From Our Pastor, Father George

September 8, 2024 is the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary time, Mark 7: 31-37

Message From Deacon Bob:

In today's Gospel Jesus heals a deaf man with a speech impediment. He takes the man off by himself to cure him. Immediately the man can both hear and speak clearly. In our current world, how many of us need to be healed from our inability to hear God? Are we speaking clearly to God? We call speaking to God prayer. Are we able to speak clearly about God to others in public? Sadly, society now pretty much frowns on speaking about God in public whether it is the workplace, or in social (non-church) settings. It also is getting increasingly harder for us to hear God with all the things that get in our way. Because of society's influence, we begin to ignore God, as we pursue higher paying careers, more prestigious positions, obtaining fancier cars and houses, and focus on entertaining ourselves. But like the man in today's Gospel, Jesus wants to cure us as well!

To be cured of our afflictions starts with faith. As I have shared with you in the past, one of my formation students studying to be a deacon lost his son four years ago just has his five-year formation process started. One of the first-year classes is the Old Testament. His term paper and presentation was of the Book of Job. Rich obviously was struggling trying to understand why God was asking him to endure maybe the hardest thing a person could go through: losing a child. Rich took on the book of Job because he wanted to find out how Job withstood all the trials that he had to undergo. As the story of Job goes, the devil decides to test Job's faith. As such, Job loses his wealth, his station in life, his family and even his health. But it does not shake Job's faith. The devil though wants one more shot at Job, but God steps in saying that Job has been tested enough. But the devil persists in his wish to take one more shot at Job. God will only agree to allow one more test of Job's faith if Job agrees to the test. So God asks Job if he is willing to take on one more test. Job agrees on one condition. The condition is that he needs to know God is listening to him and God is talking to him. God assures him He is always listening to Job (and all of us) and always talking to him. Rich taught me and the rest of the class what is faith. The faith of Job is knowing God is always talking to us and always listening to us!

The people who witnessed the results of Jesus' miracle in the Gospel note: He has done all things well. He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak. Every one of us is searching for joy. At the same time we often we find it allusive. We think there is a hidden key for happiness in the aforementioned things. These are the same things that keep us from hearing God, speaking to God, and speaking about God. Yet the secret is right in front of us, it is faith. It is knowing God is speaking to us and knowing that God is listening to us.

The man Jesus cured was pulled away from the rest of the crowd and Jesus performed the miracle in private. Why did He do that? Most of Jesus' miracles were in public. The answer is that Jesus wants us to know that He cares for us individually. And that He understands the unique needs of each of us. What we think our needs are may not align with what God knows our needs are, but God will always attend to our needs if we are not mute and talk to Him. Similarly, if we open our eyes to what God is: Love, we soon will be aware that God never abandons us and is always with us. Even when we abandon him, we are never alone. As He is always with us. If we accept the faith of Job, we too will cure our deafness and we will no longer be mute.

From Father George:

The 7.30 Sunday Spanish Mass - Father Celestino has left for Spain for good and since there is no other Spanish speaking priest from St. Jude's assigned to continue with this Mass, we are stopping it at St. Martha's parish.

Our Rectory is being renovated.

- There may be some disturbances to the church car park in front of it. Beware of workers and some building traffic.

Be generous and wise - Our Police Officers, who provide security during the weekend Masses advise us to be wise and careful with helping the homeless persons, who come to St. Martha parish when there are many people after the Mass. We are told that they come and beg because some parishioners give them alms, yet the professionals advise us to give rather to Caritas or Salvation Army or any other charity who help the homeless all the time and in the way which is used for their good and not for drugs or alcohol.

Adoration for Life - We will hold weekly adoration of the Blessed Sacrament as a prayer to defeat Florida's abortion amendment, for respect of the gift of life, for wisdom and fortitude to defend mothers and children from laws that disregard their health and safety. The next one will be held on Thursday, September 12, from 6pm-7pm. There will be Evening Prayer of the Church and the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy during the adoration.

Next Sunday, September 15, 2024, is the 24th Sunday in Ordinary time. With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

VOTE NO ON AMENDMENT 4

Titled "Amendment to Limit Government Interference with Abortion," Amendment 4 would enshrine UNREGULATED ABORTION in our state constitution, making Florida one of the MOST PRO-ABORTION states in the nation. The amendment language is MISLEADING, and its proposed outcomes are DANGEROUS.

Please Participate Parishioner's Information Update Card

The parish is in the process of updating the parish database. Keeping current mailing addresses, phone numbers, and email addresses is very important to the cost-effective and efficient operation of the parish. Returned USPS mail and undeliverable email are very time consuming for staff to investigate and resolve.

You will be getting a letter in the mail with an Information Update Card. Please complete the card and return it to the parish office. You will also find the Information Update Card in the pews. You are welcome to complete the card and place in the offertory basket during Mass.

Thank you for promptly returning your Information Update
