Sunday Sermon – Fourth Sunday of Advent
From Deacon Vern Smith

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

When a mother is expecting a baby, in a way the whole family is expecting along with her. There is joy in expecting a beautiful happening to come. There is excitement in expecting a vacation trip that is going to be an entirely new experience. We ask friends who have been there. Expecting keeps us young. We look to the future instead of to the past. There are always new and exciting aspects in life, if only we have the eye to see them and the gift of wonder which children possess, and grown-ups should never lose.

Christmas is such an event to come. It is God revealing the mystery kept secret for long ages. He wants to be present with us. He wants to give us an image of himself in Jesus Christ, an image that we are able to perceive with our weak human senses. Christmas is great every year, but only for those who are expecting Emmanuel – God with us In faith and wonderment.

It is God who builds the house! It is God who sends the Savior! It is God who comes to Mary and through Mary gives us the Savior. All comes from God and all returns to God, but the present is the important time because it is now that God and humans are in relationship.

The first reading today is from the Second Book of Samuel. What a wonderful account of David and of David's desire to build a house for the Lord! The point of this account, however, is that all of us must recognize that God is the center of life and not us. At one level we can do nothing for God.

That should not stop us from trying to do everything for God! Even though all we have comes from God, we can still return His love by striving to live for Him and striving to be faithful to all that He asks of us. This is a normal, natural response to knowing the love of God.

The second reading today comes from the Letter to the Romans and speaks of the mystery of salvation now being revealed. Only when we believe in a personal God who loves us does any plan of God make sense. Sure, God does not have to plan the way that we humans do, but God always has our good in His mind and is working to bring about His goodness and love within us. Part of the plan of God was sending His Only Son to save us from ourselves.

Today, many people do not believe in God or in salvation. On the other hand, if we look around our world at any time in history – if we look today – we see what a mess we humans make of our lives. In the 1900s there was a large movement that believed that we humans could make everything better and perfect. That kind of thinking is still around us in those who are convinced that our problems come from political systems or from economic systems or from other causes. There is practically no recognition today that our problems come from our fallen human nature and that we humans, by ourselves, are unable to fix ourselves and are in need of salvation.

The Gospel from Saint Luke today presents us with Mary saying yes to God's invitation in her life. This is the dawn of our salvation! Only in Jesus the Savior will our world ever be at peace. Only in Jesus as Lord will nations be able to work together. Only with Jesus at the heart of our own personal lives can we truly serve the Lord in Spirit and Truth.

May God build our house, our Church, our country and our world – and with that hope we await the coming of the Lord!

The Nativity of Jesus in Bethlehem was very humble event and hardly noticed by the contemporary society, yet it brought salvation from evil and powerful message of peace in the middle of the Roman occupation of the Holy Land and it spread across the world. We pray and wish that God will bring peace to the people of the Holy Land and bless Ukraine at this time as well as all people of good will!
May God bless you and your families!
