From our Pastor, Fr. George...Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,*Sunday Sermon – 6th Sunday of Easter*From Dc. Bill*

You can tell we're getting ready for Pentecost. The scriptures these past Sundays after Easter have been filled with references to the coming of the Spirit and the work the Spirit will do among believers. Today we hear Jesus' concern about how his disciples will live out his teachings after he's gone and so he assures them he will not leave them on their own.

Like good parents who want to make sure their children are well prepared to face whatever life throws their way, Jesus promises his followers that his Spirit will remain with them and help them hear his voice and obey it.

Notice that Jesus instructs his disciples to obey "my commandments." He doesn't say "the Commandments," for as Jews they would have already been living with the Ten Commandments as their guide. They are now his followers and so he places a big "If" before them: "If you love me...." We show our love for Jesus by a life of paying attention to who he was and what he taught us about loving one another -- like washing feet and welcoming the outcasts in his name -- like the Samaritans in our first reading.

The issues we face today are really complex. We don't only have to know what to do in Jesus' name, but we need the renewed will to persevere in his commandments in a world that can be very unloving. The Advocate (Paraclete) will help us know how to live Jesus' teachings in a complex world whose issues were not even thought about in those topics in the pamphlet rack.

But more -- the Spirit joins with our spirits to empower us when we find ourselves contrary to the world's ways and so feeling alone.

Some time ago teenagers and a few adults wore wrist bracelets lettered "WWJD" -- short for "What would Jesus do?" We don't have look back to the times of the apostles and long for the day when the disciples had Jesus walking with them and showing them the way. And we are not left on our own to make the difficult translation from first to twenty-first century Christianity. Rather, Jesus has kept his promise and has not left us orphans. We look forward to Pentecost to celebrate his promise fulfilled, the coming of the Advocate to our present age. We are not left orphans.

Mother's Day

May God bless you, all mothers! We thank you for your warm love and tender care in our families' daily lives.

$5000 donation to St. Martha's Angels Fund from the Knights of Columbus

Thank you, Knights of Columbus for your generous donation to school students in our Catholic schools, who will have their education and formation made much easier with this gift. You make many distressed parents smile again and many students given new opportunities. God bless you!

Many people are sacramentally blessed at this Easter time.

We had one person, who was baptized and fifteen who were confirmed and had their First Communion at Easter Vigil Mass. Last Thursday twenty-nine young students were confirmed by Bp. Dewane in our church and there will be four special Masses in our parish in May to celebrate the First Holy Communion of our Grade 2 children from Religious Education classes and from St. Martha's School. They also had their Sacrament of Reconciliation. We thank God for them, we congratulate them and pray for them!

May Devotion – Litany to Our Lady

We have the image of Our Lady in the Sanctuary placed for this month of May, which marks the beginning of the Fatima apparitions of Mary to Lucy, Jacinta, and Francesco in 1917 and which lasted until October. So, in May, we usually pray the Litany to Our Lady after each weekday Mass. We include the intentions and prayer requests of all in our parish who need help at this time.

Next Sunday (May 21) – The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Fr. George

What's Going To Happen When We're Gone?

Have you ever worried about what will happen to St. Martha after you are gone? Do you wish there was a way to help provide for the Parish's long-term success and sustainability? Great news! Endowment funds are designed to provide a continuous source of annual income and enable parishioners to continue their support in perpetuity.

Endowment funds are managed by the Catholic Community Foundation and the disbursements can be designated for operations, maintenance, debt reduction, capital projects, the CFA, Catholic education, vocations, and more.

To learn more about endowment funds, please scan the QR Code to the right, or visit ccfdiooceseofvenice.org/giving/endowment-funds/ or call: (941) 441-1124.

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each year, the Diocese of Venice joins other Dioceses throughout the United States in taking part in the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC). This campaign helps the Church spread the Gospel message through local, national, and international media, including television, radio, print, websites, and social media.

The CCC is one of the means by which new equipment and training to Catholic radio stations is provided, allowing them to expand their reach and bring the Gospel to a wider audience. Your gifts will not only fund projects on a national and international scale but also here in the Diocese of Venice. Fifty percent of the funds received will remain here in the Diocese to enhance our Evangelization efforts through local communication projects, including the televised Mass for the homebound.

The Catholic Communication Campaign Collection is scheduled in the Diocese of Venice for the weekend of May 20 and 21, 2023. Please support this important work as it provides the means to modernize how the Church communicates the joy of the Gospel worldwide, encouraging young disciples and giving them the practical skills needed to navigate today's digital media environment.

I take this opportunity to assure you and your families of my continued consideration as well as my prayers. Thank you for your generosity!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

RESPECT LIFE

respect • love • protect

The Diocese of Venice and St. Martha Parish sponsor a number of Respect Life activities. These include prayer walks for life at the local Planned Parenthood facility, located just six blocks from the Church on Central Avenue. We are encouraged to demonstrate our support for life in this way, particularly on Tuesdays and Wednesdays – abortion days at the facility. For additional information on Diocesan Respect Life programs, please contact Kate Shaver, our parish Respect Life representative at ksshaver@comcast.net.

“O Blessed Mother, you received the good news of the incarnation of Christ, your Son, with faith and trust. Grant your protection to all pregnant mothers facing difficulties.”
