
 always present, always just:
 You gave your only Son
 to save us by his blood on the cross.

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace,
 join to your own suffering
 the pain of all who have been hurt
 in body, mind, and spirit
 by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters
 who have been gravely harmed,
 and the cries of those who love them.
 Soothe their restless hearts with hope,
 steady their shaken spirits with faith.
 Grant them justice for their cause,
 enlightened by your truth.

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts,
 heal your people's wounds
 and transform brokenness into wholeness.
 Grant us the courage and wisdom,
 humility and grace, to act with justice.
 Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors.
 Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice.
 We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Gospel readings come to life in a special way during Holy Week. The Holy Scripture reminds us of our special connection to the Holy Land where the life, death and resurrection of Jesus took place; a place so special to us all and where His great story unfolded.

Every year on Good Friday, a collection is taken in Catholic Churches throughout the world to assist Christians in the Holy Land. Supporting the Church in the Holy Land is an historic mission; a responsibility to sustain the land where Jesus walked. The Holy Land Collection provides aid to parishes and academic institutions, helps keep schools open, restore and maintain homes for Christian families, feed the hungry and care for the elderly, and preserves shrines from the life of Jesus, the Apostles and the prophets.

The Diocese of Venice will hold a Collection for The Holy Land on Good Friday, April 7, 2023. The support received by this Collection helps to preserve a Christian presence in the very land made holy by the life, death and Resurrection of Jesus. Thank you for your generosity!

This opportunity is taken to extend to you my continued consideration as well as my prayers for you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Theology on Tap Sarasota takes place on the third Thursday of each month at 7 p.m. at the Mandeville Beer Garden in Sarasota, 428 N. Lemon Ave, Sarasota. All young adults are invited to the garden for food and refreshments, presentations, and discussions about the Catholic Faith.

The Chrism Mass, which takes place during Holy Week every year, will be held at 10:30 a.m., Tuesday, April 4 at Epiphany Cathedral, 350 Tampa Ave. W., in Venice. During this Mass, the faithful of the Diocese join the Priests, Deacons, and Bishop Frank J. Dewane for the blessing of the Holy Oils which are used in the administration of the Sacraments at each parish throughout the year. Priests and Deacons celebrating 25 and 50 years of Ordination are recognized at this Mass. All are encouraged to attend in support of our clergy and to participate in this important Holy Week celebration.

The annual "Yom HaShoah - Hour of Remembrance" will be held at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, April 23, at Epiphany Cathedral, 350 Tampa Ave. W., Venice. Each year the Diocese of Venice in Florida hosts this commemoration of the Holocaust as an interreligious gathering bringing members of the Catholic and Jewish communities together to recommit to the promotion of peace and solidarity among all peoples. The guest speaker will be Father Patrick Desbois, a Catholic priest who has dedicated many years to locating the sites where Holocaust victims lie and searching for witnesses who are still alive today and confirming these sites. All members of the Jewish Community are encouraged to attend, especially survivors of the Holocaust and their families, as well as members of the Catholic Community.

The 14th Annual Ave Maria University Summer Youth Conference "REVEALED" invites all high school youth to attend. Two dates are offered: July 7 to 9 and July 14-16. Both weekends will be filled with faith, fellowship, music, and engaging speakers on the beautiful campus of Ave Maria University. The cost is $180.00 per person, with an early bird rate of $130.00 until April 1. Included is lodging, meals, and conference fee plus a cool t-shirt. Email aveconferences@gmail.com, visit the website at www.aveconferences.com, or call 239-348-4725, for further information.
