From Our Pastor, Father George

April 7, 2024 - Second Sunday of Easter / Sunday of Divine Mercy

From Deacon Bill Ladroga

Dear Parishioners of St. Martha,

West Virginia is a rugged and beautiful State. But there's also a desperate poverty among the people who live in the hills. Often the only jobs to be found are in the coal mines: a dangerous work that provides income as long as the coal lasts -- or as long as you can avoid being injured by an accident or crippled by black lung disease. When the coal runs out, the companies move on, but the people stay behind. They are like leftovers or remnants.

Among these poor, nothing is wasted or thrown out. The women save scraps of clothing in remnant bags. When you look into these bags all you would see at first glance are worthless bits of cloth, good for nothing but dusting the furniture or mopping up spills. But in the hands of gifted women, they're worked into beautiful quilts. What appears to be useless is made into treasure in the hands of the quilter. We don't have to go very far here in Sarasota either. Go the Amish/Mennonite Bahia Vista section of town and see hand-made quilts. Recall some of the prices you see on Antiques Roadshow for those quilts too!

I wonder if that's what God does with us too? Does God take each one of us and weave us all into something beautiful: his work of art known as his Church? Each of us has a particular talent (great or small) to be used for our brothers and sisters, a color, a texture if you will, that makes us unique. Some people are great at reading Scripture; some have marvelous singing voices. Some are wonderfully compassionate in bringing Communion to the sick. Some are great at being ushers, greeting strangers who come to worship here; some are great teachers of our youth.

Our talents have been given to us by God for the good of all. When we work together, we make up the mystical body of Christ. Each of us has been given a share in the working of the Holy Spirit and each of us has something to contribute to the overall fabric of wherever God has put us. Maybe our individual efforts don't seem like much to us but when added to the efforts of everyone else, we stand out in beauty together. But when we don't let our talents be used, there's a gaping hole: something missing in the fabric that makes up the body of Christ.

But how do we recognize our talents? Who is it that can help us figure out where we belong in the "quilt" of life? Someone who we sometimes forget about -- the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit has sometimes been described as the forgotten person of the Holy Trinity. It can be easy for us to pray to the Father and think of Him as Creator, Author of life, all-powerful, all-knowing. We can easily think of Jesus as the manifestation of the Father's love: our brother, our Savior, our Redeemer, especially on this Divine Mercy Sunday. The Polish saint, St. Maria Faustina Kowalska saw Jesus and recorded that He wants this feast to be "a refuge and a shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners."

But we can forget that it's the Holy Spirit that is present in the Church: leading, guiding and nurturing it. I will ask the father and he will give you another Paraclete -- to be with you always, Jesus said. It's the Holy Spirit that is present in each of us as we work together to bring our gifts to the service of one another.

Today we're reminded that the only reason we have anything to contribute at all is because the Spirit is at work in each one of us at every moment of our lives. When we work together, our full beauty shows for all to see.

You may not think that you have much to contribute, but think about one of those prize-winning quilts in made in West Virginia or the Bahia Vista Amish-Mennonite area with one of the patches missing.

From Father George

Thank you for your Easter gifts and presents! - On behalf of all priests and deacons of our parish I would like to thank everyone wholeheartedly for your love and generosity that you showed through the gifts and presents which were given to us during this time of Easter.

May God be so loving and good to you as you are to us! God bless you!

Divine Mercy Sunday (April 7) - We are going to hold the Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and the prayer of the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy at 2:30pm in our church and then the special Mass at 3pm to mark this Feast of God's mercy.

When Pope John Paul II canonized Sister Faustina on April 30, 2000, he surprised everyone by proclaiming that throughout the world the Second Sunday of Easter will receive the name Divine Mercy Sunday. He called the new feast day an invitation to Christians to face with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind will experience in the years to come. The Pope went on to declare, This is the happiest day of my life.

We ask God to raise our Dead to everlasting life! - The time of Easter is the time to pray for our Deceased. We believe that Jesus, after his death on the cross, reached the deepest abyss to call the dead and raised them to eternal life. Through his resurrection he has opened the gate of eternal life. May all the Faithful Departed rest in peace!

Fr. Chris Frost will be leaving St. Martha's parish! - The new regulations from March 2023 of the US Immigration Office have blocked Fr. Chris' application for a Green Card, consequently when his working Visa expires at the end of May 2024, he will have to leave the country. These regulations affect thousands of foreign Religious Workers of different religions and denominations from all over the world who currently work in the United States. We are planning the Thank you party for Fr. Chris on Saturday, May 18, 2024, at 6:30pm in our parish hall.

Next Sunday (April 14, 2024) is the Third Sunday of Easter

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

Pope Francis

Information for Families with Students in Catholic School

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that parents receive the responsibility of evangelizing their children and calls them the first heralds of the faith. The family is also called domestic church – the church of the home. It is so important for parents to be strong role models as active Catholics, becoming the primary catechists in the faith development of their children.

In keeping with this important role of parents, there will be two requirements to qualify for the Practicing Catholic Tuition Discount when submitting the Parish Affiliation Form.

The first requirement is 50% attendance at Sunday Mass for the year. To confirm your attendance, please place your offertory envelope in the basket during the offertory collection (an offertory contribution of at least a quarter should be included in the envelope).

The second requirement is participation in at least one parish ministry.

Please see the list (right) of qualifying ministries for parents, children, and families.
