From Our Pastor, Father George

February 4, 2024 - 5th Sunday of Ordinary Time

From Deacon Pat Macaulay

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

Today's readings are about the hopefulness and the healing power of God. As the Alleluia refrain states: Christ took away our infirmities and bore our diseases.

The reading from the book of Job depicts is an exquisite dramatic treatment of the problem of the suffering of the innocent and lives without hope. Hope as defined by the Catechism is the theological virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as or happiness, placing our trust in Christ's promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the Holy Spirit. Hope is living a life believing in divine providence.

St. Thomas Aquinas stresses the importance of Hope and divine providence. He wrote: If divine providence is denied, no reverence or true fear of God will remain among men. Each man can weigh well how great will be the propensity for vice and the lack of desire for virtue which follows from this idea. For nothing so calls men back from evil things and induces them to good as much as the fear and love of God.

In the Gospel, in addition to healing Simon's mother-in-law, we see the universality of his healing power. The whole town as well as preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee represents the totality of humanity - all who were ill or possessed by demons. In effect, they gathered with hope and were healed!

Now, it is appropriate for me to address demons. Personally, I accept that when I am in a state of sinfulness (a state of not loving God or neighbor), my soul is demoniacally infected. To return to a state of Grace, I need to bring my soul to the Confessional and lay my sinfulness before Jesus for him to heal my soul's illness. Only then can I, like Simon's mother-in-law, be thankful and rise up and serve Jesus as well as my neighbor.

When we were baptized, we were inducted into God's Holy People. As such, each of us are required to serve Jesus by leading exemplary lives and thus attracting others to Him.

As St. Paul describes in the epistle, our lives must embrace the Lordship of Christ and be lives of hope and of thanksgiving. Like St. Paul, we must tell everyone the Good News. By bringing others to share in the Divine Salvation, we fulfill the Jesus' purpose!

Be thankful and hopeful!

From Father George

Fr. Patrick Wilson – 1st Anniversary of his death It has been a year since Fr. Patrick died on February 2, 2023, but we still miss him, and many of us who knew him for a long time or were very close to him need to commemorate about him. The beauty of the heavenly life in which we believe, and the reality of earthly life help us to commend him to the mercy of God and to thank God for the gift of Fr. Patrick's life and his Christian service.

*In Memory of our dear
Father Patrick Wilson*

The Small Groups will help you to revive your love to Jesus who instituted the Eucharist

Groups of about 6 people will be created from all participants, we will watch the prepared material on video and with the help of the table facilitator, we will be sharing, discussing, listening and learning more about the Lord Jesus Christ and the Eucharist. The material (Video material, questions and comments) prepared by the Eucharistic Revival Committee on behalf of the US Bishops Conference will last about two hours. There will be seven sessions, once a week.

Bishop Robert Baron writes in his book, This is my Body: Though it has in recent years been lampooned as advocating a type of divine child abuse, the doctrine of the atonement stands at the heart of Christian faith and proclamation. The Father sent his Son into godforsakenness, into the morass of sin and death, not because he delighted in seeing his Son suffer, but rather because he wanted his Son to bring the divine light to the darkest place. (p. 59)

Next Sunday (February 11, 2024) is the 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George
