Sunday Sermon – 31st Sunday of Ordinary Time

From Deacon Vern Smith

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

The readings of this Sunday drew the attention of preachers (including myself) of the Word to do an introspection. In the first of the three readings, the Lord cautioned priests about the consequence of not listening to Him (cf. Mal. 2:1-2). St. Paul, in turn, recalls that, while in Thessalonica, he and his colleagues backed their preaching with exemplary actions (cf. 1 Thess. 2:9). Then, in the gospel reading, Jesus sternly criticized the scribes and Pharisees: ‘they preach, but do not practice’ (Matt. 23:4).

The need to practice what one preaches is clearly stated in the ordination rite of a Catholic deacon. While presenting the Book of the Gospels to the deacon, the ordaining Bishop instructs him:

*Receive the Gospel of Christ, whose herald you now are.
Believe what you read, teach what you believe, and practice what you teach.*

Obviously, the above instruction to ‘practice what you teach’ applies also to priests and bishops, since the diaconate is the first level of the threefold sacrament of Holy Orders. Practicing what one preaches has, at least, the double effect of: (a) giving credence to the message preached and (b) sustaining the preacher’s grace of salvation.

a. Credence to the Message: Since actions speak louder than words, the preacher’s message makes a greater impact on his audience if he practices what he preaches. The importance of good actions to back what one preaches could be seen from the fact that many good deacons, priests or bishops still make positive impact on their ‘flock’, even when they are not gifted preachers. Every time we are standing at the ambo preaching to you, the parishioners, some of us might not have the most eloquent of preaching, however many of our parishioners have testified to the great impact in their lives due to a strong prayerful life, our demeanor of gentleness, humility, kindness, compassion, patience, as well as our unceasing care for the poor and needy. We might come across to many, as living a saintly life, and so a few words from us can be enough to make a good impact.

b. Sustaining the grace of salvation: St. Paul was rightly concerned that there is the possibility of laboring to preach to save other souls, while losing one’s own soul in the process. Consequently, he resolved, with the help of God’s grace to discipline himself lest he became a cast out: ‘Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! . . . but I pommel my body and subdue it, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified’ (1 Cor. 9:16, 27). Thanks to God’s grace, the success of St. Paul in practicing what he taught could be seen from the fact that he confidently told the Corinthians: ‘Imitate me, just as I also imitate Christ’ (1 Cor. 11:1).

Finally, then, pray that deacons, priests and bishops will be enabled by the Holy Spirit to always practice what we teach; that in doing so we will make ever greater impact on many souls and, ultimately, be eternally rewarded by the Lord. Amen!

From Father George

We pray to the Lord for the end of war in Israel & Gaza Strip, Ukraine and other places of conflicts:

O Lord, you have been our refuge through all generations!

You, Lord, are forgiving and good, abounding in love to all who call to you.

Hear my prayer, LORD; listen to my cry for mercy. When I am in distress, I call to you, because you answer me.

Arrogant foes are attacking me, O God; ruthless people are trying to kill me – they have no regard for you. But you, Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.

Turn to me and have mercy on me; show your strength on behalf of your servant; save me, because I serve you just as my mother did.

Give me a sign of your goodness, that my enemies may see it and be put to shame, for you, LORD, have helped me and comforted me. (Psalm 86)

O Lord, you have been our refuge through all generations!

Special Mission Appeal – Welcome Fr. Peter Short

We are hosting Fr. Peter Short, Vicar General of the Diocese of Gallup, who preaches at all our Sunday Masses apart from 9am in the hall & 5:30pm on Sunday. Fr. Peter is doing a special Mission Appeal for the Missionary ministry in the Diocese of Gallup.

We pray for our Dead

During November, we are called in a special way to remember “our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection” (Eucharistic Prayer II of the Mass). You may want to say the prayer: Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace! Light a candle for them, visit the place of their burial. Pray glorious mysteries of the Rosary for them. Pray Biblical Psalm 50 on their behalf or your own payer.

Next Sunday (November 12, 2023) – is 32nd Sunday of the Year

With prayers for God’s blessing to you and your family, Father George

40 DAYS FOR LIFE
September 27-November 5, 2023
Help to save lives by praying for an end to abortion. The 40 Days for Life is a coordinated campaign that aims to end abortion through prayer, fasting, community outreach and a peaceful all-day vigil in front of abortion facilities.
People of faith also are invited to fast throughout the 40 Days for Life. We believe that when God's people fast our heavenly Father will hear and heal our lives, our churches, our communities, our nation and our world.
The visible, public centerpiece of the campaign is a focused 40-day, round-the-clock prayer vigil outside a Planned Parenthood Center, as well as other abortion facilities. It is a peaceful and educational presence. Those who participate can send a powerful message to the community about the tragic reality of abortion. It also serves as a call to repentance for those who work and patronize the abortion centers. Christ told us some demons can only be driven out by prayer and fasting. The two go hand in hand.
