From Our Pastor, Father George

September 22, 2024 is the 25th Sunday in Ordinary time

Message From Father George:

The day after the Feast of the Exultation of the Cross there was a memorial of Mary, Our Lady of Sorrows. In the context of this memorial, Pope Francis presented the faith of Mary as an example for us all to follow. He gave Mary's faith as an example, and he said that the faith of Mary had three characteristics. Her faith was characterized by three features: pilgrimage, prophecy and compassion. He said that Mary was always on the way full of simplicity and piety, always searching for God. And to be like her we need to overcome our static faith, which is happy with its customs and traditions. We should overcome our limitations and make our faith a pilgrimage of love to God and to our neighbor.

He next indicated the prophetic element of Mary's faith. We are called to be holy and immaculate in our love. We are to be the sings of contradiction in the world, the Christians who can show in our lives the beauty of the Gospel.

Lastly, Pope Francis was encouraging the faithful to nourish the attitude of compassion. Looking at Our Lady of Sorrows we open ourselves to faith which becomes compassion, which becomes the sharing of our lives with those who are wounded, who suffer and who are forced to carry heavy crosses.

Becoming like a pilgrim, prophet and kind Christian in our faith is a good answer to the Gospel invitation: "Jesus said in it: If anyone wants to be first, he must make himself last of all and servant of all." A pilgrim always looks for the best way of living for the glory of God and the benefit of other people. A prophet always tries to be holy and conquer every evil. A kind person always looks for better ways of serving the needy.

Fr. Gennadi - who came to Sarasota recently, is slowly organizing basic requirements before he begins his priestly ministry among us. He says he likes the Florida climate.

Here is an advice about donations to the homeless - Joe from the Resurrection House and Terra from Family Promise who spoke to us last weekend advise us to be wise and careful with helping the homeless persons, who come to St. Martha parish when they know that there will be many people after Mass. We are told that they come and beg because some parishioners give them alms, yet all the professionals who work with the homeless advise us to give rather to Caritas, Resurrection House, Family Promise through the collection box (Homeless Outreach).

Next Sunday, September 29, 2024, is the 26th Sunday in Ordinary time.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

Helping the Homeless

Please Help Make a Real Difference

Living in our downtown community, you certainly have seen people asking for money on our streets and on St. Martha property. Many of us wonder how we can help. Should we give these suffering people a few dollars?

The facts show that 90% of homeless people suffer from addiction and/or mental illness. Handing a homeless person cash enables the continuation of their substance abuse. Please do not give money to the homeless.

But what about our duty as Christians? Aren't we supposed to help the poor and those in need? The answer is yes, absolutely! But please do it the right way and let your donation truly do the good you intend.

You will find the Homeless Outreach donation box near the main doors of the church. Place your few dollars in this box on your way out of church. The monies collected will support these local homeless charities:

Caritas Food Pantry: A parish ministry at St. Martha. The food pantry is open Monday thru Friday and serves hundreds of families every week.

Resurrection House: Resurrection House provides a wide array of free services to the homeless including breakfast, lunch, bathrooms, showers, toiletries, laundry service, clothing, chapel, barber, health screening, medical doctor, dentist, vaccines, and legal services.

Family Promise: An organization addressing the gap in local services for pregnant mothers experiencing homelessness. Expectant mothers and their children can be housed at the Family Promise Francis House or Family Promise funding housing. Family Promise currently houses thirty-nine pregnant mothers with children.

The Homeless Outreach donation box is the way to truly help. Placing your donations in the box will make a real difference.
