From Our Pastor, Father George

Dear Parishoners of St. Martha,

Sunday Sermon – The Solemnity of Pentecost (Descend of the Holy Spirit)

From Father Chris:

In the life of the Church, Christmas, Easter and Pentecost are designated as solemnities of equal rank and importance. They present us with the actions of the Holy Trinity, of a loving God who gave us his only begotten Son whose mission it was to fill us with God's life-giving Spirit. Conceived and born by the power of the Holy Spirit, Jesus handed over his Spirit as he died on the cross.

Pentecost is regarded as the birthday of the Church. The Apostles had locked themselves in the Upper Room in fear. But then God unleashed an unheard-of power upon them. They courageously burst out of their private little room into the public square, driven by wind and fire, to spread throughout the world the presence of God that had come to us from the Father of Jesus Christ.

"Pentecost is regarded as the birthday of the Church."

– Father Chris

I would suggest that we in modern America are very much like the pre-Pentecost Apostles, huddled together in fear of what's going on in the world's marketplace and the culture that surrounds us, which can be hostile.

Today, we face waves of social change that weigh heavily upon us. Our lives are often layered in fear, resulting from so many social ills. Added to this is the devaluing of the dignity and sanctity of human life from womb to tomb through abortion and assisted suicide, which is now legal in several states.

Clearly, we have an American culture that's in distress. Moreover, we rejoice in our American diversity while we find unity more elusive. Individualism is something dear to the American heart. Some would suggest, however, that our living together in shared community is being lost. Whoever talks these days about the common good, or about the rights we should have as a community?

The coming of the Holy Spirit brought a sense of unity and purpose to those fractured eleven Apostles. More importantly, it brought one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all in Jesus Christ. The Church was endowed with unity and universality so the hearts of all could be touched, and the lives of all could be shared in the one Christ, in the one bread and in the one cup, in the one Church.

How, then, can we challenge our culture, one in which individuality and privacy are exalted over community and the common good?

We stand 2,000 years removed from the pre-Pentecost Church huddled together in the Upper Room, but we, too, can be insulated. Perhaps we would do well to long, with the Apostles, for the Holy Spirit. Let us pray today:

Dear loving Father, send your Holy Spirit upon us to renew us and to renew our troubled world. Renew us, loving Father, in that wondrous life that you gave to your Church 2,000 years ago. With fresh vigor we may join ourselves in the mission of your Apostles and live together in the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church – in order to accomplish your work.

Congratulations to all 8th Graders, the Graduates of our Bishop Nevins Academy

The young students from St. Martha Primary and St. Mary's Academy who graduate this year, celebrated their Graduation Mass in the School with their families, teachers, staff and all school students. They received many awards and applause from everyone. God bless them!

Breakfast for Mrs. Siobhan Young

The School Board organized a farewell breakfast in honor of Mrs. Young, who has resigned from her position as Principal Teacher in the Bishop Nevins Academy. We all thank her for her 17 years of work in the school and 12 of these were her work as the Principal Teacher. Well done Mrs. Young!

Memorial Day (May 29th)

We remember in prayer before God the sacrifices of the United States servicemen and women who gave their lives for our freedom. May the Holy Spirit, the Giver of life grant them eternal peace! Let's also pray for Peace & Justice in our country and around the world.

Parish Office will be closed on Monday, May 29th.

Resignations from the Parish Office

I want to inform you that Teresa McCoy has resigned from her work in the parish office. Thanks, Teresa, for your 12 years of dedicated work to St. Martha's parish on various positions in the past and recently as parish accountant and responsible for parish bulletin and our social media and a lot of administration work. I also want to inform you that Sara Brinn has resigned from her work in the parish. Sara has worked in St. Martha parish all together for 27 years – great thanks to you Sara for looking after our parish office as office manager, for taking care for organizing basic liturgical celebrations like weddings and funerals.
