Sermon for the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time by Father George

This was a clever and interesting way of encouraging the apostles Jesus chose to catch men. He inspired them with His own example and by inviting them to work with Him. Jesus found a good way to communicate with the crowd of people. He got into Peter's boat and asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. He spoke to the crowd, and His voice, carried by the smooth surface of water, reached the people with His teaching.

He spoke to the crowd from Peter's boat. He showed Peter with Andrew and James with John how to help people come closer to God. Jesus taught the crowd, but He also taught His future apostles that the people needed teaching and were hungry for the word of God.

Then we heard about the miraculous catch of fish under the instructions from Jesus. Peter told Jesus that the night catch of fish was unsuccessful but followed the instructions and put out the net on deeper water. At the Lord's order, they caught a great number of fish, which was to symbolize a great catch of men for Jesus by His future apostles.

“ Lets not fear,
God leads us there kindly.”
- Father George

This also made them realize that whoever works with Jesus and follows His instructions could achieve great results.

Pope Francis proposes for this Jubilee Year of 2025 that we, the believers, also become the pilgrims of hope. Pilgrims of hope are people who hope that prayers to God are answered. Pilgrims of hope follow Jesus who has a sign of victory in His hand, which is the cross. When you look at the Vatican logo for this Jubilee Year of 2025 you will see the cross in the hand of Jesus which then, at the bottom of its vertical line, becomes an anchor like a boat anchor which sailors throw into the water to stop the boat and to secure it. The pilgrims of hope are to be anchored in the cross of Christ, like a boat is anchored in the bottom of the sea and stays secure. Those anchored in the cross of Jesus are the ones who listen to the teaching of Christ and who teach others about Christ.

Pilgrims of hope are the people on the go, not necessarily physically, although physical pilgrimage helps to move spiritually. Pilgrims of hope turn away from despair of sin, walk through the gate of God's mercy and find hope. Jesus called His disciples to spread the Gospel of hope to the world, but He calls each one of us, baptized believers, to live in hope. His apostles went to the world on their pilgrimages of life, but we all learn from them the confidence of the Lord's presence with us and His encouragement. He went through His mission also confident of His Father's love and His Father's blessing for the success of His mission. The Church, which is confident in the presence of the Holy Spirit, walks through the holy gates of God's mercy and spreads hope to the world. It believes in God's blessing and in the final victory of the word it preaches. Let's go and movr in this Jubilee Year from despair of sin through the change of heart and penance to live in faith, hope and love. Let's not fear; God leads us there kindly.

Scholarship Event 2025

A parish gathering was held on January 29 at the Crab & Fin Restaurant to discuss Catholic education. Parishioners heard from Ben Hopper, Principal of Cardinal Mooney High School; Rebecca Reynolds, Principal of St. Mary Academy; and two Mooney sophomores. Enrollments are at record levels in our Catholic schools as more families seek faith-based education. The schools are working to expand to meet the increased demand. Parishioners are asked to support the school expansion projects and to fund scholarships for families in need. If you are interested in getting details on support Catholic education, please contact the parish office.
