From Our Pastor, Father George

November 3, 2024 is the 31st Sunday in Ordinary time

Sunday Sermon Deacon Pat:

The Scripture theme is to reflect on the two commands: love of God and love of neighbor. These two commandments go hand in hand. From a Ten Commandments perspective, love of God summarizes the first three and love of neighbor summarizes the last seven.

It is interesting that the Gospel quotes Deuteronomy, the climactic book of the Pentateuch in the Old Testament: Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. Jesus adds: The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

“You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”

– Matthew 22:39

My brothers and sisters! This is our call! We are to always heed the Holy Spirit, alive in our souls, from the day of our Baptism, to impel us to act in a manner that conforms our souls to these two relationships.

The Responsorial Psalm states: I love you, Lord, with all my strength. We all know that exercise builds strength and lack of it weakens strength. So, how do we strengthen our Love – both of God and neighbor? The answer is: the exercise of effective prayer.

To strengthen our love of God, we must pray. In our morning prayer, we invite God into our lives when we plan our day. We invite God into our lives when we say Grace before every meal. In our evening prayer, we invite God into our lives when we reflect on our day and ponder how we can improve. During the day, we might have micro prayers, where we invite God to guide us through the Holy Spirit as we confront an issue or meet a person.

Because God is love, we are called to share God’s love with one another in each of our relationships – be they personal or professional. This is The Golden Rule! Stated another way, it is the principle of treating others as one would want to be treated by them. I liken this to being on a rowing team where the crew are rowing all in one direction. While this occurs, everything is synchronized, and everyone is happy. However, when one or more persons disrupt the tempo through jealousy or envy or something else – the balance is broken, and unhappiness ensues. Nobody seeks unhappiness. So, correction is necessary when this occurs.

You and I are blessed to be Christians because we have Jesus as our High Priest – our Divine Intercessor - who, as Catholics, allows us to come to Him and seek reconciliation when we have, through our own failures, failed to love God or our neighbor. He is our Redeemer and gives each of us solace and courage as we restore relationships where we have failed to love Him or our neighbor.

I end this with the questions: Am I in a meaningful, prayerful relationship with God? Am I reflecting God’s love in my relationships with my neighbors?

The Solemnity of All Saints Day - on November 1, we celebrated the glory of the Triumphant Church. We praised God for his holiness and perfection as we honored All those who have been beatified and canonized.

November 2 - Memorial of the Faithful Departed was the day to remember the Penitential Church and to pray that the purgatory purification will lead our Dead to heaven. We, the Pilgrim Church should be praying for others, follow their holy lives and try to reach the kingdom.

Virginia Bray, the Parish Music Director, retires - After having served 40 years as Music Director in St. Martha parish, Gini will retire at the end of this year. She started her ministry in 1984 even before Fr. Fausto became the Pastor in St. Martha. We thank Gini for playing organ and piano at our Sunday Masses, Solemnities and Feasts, Weddings and Funerals. We are grateful to her long and faithful service to the parish, for her professional approach to music and liturgical celebrations, for spending many hours rehearsing and preparing with Cantors and Choir members, for making sure that all our Masses are covered with music and singing. We thank her for her commitment and dedication to her work. Let’s pray that God Almighty will reward her for her love of church music and liturgy.

Next Sunday, November 10, 2024, is the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary time.

With prayers for God’s blessing to you and your family,
Father George
