From Our Pastor, Father George

August 25, 2024 is the 21st Sunday in Ordinary time

From Deacon Pat:

When I was eleven, I saw the movie Quo Vadis where God asked St. Peter: Where are you going? In the movie, St. Peter was running away from his discipleship and at this juncture, he turned back to fulfill his destiny. He chose between breaking his covenant with Christ and keeping it.

Today, we are called to renew our commitment to meaningful discipleship – a state of moving away from sinfulness and pursuing Grace.

The readings this week are about choices and the most important choice of all is to be all in as Disciples of Christ. It is a conscious choice to serve the Lord. We are called to be faithful in constantly renewing our commitment to God through a deeper understanding of the Eucharist as a true source of life. That means that we are called to strive to always choose Grace over Sin.

Let's back up a bit. When we are baptized, we are adopted into God's Holy People and the Holy Spirit is introduced into our souls. So, from this point the seed of discipleship is sown within us. The Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Jesus, nourishes the Holy Spirit within us and unites us as brothers and sisters in Christ.

You'll recall in last week's readings, St. Paul wrote: Watch carefully how you live, not as foolish persons but as wise... be filled with the Spirit... giving thanks always and for everything.

In following St. Paul's teaching, we become as His disciples, conduits for Jesus to give his Divine Love to others. Jesus gave His selfless love to all. Our calling then, is to move from selfishness to selflessness in our relationships with one another.

As St. Paul writes in this week's second reading, "be subordinate to one another out of reverence for Christ. Just as we are called, as husband and wife, to 'become one flesh', we are called to a similar union with Christ.

The Eastern Church refers to this as Theosis (being made like God), we refer to this as Divinization. Basically, it means that since God is Holy and because we are God's disciples, we are called to live our lives imitating Christ's Holiness.

How do we do that? We have the habit of praying often, praying for others wellbeing, and participating in Mass. In our prayers, we consider our interactions with others and how we contributed to their wellbeing or not.

Effective discipleship is not easy as it requires selflessness. That is why each of us needs the Eucharist. As St. Peter said You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God.

I leave you with this question: Is my discipleship meaningful?

From Father George:

Why do we have Sunday Masses in the Hall? - I know that a good number of parishioners would like to have our Masses in the church, I am with you on this. The new Heat Exchanger, a big part of the Air Conditioning system should be arriving soon and then we are also waiting for new Air Handling Unit for the church. Once these two parts are installed, the AC system will work properly, and we will be back in the church. We are also considering to get a new 20 ton AC Unit for the church only, which would replace this old system and may be more effective and reliable.

Adoration for Life - We will hold weekly adoration of the Blessed Sacrament as a prayer to defeat Florida's abortion amendment, for respect of the gift of life, for wisdom and fortitude to defend mothers and children from laws that disregard their health and safety. We start on Thursday, August 22 from 6.00pm to 7.00pm. There will be Evening Prayer of the Church and the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy during the adoration

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season - O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude. You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, our beloved Mother we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

Next Sunday, September 1, 2024, is the 22nd Sunday in Ordinary time.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

WEAKEN MEDICAL DOCTOR REQUIREMENT
