From Our Pastor, Father George

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,
Sunday Sermon – 13th Sunday of the Year

From Deacon Bill:

Homily, Mt 10, 37-42- Deacon Homily Sunday

Jesus says that to welcome someone he has sent is to welcome him. In his day, to welcome someone's messenger was the same as welcoming the person himself. In particular, if that someone teaches you something about God and you welcome that person, you welcome God.

I was thinking in particular about parents and grandparents. Have you ever considered yourselves as being prophets? The actual Hebrew definition of a prophet is not someone who can tell the future, but someone who points out wrong being done and calls us to change to God's ways.

If you ever get discouraged that your life seems to make no difference in the lives of your children, this Gospel says that you will receive your reward for the good that you try to do for them and the word and life of God that you try to teach them. Remember that if it was going to be easy to raise kids, it never would have started with something called "labor."

When we welcome the word of God from someone who is teaching His truth, that messenger is not only the clergyman, religious or schoolteacher, but the parent too. When parents teach children about God and the infinite value of faith, they are being prophets.

And parents who have the sometimes thankless task of trying to make their homes holy places should realize that they are doing God's work in helping Him to re-create the world. We may often feel helpless when it comes to raising our children and beat up on ourselves for not doing a good enough job, but there are all sorts of ways in which we help them grow; ways that children can't live without: loving them, listening to them and teaching them about God. Wherever God is placed first, particularly in the home, all other things fall into their proper place. But remember that what works best for our kids is our good example. Do we walk the talk?

So, parents, if you think your daily work is drudgery and unrecognized by anyone; if you prepare the meals, wash the clothes, clean the house, get the children off to school every day and think that no one appreciates what you do, know that in God's plan of salvation for the world you have an indispensable part. You too are truly prophets.

Deacon Bill Ladroga

Eucharistic Revival in our parish Our Bishops ask us to continue the national Eucharistic Revival and to make a next step, which is to initiate the Eucharistic Revival in our parish community. The aim is to deepen our faith in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Let's pray that the Eucharistic ministry in St. Martha's parish will help many people to experience an encounter with Jesus and we also pray that the Holy Spirit will increase our faith in Christ and show us how to see, really present in the Eucharist. At this time, we have four Masses every-day in our church, eight Sunday Masses including the Mass in Vietnamese language. We have adoration of the Blessed Sacrament in Carosella Chapel from 9am till 12 noon Tuesday through Thursday.

Feast of St. Thomas Apostle - Mon. July 3, 2023

St. Thomas died in the 1st Century; his doubting gave way to faith when he saw the risen Lord; associated with founding the Church in south India; mentioned in the Roman Canon; patron of builders, India, and Pakistan.

His confession to the risen Lord Jesus: My Lord and my God has become our statement of faith in Jesus who comes to us in Eucharist. We usually say these words in silence when the bread is consecrated into the Body of Christ and the wine into the Blood of Christ during the Holy Mass.

4th of July - Independence Day God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those that declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being. Help us to continue a good work begun long ago. Make our vision clear and our will strong; that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth. Turn our hearts towards the family of nations: to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety in the common good for all. We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen.

May God bless all holiday makers! St. Patrick's prayer:

Love, blessed Trinity of three, Bound in unity, Who guides my journey. I will arise with strength of heaven, Trusting in Your light, To guide my journey, Shine before me, Lead me home. Power to guide me, might to hold me, Wisdom teach me, watching o'er me. Ear to hear me, hand to guard me, Love to conquer every fear.

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season - O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, our beloved Mother we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Next Sunday (July 9) – 14th Sunday of the Year

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George
