From Our Pastor, Father George

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

Sunday Sermon – 21st Sunday of Ordinary Time

August 27, 2023

– Revive faith and rekindle love

1. It has taken many years before I learned to begin my adoration of the Blessed Sacrament with the silent proclamation similar to Peter's confession. It's so different when I begin my adoration with the words like: You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. I think that every time we come to adore the Blessed Sacrament especially when it is exposed in the monstrance on the altar, we should start our adoration by repeating Peter's confession. Often when I knelt before the monstrance, I said something on the line: Oh God, there is so much I need and only your blessing can help me and then I would list my requests. I don't think I was fully satisfied with that sort of adoration of the Lord. I think that whenever I manage to remember to begin my adoration with Peter's proclamation I feel more satisfied, and I think that Good Lord likes these adorations better.

2. Peter was led by Jesus, strengthened by his companions who followed Jesus with him and inspired by the Holy Spirit.

Peter came to believe in Jesus, in his Divinity and Jesus told him that: My heavenly Father revealed this to you, not flesh and blood. We shouldn't trust too much the body and blood, in our quest for God we should always follow the truth.

- Isaiah tells us that not every person in high position deserves our attention, there are those like Shebna who do not speak the truth. There are also false prophets in the public who lie to us about things, and we need to be careful as to whom we follow.

View this bulletin online at www.DiscoverMass.com

The first step in the process of recognizing the Divine presence is to check that what is preached to us is true. If we want to find out God's inspiration, we need to confirm that the things we believe are true. That they were true yesterday and are true today. Otherwise, we will be led astray.

- The entire second reading today is Paul's confession of his faith in God. Paul teaches us there that God is completely independent of anything and anyone, and that nothing and nobody is equal to God. This is very important. In our faith life we need to go through the process of clearing the image of God. Very often the image of true God is different from the image of our God. We, sometimes inherit or learn, or experience something that twists the true image of God. Jesus gives us the true image of God, the gospel's image of God.

3. This is important for today's world of learning and understanding, which forgets to worship God for this Divine element in the history of humankind. Many people explore the secrets of the planet earth and human life, the secrets of the skies and cosmos and yet refuse to learn the secrets of Divinity. Thank God, we have Jesus who gives us this light and grace of God and who empowers us with the inner strength to open and learn the secrets of heaven. Let's pray that God will revive our faith and re-ignite our love, as he did to Peter. Let's pray that our faith and love to God will be as courageous as that of Peter.

“Let's pray that our faith and love to God will be as courageous as that of Peter.”

– Father George

Next Sunday (September 3) – is 22nd Sunday of the Year.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

ST. MARTHA
CATHOLIC CHURCH
The Parishioners' Meeting of Catholic Apostles

DIocese OF Venice IN Florida
 OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

August 18, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In recent days, the nation has watched as a terrible and devastating fire struck the Hawaiian island of Maui. Though the full extent of the impact is not yet known, over 110 people have died and there is extensive destruction, especially in the community of Lahaina.

Throughout Southwest Florida, there is an understanding of the dangers of natural disasters, and many can remember the destruction in our local communities from Hurricane Ian, less than a year ago. A great deal of help was needed, and the goodness of others was clearly evidenced.

Our Catholic Faith calls each of us to care for those in need, and at this time in particular, for those who are suffering in the wake of this terrible fire on Maui. Recognizing the need of those who have been so severely impacted by the fire, a second collection will be held in Parishes of the Diocese of Venice on the weekend of August 26-27. Funds collected will be sent to Catholic Charities in the Diocese of Honolulu to help address the significant need.

Your generosity and your prayers for the people of Maui are deeply appreciated. May Almighty God bless you and your families.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
 Frank J. Dewane, Bishop of the Diocese of Florida

FLORIDIANS SHOULD DECLINE TO SIGN PETITION FOR DANGEROUS PRO-ABORTION AMENDMENT

An extremely grave initiative is underway in Florida that seeks to erase pro-life protections by inserting language into the Florida Constitution banning regulation of abortion. Abortion activists are working to gather petition signatures to place a pro-abortion constitutional amendment on the November 2024 ballot. This amendment would allow abortion up until birth, including when the baby is capable of feeling pain, and would eliminate laws requiring parental consent and safety protocols for women.

Floridians should not sign the petition.

Please spread the word to your spheres of influence and continue to pray for the protection of the unborn.
