Sunday Sermon – 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

From Deacon Bob

MT 25: 14-30

The Parable of the Talents is one of the more famous parables in the Bible. While we often associate the talents to be the gifts of God, and that we need to use those talents God as provided us to glorify Him, we also can consider the talents being the knowledge of God and sharing His message with others.

My wife Margaret when talking about us as parents says that our number one job as parents is to get our three children to heaven. I then typically quip that if the kids upset me enough, I will send them there way before God intended. Hence it is a good reason why the Bible refers to wisdom as her! But Margaret's statement has profound wisdom. Particularly considering today's Gospel when we consider the talents as the knowledge of God and sharing His message.

A former pastor of mine used to say that "life is just a pilgrimage to God." Again, a very profound statement! That is exactly what life is! The true purpose of life when we step back and truly analyze it, is to help others and ourselves be with God forever! Is that not why Jesus came two thousand years ago? He came to teach us how to be with Him forever.

Jesus whole purpose was to get us to heaven. He taught us through parables like we heard today and last week. And He also showed us by His example. He took the form of a slave, and gave freely of His human self, to show us how to die to ourselves and live in Him. There is a prayer during Mass that either the priest or the deacon says quietly as they pour wine and water into the chalice. The prayer is "by the mingling of this water and wine, may we share in the divinity of Christ who humbled Himself to share in our humanity."

So when we come to Mass and partake in the Eucharist, the Church itself is praying for us to share in His divinity! In a particular way, the entire Church is praying that we take our knowledge of Him and share it with others. As the same prayer prays that we too will be with Him forever.

As we all know, the best way to share our knowledge of Him is by example. There is no better way to share knowledge. Margaret along with being a mom is a schoolteacher. Over the years she has taught me there are three ways to learn: auditorily, visually, and kinesthetically. Some people learn by hearing, others learn by seeing, but all of us learn by example and doing. This is referred to as kinesthetics.

Jesus tells us today we have been given the knowledge of how to get to heaven. As we make the sign of the cross: in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: it is not He, me, and the heck with thee. But it IS He, me, for the sake of thee! The Bible verse today says He harvests where He does not plant and gathers where He did not gather. If we, as HE asks us to today, use our Knowledge of Him (our talents): we then as the parable tells us will be His good and faithful servant and share in His Joy.

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,
From Father George

Happy Thanksgiving Day! May God bless us and grant us safe travelling to our destinations for this coming week, joyful family gatherings, generous gift of sharing meals and love with each other, good rest and renewed spirit of the community.

Think about your own Eucharistic Revival! So far, we had a national and diocesan Eucharistic Revival events. At this time, I invite everyone in the parish to reflect on your own faith in Jesus Christ present in the Eucharist. Spend some time in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, say your thanks to Jesus present there for you. Soon you will hear more about the small groups of the Eucharistic Revival in our parish, please consider joining them and benefiting from listening and learning more about the Lord and the Eucharist.

"The true purpose of life, when we step back and truly analyze it, is to help others and ourselves be with God forever!"

— Deacon Bob

We are rebuilding the church choir for 10:30am Sunday Mass!

In response to the good number of requests in the parish, I would like to invite volunteers who want to sing in the choir, to bring their names and contact phone numbers to the parish office, please! Virginia Bray - our parish Music Director will contact you, invite you to the audition and will inform you about the next step. We are hoping that together with the choir members, who sung in it before the Covid-19 pandemic, we will hear the choir at our Mass soon.

We pray for our Dead During November, we are called in a special way to remember our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection (Eucharistic Prayer II of the Mass). You may want to say the prayer: Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace! Light a candle for them, visit the place of their burial. Pray glorious mysteries of the Rosary for them. Pray Biblical Psalm 129 (Out of the depths I cry to you Oh, Lord...) on their behalf or your own payer..

Next Sunday (November 26, 2023) – is the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, the King of Universe

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family, Father George

Confirmation Retreat

On Sat, Nov 11, 2023 - St. Martha hosted 170 High School Sophomores, from nine Northern Deanery Parishes for a Confirmation Retreat which was held at St. Martha School's Zazarino Center.

K-1 Class of Religious Education & Faith Formation

For class on Sunday, November 5, the K-1 class children watched two short videos about being THANKFUL! We learned that we should be grateful for the things that we have, and not worry about the things that we don't have. Take a look at our "Thankful Tree" masterpieces! Every time we look at them, we will remember this lesson & remember to thank Jesus for giving us our families.

DECLINE TO SIGN!

The abortion industry has launched a petition initiative for a radical proposed amendment to the Florida Constitution. If successful, the amendment would mandate unlimited abortion in Florida. It not only could enshrine the return to partial-birth abortions in the state, it would override parental consent for an abortion.

The Florida Council of Catholic Bishops stated in a recent message:
"Declining to sign this petition is not impeding the democratic process. It is taking a stand against what would be a terrible state policy."

The petition would expand abortion businesses in Florida and limit state government restrictions on abortion.
