From our Pastor, Fr. George...

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

God ... in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead (1 Peter 1: 3)

On the Second Sunday of Easter we celebrate the Feast of the Divine Mercy. Apart from our scheduled Sunday Masses, there will be Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and the prayer of the Divine Mercy Chaplet in our church at 2.30pm and then there will be a special Mass at 3.00pm to mark this special feast.

Sunday Sermon – Divine Mercy Sunday

From Fr. George

One Easter prayer in the breviary says: Lord God, you increase and multiply your faithful by your abundant gift of grace. Look now on your chosen people, and clothe for ever in the garment of eternal life all those who have been reborn in Baptism. It refers to Easter blessing of water and the Sacrament of Baptism given to new members of the Church community. Easter is a time of regeneration, and baptism is the best sign of it. It symbolizes rebirth and renewal.

St. Peter in his letter says: “Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ who in his great mercy has given us a new birth as his sons by raising Jesus Christ from the dead”. Baptismal rebirth is given us by the merciful God who raised Jesus himself back to life after his death on the cross. Resurrection manifests the rebirth, resurrection makes rebirth possible, resurrection is our rebirth.

It's sign is the Sacrament of reconciliation instituted by Jesus himself and given to the whole world. It renews the grace of God in our heart and it revives our spiritual life. Confessing our sins leads to renewal, God is the one who renews, because he is the one who raises Jesus from death to life, but it is a human person who humbly and honestly confesses his sins and by this responds to God's invitation. When Jesus was sending his apostles into the world to preach the Good News, he breathed on them and gave them the power of the Holy Spirit who as we profess in the Creed is the Giver of life. So, Jesus sent his apostles to the world, to plant in human hearts a new life of God.

Divine Mercy Sunday is the reminder for us of the renewal and rebirth to which God is calling us. This whole Easter time with 5 more weeks of it ahead of us, which will lead to the Ascension and then to Pentecost. We should reflect a lot about our own Baptism and understand it as a call to constant renewal. The liturgy of the Church will help us, when we will witness a Baby's Baptism or be sprinkled with the holy water.

Bible and biblical readings, like the one today, taken from the letter of St. Peter, will lead us to better understanding of the Divine Mercy and better understanding of our own need of forgiveness. St. Faustina wrote about it quite extensively in her so-called Diary. We should read the word of God in the Bible and also the wisdom of other believers, who teach us how to renew the life of God in us.

Different parish activities, ministries or parish groups, which are less visible but which are as good and as fruitful, create opportunities for us to practice our mercy to others. Various groups and ministries help us to learn to practice our mercy better with the help of other parishioners.

The Feast of the Divine Mercy calls us to Confession and reconciliation, calls us to renew the life of God in our hearts, to revive our Easter faith, to engage more in the church community and to trust the Holy Spirit. It speaks to us powerfully about unlimited and unconditional love of God, who is able to give a new birth to each one of us and who needs each one of us.

St. Martha's Memorial Garden in the courtyard should be kept and respected as it is - "The Memorial" garden. We don't allow any cemetery items such as: figure of angel, cross, plaque, gravestone to be placed in the garden and whatever is found there placed by the family or friends will be removed by our maintenance staff. If you have placed some of these items there, you can collect them from the parish office.

We pray for our candidates for Confirmation.

On the 27th day of this month Bp. Frank J. Dewane will come to St. Martha to confirm our young students. Mass will be held at 6.30pm in our church. Let's offer our special prayers for all who will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation that they will be enlightened in faith by the Holy Spirit, the Giver of Life.

We pray to the Lord for the end of war in Ukraine: Jesus, the Prince of peace, come to our help!

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

Hear my prayer, Lord; listen to my cry for mercy.

When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer me.

Arrogant foes are attacking me, O God; ruthless people are trying to kill me - they have no regard for you. But you, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.

Turn to me and have mercy on me; show your strength on behalf of your servant; save me, because I serve you just as my mother did.

Give me a sign of your goodness, that my enemies may see it and be put to shame, for you, Lord, have helped me and comforted me. (Psalms 86)

Jesus, the Prince of peace, come to our help!

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Fr. George

See the sacristan or deacon before Mass to request a gluten-free host.

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month, and in conjunction with the Secretariat of Child and Youth Protection of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), a prayer is offered for the healing of victims.

A PRAYER FOR HEALING VICTIMS OF ABUSE

God of endless love,
 ever caring, ever strong,
 always present, always just:
 You gave your only Son
 to save us by his blood on the cross.

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace,
 join to your own suffering
 the pain of all who have been hurt
 in body, mind, and spirit
 by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters
 who have been gravely harmed,
 and the cries of those who love them.
 Soothe their restless hearts with hope,
 steady their shaken spirits with faith.
 Grant them justice for their cause,
 enlightened by your truth.

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts,
 heal your people's wounds
 and transform brokenness into wholeness.
 Grant us the courage and wisdom,
 humility and grace, to act with justice.
 Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors.
 Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice.
 We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
