Sermon for the Third Sunday of Advent from Fr Gennadi:

I admire how clear and simple is the teaching of John in today's Gospel! Whoever has too much should share with the person who has none; whoever holds any service should not abuse others; whoever is a soldier should be humane in his profession and should not mistreat anyone. What more can be added to this exhortation? John spoke not only to the listeners of his time; he also speaks to us today. What has changed since John's time? If St. John the Baptist stood among us today, would he not repeat the same words? And we constantly ask, What must we do? and we await some extraordinary advice and instructions. What more do we need for an honest life than to implement John's simple and clear words?

What should we do? This is sometimes a difficult question because it opens up the prospect of transformation. It is a sign of readiness to accept a new path, to embrace God's truth. I have asked myself this question many times in my life. What should I do when I chose the path of life? What should I do when I decided to abandon my previous plans and enter the seminary? What should I do when I was faced with the reality of caring for my sick mother? What should I do when I made the decision to leave my hometown and come to the USA? And many, many more.

Today we can ask ourselves, What should we do? to experience Christmas joyfully. Years ago, my family invited a family of friends from Lithuania to join us for Christmas. We prepared Christmas Eve and the entire holiday in the spirit of beautiful Polish traditions. We shared the opłatek, and to a large extent, we experienced this holiday in the spirit of faith. There was no alcohol. When our friends were leaving, they said they had never had such a beautiful holiday in their lives; it felt different, above all, divine. Or consider another example: my friend, the director of a vocational school, takes orphaned children from the school where he works, as well as children from dysfunctional families, into his home for Christmas Eve, to show them a real Christmas - one that they have probably never experienced in their own families. Drunkenness in families, broken homes, and deprivation of parental rights - all of these create great sadness and prevent true joy.

What should we do? We can reach out to others in love, especially the unfortunate and the rejected. We can speak words of compassion and healing. We can bring a little light and warmth into the lives of others. All of these actions and more are within our reach. Doing these things the way Christ would do them if he were in our place will indeed make this holiday beautiful. The streets are beautifully lit during Advent. But to make our world a little brighter, other lights are needed. These lights shine wherever lives are transformed, where someone starts anew, and where someone shares with others.

3rd candle in the Advent Wreath:

Symbolizes Mary, the Mother of Jesus, who longed for Jesus with love beyond all telling. Let's rejoice in the Lord with Mary as the Lord is near indeed. After the feast of the Immaculate Conception, Our Lady of Loreto and then Our Lady of Guadalupe we feel the closeness of Mary to us, we sense her motherly care and her joy from the coming of her son.

Rebirth of the parish rectory: I am sure that many of you have noticed that the work is being carried out in our rectory. They began in September, and I am glad to see that after removal and clearing of old walls, ceilings and floors now the Air Condition's pipes/ducts are being installed. In this renovation work of the rectory, after the demolition part we see now the construction part – quite right for this time of Advent and Christmas. God bless the workers!

Jubilee Year 2025: The great tradition of opening the Holy Door will begin when Pope Francis opens the Holy Door of St. Peter's Basilica on December 24, 2024. Other holy doors will be opened at the Rome basilicas of St. John Lateran, St. Mary Major and St. Paul Outside the Walls. For pilgrims who cannot travel to Rome, bishops around the world are expected to designate their cathedrals or a popular Catholic shrine as special places of prayer for Holy Year pilgrims, offering opportunities for reconciliation, indulgences and other events intended to strengthen and revive faith.

Next Sunday, December 22, 2024, is the Fourth Sunday of Advent.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

Pope Francis
