Sunday Sermon – Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, the King of Universe

From Father Chris Frost

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

Few of us have been subject to a king, and the few kings left in the world do not have the power over their subjects' lives that a king in the Ancient Near East or the Roman Empire had. It is not surprising, then, that when Jews of that time imagined what it would be like for God to finally take complete control of the world, they used imagery of kingship and of great battles between good and evil. The most powerful use of that language, however, made its point by turning typical ideas of kingship on their head, as our readings today show.

In the first reading, Ezekiel sees that eventually the devastating reigns of Israel's recent kings, as well as the kings of other nations who conquered Israel, would come to an end. God will be their king, but his reign will be not of pomp and majesty but of the kindest of shepherds, tenderly giving care to the most vulnerable of the flock.

For Paul, Christ's resurrection signaled that the end times had begun, and very soon, he thought, Christ will reign as king. But again, he will be a king far different than the Jews were experiencing under the Roman emperors. Christ the King will bring not more money and prestige to the rich, but life eternal to those who belong to him. He promises just judgment both for them and for those who have oppressed them.

The Gospel tells us how to belong to Christ. Jesus' parable of the sheep and the goats continues the theme of the messianic king who will judge justly. In the Roman Empire, honor was everything and money was able to buy you that. Money also bought what could only roughly be called justice. It is not money or power or worldly honor that gains one admittance to Jesus' kingdom, however – it is acting like God, the Good Shepherd, who binds up the injured and heals the sick. To be with him and in him, Christ the King chooses quite simply those who give food, drink, clothing, and comfort to those most neglected.

The Solemnity of Christ the King was promulgated by Pope Pius XI on December 11, 1925 by publishing his encyclical letter Quas primas, on the Kingship of Christ. Europe was still healing from the effects of World War I. The once great Catholic monarchies of Europe had been replaced by fascists, socialists and communists – all styles of government that are opposed to religious observance. Europe was beginning to turn away from God and his Church. The intent of this solemnity was to let all people know that the kings of men will never match the great and glorious, merciful and mighty kingship of Jesus Christ.

Pope Pius XI wrote in Quas primas: Nations will be reminded by the annual celebration of this feast that not only private individuals - but also rulers and princes - are bound to give public honor and obedience to Christ.

Silent Parish Adoration – Thursday,

November 30, 2023: 6-7pm Come to our church and join other parishioners for this monthly adoration! May these words: Faith will tell us Christ is present encourage us to come and adore the Lord Jesus.

Think about your own Eucharistic Revival! So far, we had a national and diocesan Eucharistic Revival events. At this time, I invite everyone in the parish to reflect on your own faith in Jesus Christ present in the Eucharist. Spend some time in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, say your thanks to Jesus present there for you. Soon you will hear more about the small groups of the Eucharistic Revival in our parish, please consider joining them and benefiting from listening and learning more about the Lord and the Eucharist.

We are rebuilding the church choir for 10:30am Sunday Mass! In response to good number of requests in the parish, I would like to invite volunteers, who would like to sing in the choir, to bring their names and contact phone numbers to the parish office, please! Virginia Bray - our parish Music Director will contact you, invite you to the audition and will inform you about the next step. We are hoping that together with the choir members, who sung in it before the Covid-19 pandemic, we will hear the choir at our Mass soon.

We pray for our Dead During November, we are called in a special way to remember our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection (Eucharistic Prayer II of the Mass). You may want to say the prayer: Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May they rest in peace! Light a candle for them, visit the place of their burial. Pray glorious mysteries of the Rosary for them. Pray Biblical Psalm 50 on their behalf or your own payer.

Next Sunday (December 3, 2023) is First Sunday of Advent
With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

"It is not money or power or worldly honor that gains one admittance to Jesus' kingdom, however – it is acting like God, the Good Shepherd, who binds up the injured and heals the sick?"

DIocese OF Venice IN Florida
 OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today, men and women of Religious Communities past the age of seventy outnumber younger religious by nearly three to one. For most of their lives, elderly religious worked tirelessly during their days of active ministry, helping the neediest among us, often for minimal pay. Today, they need our help. Religious communities find it increasingly difficult to provide for their needs, due to rising health care costs, decreasing income and diminishing retirement savings.

Each year, the National Religious Retirement Office (NRRO) provides support through the annual appeal for the Retirement Fund for Religious by providing financial assistance to religious communities for medications, nursing care and much more. Additionally, they support educational programming, services and resources that enable religious communities to evaluate and prepare for long-term retirement needs.

Parishes throughout the Diocese of Venice will conduct the annual collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious the weekend of December 9 and 10, 2023. Your support provides day to day care of elderly sisters, brothers and religious order priests.

Thank you for your generosity towards these men and women who have given their lives to serve our Lord, the Church and Her Faithful. I take this opportunity to extend to each of you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers for you and your family. Have a Blessed Advent Season.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Frank J. Dewane, Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Abortion Preeminent Issue for U.S. Bishops

At their Plenary Fall meeting November 15, the U.S. Bishops approved an amendment reaffirming that opposition to abortion is their preeminent priority ahead of the 2024 elections because it directly attacks our most vulnerable and voiceless brothers and sisters and destroys more than a million lives per year in our country alone. This amendment passed with an overwhelming 225 votes in favor and 11 opposed. The amendment is part of their document: Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship.

In the words of Archbishop William Lori of Baltimore, vice president of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops: It's not simply a public policy issue. It is a deeply, deeply pastoral issue of loving the moms in need, helping them bring their babies to term, and then providing them with what they need to move forward.
