From Our Pastor, Father George

January 14, 2024 - 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Father Chris

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

Samuel is the first in a long line of prophets in biblical Israel. He lived in the 11th century B.C., at a time when the Ark of the Covenant was kept in a tabernacle at Shiloh. Dedicated to the Lord's service by his parents, the boy Samuel had been living at the shrine since he was a toddler.

In today's reading, Samuel hears a voice calling to him in the night and thinks it is Eli, but it turns out that God is calling him. Eli tells Samuel to answer the Lord, so that God may give him whatever message he intends.

Samuel does as Eli instructs, and the Scriptures go on to say that, Samuel grew up, and the Lord was with him, not permitting any word of his to be without effect. As a prophet, his role was not so much to predict the future but to speak God's word to the people and to offer advice to Israel's first two kings.

Saint Paul also spoke God's word to his people. Today we heard part of his message to the Corinthians, reminding them that The body . . . is not for immorality, but for the Lord. The Church in Corinth was dealing with several cases of public immorality, and they wrote to the Apostle seeking advice. He reminds them, and us, that the body is a temple of the Holy Spirit. It is these very bodies that God will transform and raise on the Last Day. So we should treat them with the dignity they deserve.

In the Gospel today, two followers of John the Baptist, including Andrew, hear John refer to Jesus as the Lamb of God. And so they leave John and follow Jesus. As Samuel was led to God's voice by Eli's directions, so, too, are Andrew and the other disciple led to Jesus by John's words.

When he sees them, Jesus asks them, What are you looking for? Their response is simply to ask where he is staying and he invites them to come, and you will see. The evangelist tells us that they stayed with him that day. We don't know what transpired during their time together, but it was enough to lead Andrew to go and tell his brother Simon, We have found the Messiah. He, too, goes to Jesus. When Jesus meets Simon he gives him the name Cephas, which is translated Peter.

As God called Samuel and as Jesus called his disciples, so have we been called. We are temples of the Holy Spirit, made for the Lord. Here we take the Lord into our bodies, so that we might become more like him, and that we might ourselves be prophets of the Good News of our Lord.

From Father George

The community of people helps in the Eucharistic Revival! At this time, I invite everyone in the parish to reflect on how other parishioners can help you to revive your faith in Jesus Christ present in the Eucharist. By now you have received the letter about the small groups of the Eucharistic Revival in our parish, please consider joining them and benefiting from listening and learning more about the Lord and the Eucharist

Bishop Robert Baron writes in his book, This is my Body: There is an essential deference between the historical body of Jesus, born of the Virgin and now reigning in heaven, and the "body" that appears sacramentally on the altar. (p. 83)

Anniversary of the birth of Martin Luther King, Jr. As we remember Martin Luther (born on January 15, 1929 – assassinated on April 4, 1968), we join in national prayers for the end of racial discrimination, for justice and peace.

Week of prayers for Christian Unity Between January 18 and 25, 2024, all Christians (those who believe in Jesus Christ and are baptized in the name of the Holy Trinity) are praying for unity of the Church of Christ in the world. Jesus himself teaches us to pray: ..that they may be one, as we are one – I living in them, you living in me – that their unity may be complete. So shall the world know that you sent me, and that you loved them as you loved me. (John 17: 22b23)

"As God called Samuel and as Jesus called his disciples, so have we been called. We are temples of the Holy Spirit, made for the Lord."
– Father Chris

Next Sunday (January 21, 2024) is the 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family, Father George

Opening Your Heart: The Starting Point
This study explores the fundamental questions of our Catholic faith and our relationship with Jesus Christ. Join us as we examine the core questions that we need to wrestle with if we want to experience all that God has for us.

- How do I get my priorities in order?
- I've been going through the motions in my spiritual life—how does it relate to my day-to-day life?
- How do I get to know Christ in a personal way?

Wednesdays from 9:30-11:30am

HELPING HOMELESS FAMILIES

Family Promise of Sarasota-Manatee (FPSM)

takes a holistic approach to the crisis of families with children facing homelessness.

In partnership with multiple social service agencies, FPSM offers families with children a variety of services: case management, affordable child care referrals, negotiation strategies with debt agencies and landlords, emergency funds and other community resources to stay in or obtain safe, sustainable housing.

FPSM is supported by 20 interfaith congregations, including St. Martha.

If you are a family in danger of eviction, call 211.

Host a Special Holy Hour of Eucharistic Adoration for the St Martha Community

Thu, Jan 18 • 9:30-10:30am • at the Carosella Chapel

This traditional Catholic devotion time is spent reflecting in front of the Blessed Sacrament Catholics recognize as the real presence of Christ. Holy Hour contains many aspects, particularly prayer (both silent and communal) and the singing of hymns of praise. All members of the parish community are encouraged to join our brothers in this impactful service.

Women's Retreat

- Saturday, January 27 following the 7:30am Mass
- Meet in the Parish Hall for a light breakfast, ends at 11:30am with lunch
- Women of the parish are invited to a morning of self-reflection to learn ways to bring us closer to God in 2024.
- Presented by Ellen Bachman, Brenda Dolan and Katie Morris
- We define who we are with a personality test and learn: how we all react differently and about missed opportunities as God sends us opportunities to serve Him daily. How do we know what they are? We will also hear about how to forgive and move forward in our life.

This event is sponsored by the Council of Catholic Women at no cost to you.

There will be a sign-up sheet in the back of the Church.

Or you can call Ellen at 941.721.7393 or Dawn at 941.549.9796
