Sunday Sermon – 25th Sunday of Ordinary Time

From Deacon Bill, Homily, Mt 20, 01-16

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

Perhaps today's Gospel passage might make a labor union steward cringe! What kind of employer would pay all his employees the same amount of money to those who worked one hour and those who worked a whole day in the scorching sun? Obviously this story is not the fulfillment of An honest day's wages for an honest day's work. The parable is not about labor relations, it's one that describes unbelievable generosity so outrageous that it is out of proportion with anything you and I can think of.

Why didn't it work out as we might have expected? What made us think the treatment of the workers later in the day violates our sense of justice? It's that word the owner threw something into the negotiations – generosity. Are you envious because I am generous?

In the light of today's parable, when I think things over, I'll leave my side any day and go over to the side where God is. Standing before God, I'll choose his generosity. When I fail to measure up to being the person I want to be or others want me to be, I'll take God's generosity towards me. Unfortunately, today's world measures people's worth by their looks, grades in school, athletic ability, net worth, etc. I thought about this when I was waiting with groceries at the supermarket check-out counter, I looked at the magazine covers and I noticed what kind of people are on the covers. No one is old, or dressed poorly, is heavy (you can't be too thin in our world, or too rich)!

I trust when I go before God, being less than perfect in my works, looks or spirit – I'll take his generosity any day. Relying on that generosity, I will hear a judgment passed on me: that I am valuable and worth a reward for whatever work I have done. When I know I have done wrong and have no excuse for my behavior and when I expect the punishment I deserve – I'll take God's forgiveness and generous judgment.

But if that's what I want from God – his generosity – then I need to look at the standards I apply to others and treat all people graciously; whether or not they live in my part of town; have my level of income, education, travel experiences and status on the corporate ladder. If I want to stay under the generous judgment I already have received from God, then I had better not walk away judging others by another standard than the one used to judge me – the generous one!

From Father George

It's great to see our church re-roofed, with repainted exterior walls and a newly repainted interior! The work was finished before the expected time, and we were able to return to the church with all our liturgical celebrations. All things are now back to normal schedule. Thank you to all who generously support our parish and help to carry out such necessary repairs of our buildings. May God bless all who did the hard work and all who make it possible with your financial maintenance of St. Martha parish campus. Your generosity is appreciated!

Opportunity of Silent Adoration. Last Thursday of the month Adoration from 6-7pm on Sept. 28 will be a silent adoration with Benediction at the end of it. Come and remain with Jesus, who is present for us in his Church.

Come to the church and take part in Traveling Rosary Congress, which includes Mass, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, and the praying of the Rosary for families, the Church, and peace in the world.

We will hold the chain of Rosaries in St. Martha's church on October 8-9, 2023. Each hour of Adoration will start with the Rosary at the round hour and then will be followed by silent adoration until before the next round hour when the next group begins the Rosary and their adoration. In such a way 22 groups will fulfill St. Martha's 24 hours part in the Traveling Rosary Congress. Our Adoration will start after the 5:30pm Mass on Sunday, October 8 and will conclude with the 5:30pm parish Mass on Monday, October 9. Here is the schedule of our Rosary Congress to help you to participate if you want to join in. Contact the Parish Office if you do.

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season: O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, our beloved Mother we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

September 27-November 5, 2023

Help to save lives by praying for an end to abortion. The 40 Days for Life is a coordinated campaign that aims to end abortion through prayer, fasting, community outreach and a peaceful all-day vigil in front of abortion facilities.

People of faith also are invited to fast throughout the 40 Days for Life. We believe that when God's people fast our heavenly Father will hear and heal our lives, our churches, our communities, our nation and our world.

The visible, public centerpiece of the campaign is a focused 40-day, round-the-clock prayer vigil outside a Planned Parenthood Center, as well as other abortion facilities. It is a peaceful and educational presence. Those who participate can send a powerful message to the community about the tragic reality of abortion. It also serves as a call to repentance for those who work and patronize the abortion centers. Christ told us some demons can only be driven out by prayer and fasting. The two go hand in hand.

Please join other St. Martha parishioners on our dedicated parish day,
October 16, 9am-7pm, at Planned Parenthood on Central Avenue, Sarasota.
