From Our Pastor, Father George

February 18, 2024 - 1st Sunday of Lent - Mk 01, 12-15

From Deacon Bill

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

The message of Jesus today has several great truths about the Christian faith.

There is the Good News. It was mainly good news that Jesus came to bring to everyone. If we follow the gospels throughout the New Testament we can see at least something of what it means.

(a) It's good news of truth. Until Jesus came, people could only guess and grope after God. O that I knew where I might find him, cried Job. But with the coming of Jesus people could see clearly what God is like. They didn't need to guess and grope in the dark; they know.

(b) It's good news of hope. The ancient world was a pessimistic world. In their struggle for goodness people were defeated. The coming of Jesus brings hope to the hopeless heart.

(c) It's good news of peace. Part of the penalty of being human is to have a split personality. In human nature the beast and the angel are strangely intermingled. Our trouble has always been that we are haunted both by sin and by goodness. The coming of Jesus melds that divided personality into one. Because of Jesus, we find we find victory over our warring selves..

(d) It's the good news of God's promise. All non-Christian religions think of a demanding God; only Christianity tells of a God who is more ready to give than we are to ask.

(e) It's good news of immortality. To the pagan of Jesus' time, life was the road to death; man was thought of as a dying man; but Jesus came with the good news that we are on the way to life rather than death.

Then there is the word repent. Now repentance is not as easy as we sometimes think. The Greek word metanoia literally means a change of mind. We often confuse two things – sorrow for the consequences of sin and sorrow for sin. We're sometimes so sorry because of the mess that sin has got us into, but we know very well that if we could be reasonably sure that we could escape the consequences, we'd do the same thing again. It's frequently not the sin that we hate – it's the consequences.

Believe, says Jesus, in the good news. To believe in the good news simply means to take Jesus at his word, to believe that God is the kind of God that Jesus has told us about, to believe that God so loves the world that he will make any sacrifice to bring us back to himself, to believe that what sounds too good to be true is really true.

From Father George

Lent - The annual Lenten season is the fitting time to climb the holy mountain of Easter. The Lenten season has a double character, namely, to prepare both catechumens and faithful to celebrate the paschal mystery. Catechumens prepare to receive the Baptism, Confirmation and the First Holy Communion and the faithful, ever more attentive to the word of God and prayer, prepare themselves by penance for the renewal of their baptismal promises (Liturgical Ordo for Florida Dioceses).

Lenten Resolutions - We are told to look again at the three main spiritual Lenten exercises: fasting, praying and almsgiving. But any other personal resolution is good because it shows that we have ambition to change, and we can show faithfulness to our promises. When we keep our word, we show that we are responsible believers, even if we manage to be faithful for one day.

Lenten Stations of the Cross - On Fridays in Lent, we will have a prayerful meditation on the Stations of the Cross after the 8:30am Mass.

The Small Groups continue through Lent and help to revive our love to Jesus who instituted the Eucharist - We have started the meetings of these Groups of about 6 people, created from all participants, we watch the prepared material on video and with the help of the table facilitator, we share, discuss, listen and learn more about the Lord Jesus Christ and the Eucharist. The material (Video material, questions and comments) prepared by the Eucharistic Revival Committee on behalf of the US Bishops Conference will last about two hours. There will be seven sessions, once a week.

Next Sunday (February 25, 2024) is the 2nd Sunday of Lent.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

DIocese OF Venice IN Florida
OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The annual Black & Indian Mission Collection exists to assist African American, Native American and Alaskan Native communities in their parishes and schools.

This Collection assists parish-based catechetical programs, helps educators reach students in remote villages, empowers ministries to sponsor events and formation that encourage living the Christian life in culturally appropriate ways, and encourages vocations to the priesthood and religious life. However, your generosity is needed to help, particularly with religious education, seminary formation and lay ministry training.

The Diocese of Venice will be taking up the collection for the Black and Indian Mission the weekend of February 17 and 18, 2024. By contributing to the Collection, together we can give hope, which is often difficult to find in these areas. Thank you for your generosity and my God bless you and your family.

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration as well as my prayers throughout this Lenten Season.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Frankl. Dewane, Bishop of/ty Diocese of Venico in Florida

Lent 40 Days for Life Campaign began, Ash Wednesday, outside of Sarasota Planned Parenthood, 736 Central Ave. Please join us while we exercise our First Amendment Rights for peaceful prayerful assembly to be a voice for the voiceless, the unborn. We would love you to join us and bring friends with you.

The goal is by having a prayerful, loving, hope giving presence that women and men will choose life, babies will be saved and the community will be made aware what is going on in this center of death. Women are being lied to and babies are dying. Many Abortion Clinics have closed all over the world because of the 40 Days for Life peaceful, loving PRAYERFUL presence. Please just show up and pray.

St. Vincent dePaul is quoted as saying: Go to the poor and you will find God. That is the Vincentian mission. Over a million Vincentians around the world go to the poor every day. Right here in Sarasota, members of the St. Vincent dePaul conferences at Incarnation, St. Thomas More and St. Michael's regularly meet that challenge for our neighbors.

Members of the St. Vincent dePaul conferences are part of a worldwide community of Catholic faithful dedicated to spirituality, friendship, and service. It is often said that no form of charity is foreign to the St. Vincent dePaul Society. Sometimes, those who need financial assistance are also seeking a listener who cares about them, offering them a sacrament of presence.

If being part of that community of Vincentians who go to the poor interests you, we invite you to join us. Call the Incarnation parish office 941.921.6631 or come to one of our meetings on the last Monday of each month at 6:30pm. Discover for yourself if being part of this ministry can provide something special to your life and to the lives of others.

The harvest is indeed great, but more laborers are needed.
