16th Sunday of the Year

"The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field. Though it is the smallest of all seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds come and perch in its branches."

From Our Pastor, Father George

July 23, 2023

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,
Sunday Sermon – 16th Sunday of the Year
From Father George:

A Polish Philosopher and publicist, commenting on the Corona-virus pandemic we went through, said: it didn't end the world, it didn't begin the new era, nor it was a watershed event which invalidated the usual. It was difficult and bad time during which we held from making any new and obliging decisions, but we persevered in what we had, using all the resources at our disposal or seeking those already existing but neglected. He described this pandemic as a phenomenon which was ruled by the natural laws, and which in itself brought natural effects. Yet even though the cataclysm caused by the pandemic was evil, it didn't escape the Divine Providence, of which we know that it is universal, direct and particular.

In the Gospel, Jesus said that God knows that bad weeds were sown among the good seeds by an enemy, yet he doesn't want to remove them in case the wheat will be pulled up with them. He leaves it for the harvest time when he will separate the weeds for burning and gather the wheat into a barn. This says a lot about God's providence. God knows about good and evil, sometimes it seems that God allows evil to happen, but God looks after his children, and he doesn't want any of his children to be hurt. Jesus assures us that God answers our prayers. The judgment will inevitably come on evil, but it comes at God's appointed time.

Divine Providence is Universal - it doesn't want to exclude anyone. People of different opinions and cultures can receive the Divine grace and protection. Divine Providence is above exclusion zones, various borders, lock-down regions or cities. Universal Divine Providence takes care of all children of God no matter who and where we are.

Divine Providence is Direct - it speaks to us personally heart to heart. It doesn't depend on any institution, political allegiance or influencers. Our Church in this regard is also rather a field of wheat than the harvester. It opens or even creates the ways of spiritual encounters with God, it doesn't judge who is closer to God. This is decided by God who comes to each person and by the response of this person. The Church can help us to respond to God.

Divine Providence is Particular - it comes to us even in the smallest need. Even in today's global world, God's Providence takes care of our personal needs and challenges. We can pray to God for our personal needs: family, job, health and many others so called small things.

Persevere in what you have - revive your faith and re-ignite your love. Make your faith strong again, able to motivate you to do good things and also to motivate you to face these difficult times. May your love to God make you to trust him again. We may see a lot of darnel growing among the wheat and Covid-19 was and still is probably one of those darnels, but we need to remember that God still loves us.

"God looks after his children, and he doesn't want any of his children to be hurt."

– Father George

Congratulations to newly ordained priests! Reverend Alejandro Roldán and Reverend Daniel Scanlan have been ordained priests by Bishop Frank J. Dewane on Sat. July 15, 2023, the newest members to the Presbyterate of the Diocese of Venice in Florida. May God bless them!

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly July 23. Congratulations grannies and granddads on your special day! God almighty, bless all Grandparents and keep them in Your care. Bless them with peace, health and healing. Reward them for their Faith and fidelity, for their work and goodness, for their love and thoughtfulness, for their gifts and prayers.

Distribution/Receiving of the Holy Communion during each Mass in St. Martha In our church we have priests, deacons and extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion who give out the Host. Additionally, if you take place in the first pew on the right side of the church, when you look at the altar from the side of congregation, on both side pews on the same side, you will have a priest coming to you to give you the Host before he goes to distribute Hosts to everyone else. No one else is allowed to give out Host or part of it to another person. Remember that this causes disturbance in the church community. (Fr. George)

May God bless all holiday makers! St. Patrick's prayer: Love, blessed Trinity of three, Bound in unity, Who guides my journey. I will arise with strength of heaven, Trusting in Your light, To guide my journey, Shine before me, Lead me home. Power to guide me, might to hold me, Wisdom teach me, watching o'er me. Ear to hear me, hand to guard me, Love to conquer every fear.

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, our beloved Mother we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a storm-less eternity awaits us.

Amen.

Next Sunday (July 30) – 17th Sunday of the Year
With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
