From our Pastor, Fr. George...*Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,*THE LORD HAS RISEN INDEED (Lk 24:34) - Have a Blessed Easter everyone!

All our Easter Sunday Masses are offered for God's blessing to all our parishioners. We will be praying to God asking for his special blessing to you and your families on this Day of the Resurrection.

Like the Paschal blessing of the water makes it a Holy Water, so the word of Jesus blesses and raises our human nature to life. May God grant you courage and confidence in your faith, so like Jesus who accepted cross and death with courage and conviction and rose back to life from his death, you will also receive multiple graces of God and your life will be renewed.

Sunday Sermon – EasterFrom Dn. Bill*

What if a young person asked you to tell them the greatest story in the world? What story would you tell them? What would it be about? Let me tell you mine.

Once there was nothing. No dirt, no trees, no plants, no animals, no sky, no clouds, no people.

Then someone whom we later named God decided it was the time to make everything that is here: the ground we walk on, the trees and plants we see growing, the blue sky and big puffy white clouds, the crunchy white sand at Siesta Beach, and all the people we know. He wanted us to love him because he loved everything that he had made and he wanted them to be good.

Some time after he made everything, he saw that some people weren't behaving like they should, so he decided to send a flood and get rid of all the bad people. But he saved a few good people and animals on a big boat. After the bad people were gone, the good people who loved him and followed his ways were saved.

But again, some time later, people weren't listening to him, weren't loving him, and weren't treating each other very nicely. So, he decided to come to us as a little baby so we could really know him. He grew up, just like we grow up, and lived with us.

After he became a man, he told us just how much God, his Father and ours, loves us, but a lot of people didn't want to hear it because they wanted to do things their own way and not God's. So they killed him by nailing him to a cross.

But he was God so he came back from the dead and went to heaven so that you and I can be saved from whatever wrong we do. All we have to do is listen to him and love him as he loves us. And that's why we celebrate Easter. Jesus came back from the dead and went to a place where he wants us to be one day.

And that's the greatest story in the world for all of us, no matter how young or old we are.

Easter Week – The Octave of Easter

Each day of the Easter Week is a Solemnity, these seven days commemorate the summit of our liturgical life in the Church, that is the Passion and the Resurrection of Christ. The newly blessed Easter Candle will be lit and placed near the Lectern to announce to everyone that the Word of God revives in us the life of God. The newly blessed holy water symbolizes our Baptism into the death of the Lord and the new life in his resurrection.

Divine Mercy Sunday – April 16th, 2023

On the Second Sunday of Easter we celebrate the Feast of the Divine Mercy. Apart from our scheduled Sunday Masses, there will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and the prayer of the Divine Mercy Chaplet in our church at 2.30pm and then there will be a special Mass at 3.00pm to mark this special feast.

We pray for our candidates for Confirmation.

On the 27th day of this month Bp. Frank J. Dewane will come to St. Martha to confirm our young students. Mass will be held at 6.30pm in our church. Let's offer our special prayers for all who will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation that they will be enlightened in faith by the Holy Spirit, the Giver of Life.

We pray to the Lord for the end of war in Ukraine: Jesus, the Prince of peace, come to our help!

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

Hear my prayer, Lord; listen to my cry for mercy.

When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer me.

Arrogant foes are attacking me, O God; ruthless people are trying to kill me - they have no regard for you. But you, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.

Turn to me and have mercy on me; show your strength on behalf of your servant; save me, because I serve you just as my mother did.

Give me a sign of your goodness, that my enemies may see it and be put to shame, for you, Lord, have helped me and comforted me. (Psalm 86)

Jesus, the Prince of peace, come to our help!

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Fr. George

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad! The tomb is empty! Today we join Christians around the world in proclaiming that Jesus Christ is Risen indeed, Alleluia!

Through His death, Christ liberated us from sin; and through His Resurrection he offers all the hope of salvation and eternal life.

The Risen Christ lights our path and leads us to our Heavenly Father. Even if darkness and despair enter our lives, He is always with us as He has promised.

The past few years have been trying for many in Southwest Florida. In addition to our own personal trials in life, the Coronavirus Pandemic and most recently Hurricane Ian, have caused much difficulty and loss. Through it all Jesus has been present in our lives.

Our world faces many challenges and sorrows – war and unrest, illness, and poverty. Let our Faith and Hope in the Resurrection bring peace and healing to all who suffer.

During these next 50 days of the Easter Season, may we reflect on the many blessings God has given us. Truly the greatest of all is his only Son, Jesus Christ, Risen from the dead.

Have a Happy and Blessed Easter!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Frank J. Dewane

Venice in Florida

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month, and in conjunction with the Secretariat of Child and Youth Protection of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), a prayer is offered for the healing of victims.

A PRAYER FOR HEALING VICTIMS OF ABUSE

God of endless love,
ever caring, ever strong,
always present, always just:
You gave your only Son
to save us by his blood on the cross.

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace,
join to your own suffering
the pain of all who have been hurt
in body, mind, and spirit
by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters
who have been gravely harmed,
and the cries of those who love them.
Soothe their restless hearts with hope,
steady their shaken spirits with faith.
Grant them justice for their cause,
enlightened by your truth.

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts,
heal your people's wounds
and transform brokenness into wholeness.
Grant us the courage and wisdom,
humility and grace, to act with justice.
Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors.
Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

RESPECT LIFE

respect • love • protect

Like us, Christ entered the world through the womb of a woman. He willingly experienced the fullness of human suffering. He breathed his last on the Cross at Calvary in order that He might save us. Therefore, "God is the foundation of hope: not any god, but the God who has a human face and who has loved us to the end" (Spe salvi 31).
