From Our Pastor, Father George

February 25, 2024 - 2nd Sunday of Lent - Transfiguration - Mark 9:2-8

From Deacon Bob

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

On this second Sunday of Lent, the Church offers us Mark's version of the Transfiguration. The event of the Transfiguration occurs directly after Jesus first speaks of His Passion to come, and the conditions of Discipleship. We read Jesus goes up the mountain and converses with Moses who represents the law of the Old Testament, and Elijah who represents prophecy of the Old Testament. Prior to Jesus conversing with these two, he is transfigured. We witness a changing of the guard if you will.

Jesus tells us He did not come to abolish the law or the Prophets, but to fulfill them. This moment is a gateway from the old to the new. It is no wonder that the Church offers this Gospel as we dig into our Lenten journey. Lent is a time to prepare ourselves for our own conversion or transfiguration. Through these forty days we are called to change.

Again, turning back to the verses and the teaching He offers directly before the Transfiguration, Jesus tells those wanting to follow Him: whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will find it and whoever is ashamed of me and of my words in this faithless and sinful generation, the Son of Man will be ashamed of when he comes in his Father's glory with the angels.

Not a single one of us enter Lent unstained. But all of us, whether we realize it or not, long to have a deeper relationship with God. We all try to search out joy. The world tries to redirect us from the true path of joy. It pushes us to think joy is found in things, finances, power, and all activities outside of God. But when we do our own real soul searching, none of us have found it there. Every time we really found joy, we found it in Him.

We found it in the most unlikely of places. We found it in self-giving. We found it when we realized how much God loves us. We found it, when we truly communicated with Him throughout the day in just talking to Him. We found it when we, like Jesus said, lost our lives for His sake and that of what He teaches.

Like you, my most joyous times have not been when I focused on myself, but on others and God. That is when my joy radiated like it was dazzling white. Yet throughout the year I get lost in this world that tries to promote everything but what truly brings joy: God!

The season of Lent is a time to reset and allow us to refocus on how much God absolutely loves us and wants the best for us. He wants us to find what we are looking for: Him. He is right with us, and Lent can be that time we are reminded of that. This Lent, aside from the other things we are doing to prepare for His Passion and Resurrection, let us make more time just to talk to Him. He is always listening and willing to talk to us.

The start of our own personal journey from old to new starts with communicating with the one who loves us more than we can ever imagine. Just talking to Him constantly throughout the day in conversation can transfigure us. It will allow us to focus on what brings joy. I love the rote prayer, Father creator of unfailing light, give that same light to those who call to you, may our lips praise you, our lives proclaim your goodness, our works give you honor, and our voices celebrate you forever. This prayer calls us to be the shining light for Him. And in it, we can find our joy and be transfigured!

From Father George

Please, pray for our G 2 children ... who will celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the First Confession the next Sunday, March 3, 2024. in St. Martha's church. May they experience a merciful love of Jesus, the Good Shepherd and learn about forgiveness.

Last Thursday of the month Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament (February 29, 2024) Come and spend some time in quiet adoration with other parishioners. We start it after 5:30pm Mass and conclude it at 7pm. This gives us the opportunity of fulfilling the Lenten spiritual exercise of praying.

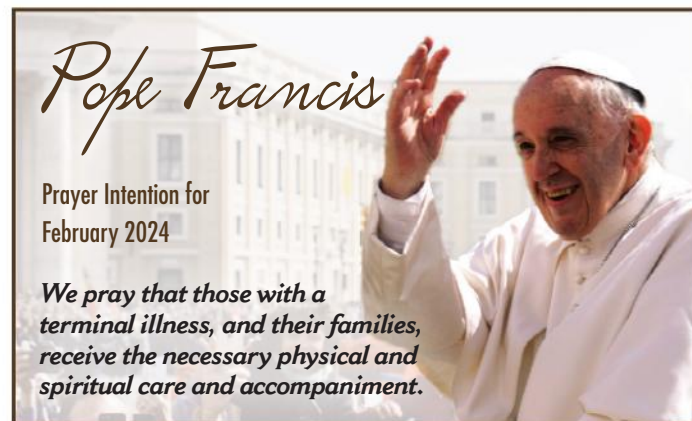

Lenten Resolutions - We are told to look again at the three main spiritual Lenten exercises: fasting, praying and almsgiving. But any other personal resolution is good because it shows that we have ambition to change, and we can show faithfulness to our promises. When we keep our word, we show that we are responsible believers, even if we manage to be faithful for one day.

Lenten Stations of the Cross - On Fridays in Lent, we will have a prayerful meditation on the Stations of the Cross after the 8:30am Mass.

The Small Groups continue through Lent and help to revive our love to Jesus who instituted the Eucharist, 2nd Session - You can join in any time in the meetings of these Groups of about 6 people, we watch the prepared material on video and with the help of the table facilitator, we share, discuss, listen and learn more about the Lord Jesus Christ and the Eucharist. The material (Video material, questions and comments) prepared by the Eucharistic Revival Committee on behalf of the US Bishops Conference will last about two hours.

Next Sunday (March 3, 2024) is the 3rd Sunday of Lent.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

Go to the poor and you will find God.
— St. Vincent dePaul • That is the Vincentian mission.

Over a million Vincentians around the world go to the poor every day. In Sarasota, members of the St. Vincent de Paul conferences at Incarnation, St. Thomas More and St. Michael's regularly meet that challenge for our neighbors.

Our Members are part of a worldwide community of Catholic faithful dedicated to spirituality, friendship, and service. It is said that no form of charity is foreign to the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Sometimes, those who need financial assistance are also seeking a listener who cares about them, offering them a sacrament of presence.

If being part of that community of Vincentians who go to the poor interests you, we invite you to join us. Call the Incarnation parish office 941.921.6631 or come to one of our meetings on the last Monday of each month at 6:30pm. Discover for yourself if being part of this ministry can provide something special to your life and to the lives of others.

The harvest is indeed great, but more laborers are needed.

Come as you are.

YOU ARE WELCOME HERE

God can write straight with crooked lines. So regardless of what has occurred in the past or is happening in your present, there is always hope.

Lisa Brenninkmeyer, Founder and Chief Purpose Officer, Walking with Purpose

If we were created for relationships, why is it so incredibly hard? Perhaps what we are looking for in others and what we expect of others can only be found in God. Married or not, join the women of Walking with Purpose as we dive into all things relationship!

As usual, the coffee will be on, the conversation fulfilling, the hope abounding, and the video, Marriage – Transformed By Grace, utterly inspiring! Never been to Walking with Purpose? Perfect! We look forward to seeing you!

Join us and see what we are all about!
