From Our Pastor, Father George

October 29, 2023

Sunday Sermon – 30th Sunday of Ordinary Time

From Deacon Pat

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

The readings are about God's Law, God's Love!

Psalm 18 is by King David and was written about 1,000 years before Christ. In it he acknowledges his successes. But he attributes them to the graces he has received from God.

In the Exodus reading, Moses quotes God in such a way that leaves no doubt that God wishes everyone to treat others, regardless of their social status or their material wealth, with compassion.

So, what does this mean for us?

St. Paul teaches that guided by the Holy Spirit he lives in imitation of Jesus. He is happy that those he converted in Thessalonica imitate him and people the Thessalonians converted, live in imitation of them. All serving one another!

So, that is what we, two millennia later, are called to be: Imitators of Christ!

That's fine! But how do we do that?

Jesus answers that question in the Gospel:

You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment.

The second is like it:

You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.

The verb here is Love! And the way it is expressed here it is the Divine Love God gives us unselfishly and unconditionally. It inspires us to give of ourselves unselfishly for the good of others.

When we were Baptized and the Holy Spirit was introduced into our souls, we, or our parents for us, affirmed that we would Love the Lord and our Neighbor as Christ taught us. The essence of this teaching is found in the above Gospel passage. As a first step, each of us must admit that without God's grace we are powerless to even begin to imitate Jesus. We need to pray to the Holy Spirit for this grace.

The greatest example of a person, in my lifetime, fulfilling this Love of God, is St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta. Quoting her: I see Jesus in every human being, said Mother Teresa, I say to myself, this is hungry Jesus, I must feed him. This is sick Jesus. This one has leprosy or gangrene; I must wash him and tend to him. I serve because I love Jesus.

One of my Spiritual Directors suggested that as part of my Morning Prayer, I should reflect on the day ahead; the events in which I will be participating and the people with whom I will be in contact. Ask Him to inspire you to reflect His love during those occasions? In the evening as part of my Night Prayer, I should thank God for His inspiration when I followed Him by acting kindly towards others. Also, I should acknowledge those occasions during my day where I neglected to give His love to others, ask forgiveness; and pledge to do better.

This advice has helped me on my spiritual journey and I pass it on to you.

So, returning to the theme of this week's readings, we find that God's Law is not restrictive! Quite the opposite! It requires us to Love Unselfishly!

"The verb here is Love! ... It inspires us to give of ourselves unselfishly for the good of others."

From Father George

We pray to the Lord for the end of war in Israel & Gaza Strip, Ukraine and other places of conflicts:

O Lord, you have been our refuge through all generations!

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

Hear my prayer, LORD; listen to my cry for mercy. When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer me.

Arrogant foes are attacking me, O God; ruthless people are trying to kill me – they have no regard for you. But you, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.

Turn to me and have mercy on me; show your strength on behalf of your servant; save me, because I serve you just as my mother did. Give me a sign of your goodness, that my enemies may see it and be put to shame, for you, LORD, have helped me and comforted me. (Psalm 86) O Lord, you have been our refuge through all generations!

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

September 27-November 5, 2023

Help to save lives by praying for an end to abortion. The 40 Days for Life is a coordinated campaign that aims to end abortion through prayer, fasting, community outreach and a peaceful all-day vigil in front of abortion facilities.

People of faith also are invited to fast throughout the 40 Days for Life. We believe that when God's people fast our heavenly Father will hear and heal our lives, our churches, our communities, our nation and our world.

The visible, public centerpiece of the campaign is a focused 40-day, round-the-clock prayer vigil outside a Planned Parenthood Center, as well as other abortion facilities. It is a peaceful and educational presence. Those who participate can send a powerful message to the community about the tragic reality of abortion. It also serves as a call to repentance for those who work and patronize the abortion centers. Christ told us some demons can only be driven out by prayer and fasting. The two go hand in hand.
