From Our Pastor, Father George

July 21, 2024 is the 16th Sunday in Ordinary time

From Deacon Pat:

The theme of this Sunday's readings is our collective and individual relationship with our Lord; with our Good Shepherd if you will!

In the first reading, Jeremiah tells us that the Israelite society was fragmented and had fallen away from their intimate relationship with God. They had lost their moral compass. They needed a shepherd to lead them back to a cohesive relationship with one another and more importantly with God. For our purposes, we learn that the relationship we have with God as a society and as individuals was and continues to be the most important.

The Psalm is beautiful and prophetic in the meaning of the following phrases: restful waters reminds us of our Baptism; spread the table reminds us of the Eucharist; and anoint my head reminds us of our Confirmation.

In the second reading, St. Paul acknowledges that the numerous Jewish religious regulations (derived from the Ten Commandments) were no longer needed as Christ, who gave up his life for our sins, shepherds us through the Holy Spirit which is introduced into our souls at Baptism.

In last week's Gospel, Jesus sent the Twelve on an evangelical mission. In this week's Gospel, The Twelve returned to Jesus and reported. Jesus tried to take them on a retreat. However, people clamored for Him. His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things.

The Gospel readings these two Sundays depict the Church in its nascent form. The many things are important because these things are the cultural glue that ties all Christians together in general and Catholics in particular. We are called to pass on these many things to the next generation. That is our job as Baptized Christians. In effect, we are the shepherds to our families and to our community. Our shepherding role is to teach our children to Love God and our neighbor. Once taught, the Holy Spirit, fed by Jesus in the Eucharist, guides us by knowing right from wrong or grace from sinfulness.

The questions to ask ourselves are: Do I turn to Jesus as my Good Shepherd to guide me in my daily life?; In turn, am I a good shepherd to others in my sphere of influence?

Greetings from Fr. George!

May God bless all holiday makers! -

St. Patrick's prayer: Love, blessed Trinity of three, Bound in unity, Who guides my journey. I will arise with strength of heaven, Trusting in Your light, To guide my journey, Shine before me, Lead me home. Power to guide me, might to hold me, Wisdom teach me, watching o'er me. Ear to hear me, hand to guard me, Love to conquer very fear.

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season - O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, our beloved Mother we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Next Sunday, July 28, 2024, is the 17th Sunday in Ordinary time.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

Prayer to Defeat Florida's Abortion Amendment:

Ever-living God, you give life and desire a future for all your children. Take hold of our nation, state, and community and awaken in every heart awe for the gift of life. Send your Spirit to strengthen us with wisdom and fortitude as we defend mothers and children in Florida from laws that disregard their health and safety.

Mary and Joseph trusted in you and welcomed Jesus into our broken world. God Almighty, we ask their intercession to protect the preborn and their mothers, and to guide all parents in raising their children. May they help us build a civilization of love by upholding the sacredness of life and accompanying pregnant women in need. We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Our Lady, Mother of the Family, pray for us! St. Joseph, Protector of the Unborn, pray for us!

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Church in Africa continues to grow even as it faces truly difficult challenges. It is daunting to sustain such growth and still maintain essential pastoral outreach when confronted with unemployment, inadequate healthcare, poverty and political unrest.

Due to the steady and marked growth of the Church in Africa, many still lack access to basic resources and pastoral care. The Solidarity Fund for the Church In Africa supports our brothers and sisters living in this region by providing grants to finance pastoral projects including workshops, retreats, religious education and youth ministries that engage the next generation of disciples. This is parallel with efforts to address basic human needs.

The Diocese of Venice will take up the Collection for the Solidarity Fund for the Church in Africa the weekend of July 20 and 21, 2024. The Church in Africa needs your help to build lasting foundations of missionary discipleship. Thank you for your generosity in supporting the growing Church in Africa. Please also continue to pray for our African sisters and brothers.

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration and my prayers! May God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Frank J. Dewane, Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
