From our Pastor, Fr. George...

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

Sunday Sermon – 3rd Sunday of Easter*From Fr. Chris*

On this third Sunday of Easter, we continue to celebrate in a more pronounced way the power and meaning of the Resurrection. Luke and Peter, whose words we hear today, were witnesses to the Resurrection and had interactions with the risen Christ. They were among the first to grapple with what it all meant and to share its Good News. We are recipients of that Good News and come together in worship – to be glad and rejoice in it.

Just as we return to their texts today, Luke and Peter turned to the most sacred texts of their time to make meaning of the Resurrection. As we still do, they sang the ancient psalms of David: My heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted ... because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption. A thousand years after King David, this verse was sung anew by the disciples who witnessed the Resurrection. After their experience of Jesus and the first Easter, they found new meaning in these ancient lines about salvation.

Prior to Jesus, this psalm was sung in joyful anticipation of a king like David to restore his powerful throne. God's people would triumph, saved from corruption and the netherworld, through this mighty and regal descendent. But when judges, prophets, and kings [like David] failed to turn his people from sin and its destruction, and bring them to repentance, God sent his only Son as priest, prophet, and king. He would reconcile us to the Father, and would save our souls not through silver or gold but by his own precious blood.

It was difficult for the disciples to understand all the events surrounding Jesus. Cleopas and his companion were debating all that had happened as they walked to Emmaus. It was not until a traveling companion interpreted Scripture for them and broke bread with them that they saw Jesus and comprehended how he had fulfilled the Scriptures.

Fulfillment in Christ was known by God before the foundation of the world, Peter tells us. Salvation through Christ's sacrificial love poured forth was always the plan. The world was founded on it, the disciples witnessed it, and we are all redeemed by it. This is what we continue to celebrate this Easter season: God's love and mercy from the foundation of the world through Christ, broken and shared for us. Let us be glad and rejoice!

Feast of St. Mark Evangelist – April 25th

He is symbolized in Art by Lion for he begins his Gospel with the story of St. John the Baptist, who in the desert, preached conversion and called people to turn away from sin. John the Baptist was like a Lion in the desert from Ezekiel's prophesy. Mark is a great teacher of faith in Jesus Christ, he travelled with St. Paul and then with St. Peter, he is believed to be the first bishop of Alexandria. He is a patron of notaries, of Egypt, and of Venice.

St. Martha's Memorial Garden. We need everyone's co-operation, please! Our Memorial Garden in the courtyard should be kept and respected as it is - "The Memorial" garden. We don't allow any cemetery items such as: figures of angel, crosses, plaques, or gravestones to be placed in the garden and whatever is found there placed by the family or friends will be removed by our maintenance staff. If you have placed some of these items there, you can collect them from the parish office.

We pray for our candidates for Confirmation.

On the 27th day of this month Bp. Frank J. Dewane will come to St. Martha to confirm our young students. Mass will be held at 6.30pm in our church. Let's offer our special prayers for all who will be receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation that they will be enlightened in faith by the Holy Spirit, the Giver of Life.

We pray to the Lord for the end of war in Ukraine: Jesus, the Prince of peace, come to our help!

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

Hear my prayer, Lord; listen to my cry for mercy.

When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer me.

Arrogant foes are attacking me, O God; ruthless people are trying to kill me - they have no regard for you. But you,

Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.

Turn to me and have mercy on me; show your strength on behalf of your servant; save me, because I serve you just as my mother did.

Give me a sign of your goodness, that my enemies may see it and be put to shame, for you, Lord, have helped me and comforted me. (Psalms 86)

Jesus, the Prince of peace, come to our help!

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Fr. George

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month, and in conjunction with the Secretariat of Child and Youth Protection of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), a prayer is offered for the healing of victims.

A PRAYER FOR HEALING VICTIMS OF ABUSE

God of endless love,
 ever caring, ever strong,
 always present, always just:
 You gave your only Son
 to save us by his blood on the cross.

Gentle Jesus, shepherd of peace,
 join to your own suffering
 the pain of all who have been hurt
 in body, mind, and spirit
 by those who betrayed the trust placed in them.

Hear the cries of our brothers and sisters
 who have been gravely harmed,
 and the cries of those who love them.
 Soothe their restless hearts with hope,
 steady their shaken spirits with faith.
 Grant them justice for their cause,
 enlightened by your truth.

Holy Spirit, comforter of hearts,
 heal your people's wounds
 and transform brokenness into wholeness.
 Grant us the courage and wisdom,
 humility and grace, to act with justice.
 Breathe wisdom into our prayers and labors.
 Grant that all harmed by abuse may find peace in justice.
 We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Virgin of Guadalupe, Patroness of unborn children, we implore your intercession for every child at risk of abortion. Guide our public officials to defend each and every human life through just laws. Inspire us all to bring our faith into public life, to speak for those who have no voice. We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, who is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.

If you are admitted to Sarasota Memorial Hospital, be sure to register as a Catholic and ask for visits from representatives of your faith. You will be on the Catholic patient list to receive Holy Communion and visits from the priest.
