Sermon for the Third Sunday in Ordinary time by Father Gennadi

Today is the Sunday of the Word of God. Today, we pay special attention to the Bible. The Church reminds us that we need to grow in our knowledge and love of the Holy Scriptures, as well as of the Risen Lord, who continues to speak his Word and break bread in the community of believers.

We can reflect with admiration on the content of today's first reading from the Book of Nehemiah. It concerns the events of 445 BCE. The Jews returned from exile and began to organize their lives. They rebuilt the walls of Jerusalem and took a census of the population. However, the central event was the public reading of the Law. The people listened from morning to noon. They listened with respect, standing. This is an attitude of readiness to accept and fulfill the Word of God. They listened with joy, as evidenced by their tears of joy. After many years, the Jews were once again able to be together and build a life based on God's Law. The Jews knew that it was necessary to know it, because only then it can be loved. In this biblical description, we see great respect for the Word of God. Let us once again pay attention to how important it was to read, listen, explain, and understand the Law and accept it with love. Let us ask ourselves, what does the Word of God mean for us?

I would like to share with you my experience of how I discovered the beauty of the Gospel in my life. It happened thirty years ago, in 1995. I was a first-year student at the Agricultural Institute. On Sunday, I went to Mass at the Grodno Cathedral. I went to confession before Mass, and as penance, I was given the Gospel according to Saint Luke to read. After Mass, I stopped at the shop at the cathedral to see if they had the Holy Bible for sale, because I did not have my own. It was after the collapse of the Soviet Union, and there was already some religious literature. Yes, the Bible was available, but unfortunately, I could not afford to buy it. It was the 90s, a pretty difficult time, and there was a lot of poverty. I remember very well what I did: I checked the money I had in my pocket. I had saved up for a ticket home, and with the rest, I bought the New Testament. I couldn't afford the whole Bible, and I didn't even have money left for food. So, I started reading the New Testament; I read not only the Gospel according to Saint Luke but the entire New Testament. Then I began to read it over and over. I read the Bible in the hostel, traveling by train or bus; I read at home, took it with me on trips, and read on my knees, I learned some passages by heart. This Bible became special and favorite for me, because the Word of God changed my life. I covered my Bible to protect it from damage. I still have it today, in my family home — my favorite Bible in Polish. In 2023, during Christmas, I read a passage from this Bible about the Birth of Jesus with tears in my eyes, in an empty family home, without family and without loved ones, because I lost everyone. With God's Word I hoped to start new path of my vocation. Of course, during my studies at the seminary, I deepened my knowledge of the Word of God; I also read the Bible in English — the Contemporary English Version. Today, I read the Word of God every day as a priest.

On this Sunday of the Word of God, let us recall the basic truth: by reading the Bible, we hope that the Word of God will move our indifference, evoke tears of conversion, free us from fear, and lead us to the joy of resurrection. Let us repeat after the psalmist: Your words, O Lord, are spirit and life.

Sunday of the Word of God – January 26, 2025 - Special day dedicated to the word of God helps us to learn how to listen to God speaking to us. God speaks to us through the Scriptures. Listening/reading is essential and not so easy, there are so many of us who speak well and a lot. Let's learn to listen in the same way, if we speak well and a lot this means that we can also learn to listen well and a lot. Listening allows us to absorb the word and let it live its own life in us.

Last Thursday of the month Adoration – Jan. 30, 2025 - I invite you to come to St. Martha Church and in silence adore the Lord Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament from 6.00pm to 7.00pm. We revive our faith in the Lord present in the Blessed Sacrament and pray for hope in this Jubilee Year.

Jubilee Pilgrimage Sites in the Diocese of Venice - Epiphany Cathedral, 350 Tampa Avenue W., Venice, St. John XXIII Parish Church, 13060 Palomino Ln., Ft. Myers, St. John the Evangelist Parish Church – 625 111th Avenue N. Naples, St. Paul Parish Church, 1330 East Oak St., Arcadia, Our Lady of Perpetual Help Retreat Center, 3989 South Moon Der., Venice. The Apostolic Penitentiary's Decree on the Granting of the Indulgence during the Ordinary Jubilee Year 2025 indicates that the Faithful may obtain the Jubilee Indulgence if they undertake a pious pilgrimage to a Jubilee Site (typical requirements to obtain an indulgence are that the person be detached from sin, repentant, receive the Sacrament of Penance and Holy Communion, and pray for the intentions of the Holy Father).

Parish Mission in St. Martha, February, 23-26, 2025 - We will host Fr. Peter Hill for a few days in February. Please make your plan for this Parish Mission in the Jubilee Year of 2025 as a step towards reconciliation with God Almighty and your neighbors so you can receive a Jubilee Pardon, which could be offered for the eternal salvation of your Deceased

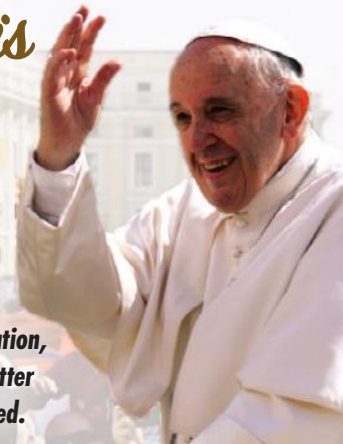

Next Sunday, February 2, 2025, is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

Give the Gift of Education!

You will find scholarship envelopes in the pews.

Today's young people are bombarded by influences of the secular world.
The challenges facing parents today are immense, and Catholic education is more important now than ever.

Catholic schools continue to be a pillar of strength for young people through daily exposure to the Catholic faith, academic excellence, and great role models. Catholic education helps parents develop young people prepared to overcome the obstacles they face in our messy world.

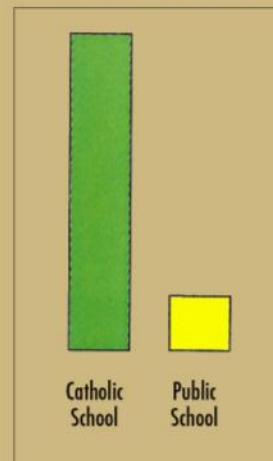

It's a common response of former students who claim that Catholic education was second only to parental influence in development of faith and moral values.

Please know that no gift is too small.
Any contribution you make, combined with those of other parishioners, becomes a substantial amount and assures the ability of St. Martha to provide Catholic education to our young people.
Your support can truly make a difference. Give the gift of education!

Five reasons to support Catholic education for the children of St. Martha Parish.

1. Strong faith and moral foundations.
2. Academic excellence.
3. Great role models.
4. Sacramental preparation and daily exposure to the Catholic faith.
5. Instilling the value of service to others.

Mass Attendance

This chart illustrates the impact of Catholic education has in faith development.

Millennials that attended Catholic school are almost eight times more likely to attend Mass weekly than those that attended public school.
