From Our Pastor, Father George

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,
Sunday Sermon – 11th Sunday of the Year

From Deacon Pat:

HAPPY FATHERS DAY! May each of you be rewarded by our Father in Heaven for all of the sacrifices, nurturing, and guidance you have given or are giving your children! Fathers, together with their wives, by word and example, are the first witnesses of the faith to their children in Christ Jesus our Lord. Put another way, they lead in the evangelization of their families. (You'll recall: the role of evangelizer in the family setting is what you, as father, received a Blessing to accomplish during your child's Baptism).

A definition is in order here. Evangelism is the act of sharing the Gospel message and teachings of Jesus Christ. You'll notice that the word evangelize has the word angel embedded in it. I like to think that we are called to be angels to our family members as well as to others in our circle of influence.

Evangelization is a theme in this Sunday's Readings. In Ezekiel, we are assured that we will be dearer to God by listening to Him and keeping His Covenant. The point here is that we cannot be effective and efficient teachers of God's intent in our families, without learning our Faith. A good place to start is to understand the meanings of each phrase in the Apostolic and Nicene Creeds.

In Paul's Letter to the Romans, he argues that we must trust God's providence with our lives totally, no matter where we find ourselves (ie Rich or Poor, Sickness or in Good Health).

The Gospel tells us that we must proclaim The Kingdom of Heaven is at hand ... Without cost you have received; without cost you will give. In other words, we are to give of our spiritual selves unselfishly. This is the definition of Divine Love or Agape.

How do these readings apply to the role a father is called to fulfill in these days? Days where we find ourselves in a country:

- that is relativistic and divided;
- that no longer has shared moral values; moral values that created our American character and shaped our nation to be the envy of the world;
- that has moved away from meaningfully teaching civics, praying, and pledging allegiance to our flag in schools. These teachings are our foundation to being productive citizens;
- is attempting to change natural law by encouraging genders different from male/female (i.e., XY/XX chromosomes);
- where the majority of the citizens have not read, or understand, the Constitution;
- whose cross-national ranking places the United States as 38th in math and 24th in science. It seems that the United States is spending the most per capita student to only achieve international mediocrity.

In other words, our country is in a very dangerous period. This is the environment that fathers are now called to nurture their children. Quite a challenge!

So, I suggest that fathers continue to educate themselves and their families about the importance of having spiritual lives; spiritual lives where wholesome relationships with God and with others are of utmost importance. These fathers, with their wives, must teach their children lasting truths about life and death, sin and salvation, worth and unworthiness. These fathers must instill in these children the importance of hard work, the beauty of marriage and the sexes, the value of all human life, the pitfalls of pride, and their need for humility and forgiveness.

The Father's Day – June 18, 2023

Our thoughts are with you, Dear Fathers, on this special day.
May God bless you all!

Welcome Mary Jo Hanson as a new Principal Teacher in St. Martha Primary School! I ask for your prayers for Mary Jo who will take on her new responsibility in our School in July. Congratulations and may God grant you his blessing!

The Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist - Friday, June 24, 2023 The Church's Ordo for Florida tells us that, this feast, dating from the 4th century came to be celebrated, in accord with LK 1:36, six months before the Lord's birth; quoting Jn 3:30. St. Augustine found this date (near the summer solstice) appropriate for, after the birth of John, daylight begins to grow shorter, whereas after Jesus' birth, it begins to increase.

"Our thoughts are with you, Dear Fathers, on this special day.

May God bless you all!

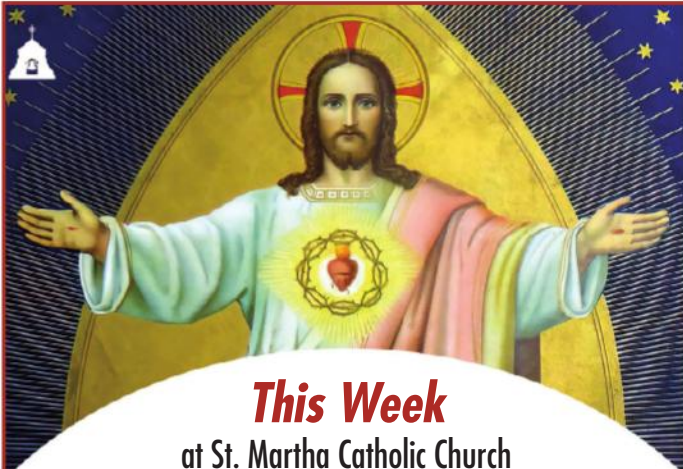

– Father George

May God bless all holiday makers! St. Patrick's prayer: Love, blessed Trinity of three, Bound in unity, Who guides my journey. I will arise with strength of heaven, Trusting in Your light, To guide my journey, Shine before me, Lead me home. Power to guide me, might to hold me, Wisdom teach me, watching o'er me. Ear to hear me, hand to guard me, Love to conquer every fear.

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season - O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, our beloved Mother we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

Next Sunday (June 25) – 12th Sunday of the Year

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George
