May God bless you all in this New Jubilee Year of 2025!

Sunday Sermon for the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

Why do we like to watch TV soap operas or the same movies again and again? It's because they tell us continuous stories about people and their relationships, their successes and their faults. The stories about people like us, which last long time, some soaps have been played on TV for many, many years, the characters grow and develop in years together with viewers. We watch them to see an update or maybe the end of story. We are curious to see how the story ends.

The Feast of the Holy Family is an extension of Christmas. Bethlehem created the Holy Family but it didn't finish it. The story continues: presentation in the Jerusalem Temple, quick escape into Egypt, life in exile, cruel Herod and massacre of the Holy Innocents in Bethlehem, a return to Nazareth, and a quiet life in Galilee from which the only event we hear about is the 12 year old Jesus in the Temple discussing things with teachers and biblical scholars. Next Sunday we will remember the three magi and the Epiphany of the Lord, the next to be celebrated is the Baptism of the Lord in Jordan river, something that took place when Jesus was about 30 years old but something that elaborates the Christmas story. In the liturgy Christmastide lasts for a long time, yet we strip our Christmas trees, take down Christmas decorations, and stop singing Christmas carols too fast.

“The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. They lived in a land of shadows, but now light is shining on them.”

– Is. 9:1

The Feast of the Holy Family speaks to us with the message: Let the Christmas last, let the story of Jesus, Mary and Joseph last, follow the lives of the members of the Holy Family, see the end of story and draw the wisdom from it.

Don't dismantle the crib too quickly. Learn about Jesus, learn about Mary, learn about Joseph, get to know them, love them, they are our family.

Prophet Isaiah said about the coming of the Messiah: The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light. They lived in a land of shadows, but now light is shining on them. (Is. 9:1) and yet so many years after the Bethlehem Night, the number of people who live in the land of shadows, live in a darkness that doesn't decrease. They are the one on whose heads bombs are flying, the ones who are forced to escape their homes into uncertainty, they are the ones who receive another dose of chemotherapy, they recover from stroke or from heart attack. They are the ones who recently walked with their deceased to the grave but also the ones whose hearts are empty or whose hearts are in darkness keeping them away from the light of grace. May the Light shine on their lives and may their hearts be filled with hope and joy. Let's become to all those people like angels proclaiming the Good News about the Light to the shepherds. The story of the Holy Family will continue to be valid as long as there are human families in need, human families of believers, and human families in love with God.

January 1, 2025, The Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God is the Holy Day of Obligation - The Mass schedule for this is: 5:30pm on Tuesday, December 31, 2024 and then 7:30am, 9am, 10:30am, 12pm, 12pm (Vietnamese in the Hall) and 5:30pm.

Jubilee Year 2025 - These are the things to do in the Jubilee Year: Go to Reconciliation, Read the Jubilee Document Spes Non Confudit, Make a pilgrimage, Visit your Cathedral, Pray the Jubilee Prayer, Perform works of mercy, Review the resources, Practice Hope.

Next Sunday, January 5, 2025, is the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

A Message from
BISHOP DEWANE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
The Diocese of Venice is blessed with dedicated Priests and Religious, and together we pray the Lord to continue to send holy workers into His vineyard. The Diocese is further blessed with vocations, evidenced by the 17 seminarians presently in formation for the Diocese of Venice. With this letter, I kindly invite you to support the educational and formational dimensions of our future priests.

The funds received from the Annual Seminary Collection are used to assist the Diocese's seminarians with the cost of tuition, room and board, health care, transportation, and other expenses. Funding from the Collection also helps in the recruitment of committed young men who may have potential vocations and wish to discern that call.

Parishes in the Diocese of Venice will conduct this annual collection for Seminary Support the weekend of January 4 and 5, 2025. Thank you for your continuing support for the Seminary Formation and discernment of Diocesan Seminarians, and for your prayers for vocations to the Priesthood and Religious Life.

I take this opportunity to extend to each of you my blessings in this New Year. Thank you and may God bless you and your family for the support of our seminarians.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Frank J. Dewane, Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Are you 70 1/2 years old and have a retirement account?

The Federal Tax allows donors to give directly from their retirement account to a charity while avoiding the usual tax associated with IRA and 401K withdraws and the IRS does not count the transfer as income for federal tax purposes. Plus, qualified contributions may be counted toward the Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) which are mandatory starting at age 72 but can begin at age 70 1/2

Donating via your retirement account is a simple process. Please contact Samantha McDonald in the Parish Office at 941.366.4210 or smcdonald@smartha.org

Information for Families with Students in Catholic School

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that parents receive the responsibility of evangelizing their children and calls them the first heralds of the faith. The family is also called domestic church – the church of the home. It is so important for parents to be strong role models as active Catholics, becoming the primary catechists in the faith development of their children.

In keeping with this important role of parents, there will be two requirements to qualify for the Practicing Catholic Tuition Discount when submitting the Parish Affiliation Form.

The first requirement is 50% attendance at Sunday Mass for the year. To confirm your attendance, please place your offertory envelope in the basket during the offertory collection (an offertory contribution of at least a quarter should be included in the envelope).

The second requirement is participation in at least one parish ministry.

Please see the list (right) of qualifying ministries for parents, children, and families.

Ministries for Children
Altar Server Assigned to serve at a Saturday Vigil Mass or Sunday Mass (training program provided)
Frequency at least once a month.

Ministries for Families
Greeters & Offertory Gift Bearers Before Mass, greet and welcome parishioners/visitors at the main entrance of the church, and during Mass bring offertory gifts to the altar.
Frequency once a month.

Family Ministry
Parents and children serve coffee and donuts to parishioners on Sunday morning for a ninety-minute shift between 7am & 1pm.
Frequency once a month.

To enroll in a ministry, please contact our Volunteer Coordinator Stuart Love at volunteer@stmartha.org or 941.780.7834

Do You Take RMDs From Your IRA?

Did you know that you can make a donation directly to St. Martha from your IRA? This qualified charitable distribution (QCD) can satisfy all or part of your Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) and reduce your taxable income! Contact your IRA account administrator to request a QCD from your IRA.

Charity: St. Martha, 200 N. Orange Ave, Sarasota, FL 34236 (EIN#: 59-0737906)

Donations from your IRA must be dispersed directly to a charity, like St. Martha, to qualify for the tax benefits! It can be designated for offertory, debt reduction, capital projects, CFA, tuition, or building our endowment funds. To inform us of how you would like your gift directed, please contact our Parish office at (941) 366-4210.

To learn more about QCDs, please scan the QR Code to the right, visit ccfdiocesefvenice.org/giving/ira-charitable-rollover/ or call the Catholic Community Foundation at: (941) 441-1124.
