To Love Like Christ Loved Us

From Fr. Jan:

Love is the theme of so many songs and poetry. But many times, the love in the songs and in the poetry is worldly and sensitive love so much different from the true divine love revealed to us through Jesus Christ in His life and in His Gospel.

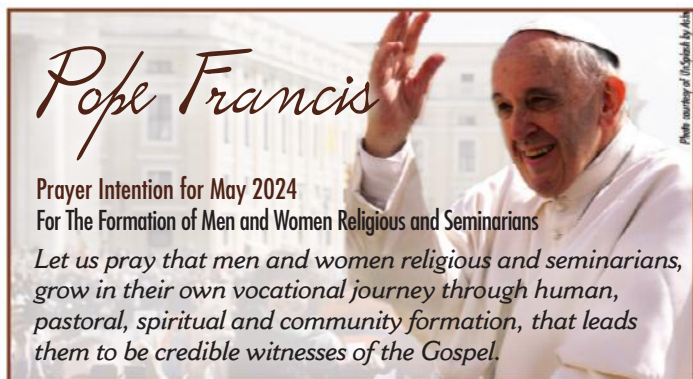

God is Love! Although the world likes the idea of God as love, the world likes to define God and love in its own ways, and separate God's love from God's truth. And the truth of God, which the second reading strongly emphasizes, is that we have walked in darkness away from God. Walking away from God is sin, and sin cannot be dealt with in some trivial way without a costly act of God – in fact, the costliest act of God: the giving of his only Son. Love is not love until it suffers, because love without suffering has not yet truly given itself. God's love is supreme because it is the supreme self-gift, which required the supreme suffering of the cross.

The Old Testament commanded us to love our neighbor as ourselves (Lev 19:18), but Jesus commands us to love each other as he loved us. This is taller order, because Jesus loved us more than we loved ourselves. He loved us to the point of suffering a shameful and painful death. He gave us the complete gift of self.

As the Father loves me, so also I love you, Jesus says. Then he commands, love one another as I love you. So, the Father's love for Jesus is the same as Jesus' love for us; and Jesus' love for us must be replicated in our love for each other. What is happening here is that the whole Church is being called to enter into the circle of divine love which is the Trinity!

How can we love like the True God? How can finite persons endure the burning flames of divine love? How can we also enter into a total gift of self? It is beyond our human capacity, yet that is the connection with what we heard in the first reading. We cannot love this way without being divinized ourselves through a participation in the divine nature (2 Pet 1:4) through the reception of the Holy Spirit. The gift of the Holy Spirit in Acts 10 makes it possible for us to live out the otherwise impossible command Jesus gives us in the Gospel.

We should be amazed at Jesus' invitation to us to enter into divine life because it is remarkable for only our religion: in Islam, the goal is to be a good slave of God – but Jesus calls us "friends." In eastern religions the goal is to annihilate the illusion of your self-existence or otherwise merge yourself back into the impersonal universal being that is ALL. But becoming the "friends" of the personal God by sharing the gift of his Self, his own Spirit, which is love? That is good news!

Prayer Intention for May 2024

Extreme Abortion Amendment Decision

VOTE NO 4 ON 4

A cruel and dangerous abortion amendment will be added to the ballot in November. Please acquaint yourself with the facts by visiting TooExtreme4FL.com, and vote NO on Amendment 4!

This amendment to the Florida constitution would allow abortion up until birth, including when the baby is capable of feeling pain, and would eliminate laws requiring parental consent and safety protocols for women. If you are concerned about this recent Florida Supreme Court decision to allow the extreme abortion amendment to appear on the ballot and are interested in doing something about it, contact Jeanne Berdeaux at Berdeaux@dioceseofvenice.org or 941.374.1068 right away.
