Today's Sermon from Deacon Pat

Today's readings are about the Kingdom of God and our participation in it. Please understand that God's kingdom is not recognizable in human terms but truly exists in a cosmic sense.

Picking key points from these readings we see that:

- The Psalm describes the kingdom of God as a kingdom for all ages. It is everlasting and we are called to glorify God within it.
- The Revelation reading inspires hope and anticipation for God's final victory, where His presence brings eternal peace and renewal to creation.
- The passage from Acts encourages us to remain faithful amid challenges, support Church leadership, and trust in God's work in spreading the Gospel.
- The Gospel passage encourages us to embody Christ's sacrificial love, a love which glorifies God and testifies to the world.
- The Alleluia refrain calls upon us to love selflessly.

Let's explore the meaning of this selfless love!

As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another Initially, when we see or hear this sentence, we immediately think of the human love in terms of the Ten Commandments. Not so! It is not fraternal love. It is not sexual love. It is divine love or Agape!

So, what is this divine love and how does it contrast to human love?

It is the love that God possesses and expresses towards all human beings. It is often described as unconditional, perfect, infinite, and universal. This is perceived as a fundamental aspect of the divine nature and often contrasted with human love, which can be conditional, limited, and subject to change.

Jesus expressed this selfless, divine love, when he allowed himself to be sacrificed in order to redeem each and every one of us. His love for each of us is far more intimate! By using the word as in His admonition, He calls upon each of us to achieve this higher love - this Divine Love.

But, how? Each of us is handicapped by our own humanity. However, those of us who are Baptized are blessed by having the Holy Spirit dwelling within our souls. It is through our cooperation with this divine indwelling that our lives have true meaning!

Our Pastor, Father George

From Father George:

God bless Pope Leo XIV! - Parishioners say that they never thought that during their time there will be an American Pope in the Catholic Church. And there we have Cardinal Robert Prevost, born in Chicago, elected on May 8, 2025, by the Cardinals as the Head of the Church on earth. His inauguration Mass will be celebrated on Sunday, May 18, 2025.

Congratulations - to all the young students of our parish or from other parishes who attend Bishop Nevin's Academy that received their First Communion at St. Martha's Parish on May 3rd & 10th, 2025! May the Lord Jesus fill their hearts with His grace and love! Thanks to all who helped them to prepare for this special day!

May Devotion - We will pray the Litany to Our Lady after weekday Masses during the month of May for the Church, for the conversion of sinners, for peace in the world and for our own intentions..

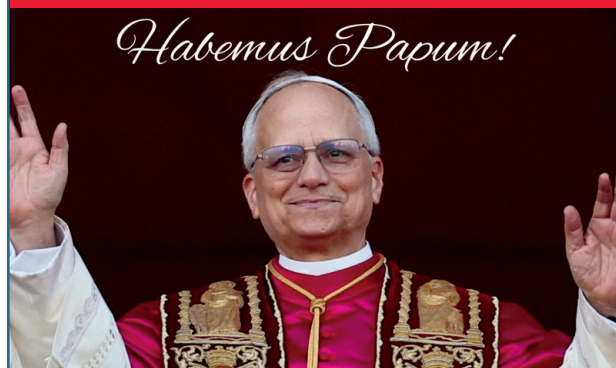

Next Sunday, May 25, 2025, is the Sixth Sunday of Easter.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

Our blessed Mother Mary always wants to walk with us, be close to us, she always wants to help us with her intercession and her love. So let us pray together for this mission, and for all of the church and for peace in the world. We ask for this special grace from Mary, our mother.

— Pope Leo XIV

Welcome Pope Leo XIV!

The selection of Pope Leo XIV as the Successor of St. Peter is truly a work of the Holy Spirit, and a moment of tremendous grace and blessing! The Cardinal-electors have responded to divine inspiration and the devout prayers offered by the faithful throughout the world.

The selection of the 267th Pope is a moment of great historic significance for the Catholic Church, and especially members of the Church in the United States and here in the Diocese of Venice, being the first Holy Father from the United States. As Catholics we are each being asked by this humble servant of the Lord to be peacemakers, and to prayerfully grow in our love for Christ and one another. Pope Leo XIV brings with him the strength and charisma of St. Augustine, and the humanity and courage of Pope Leo XIII, who was an architect of many of the social teachings of the Church.

I ask that all the faithful of the Diocese of Venice join me in prayer for Pope Leo XIV and the sacred ministry entrusted to him. May God bless and guide Pope Leo XIV, the servant of servants.

+ Frank J. Dewane, Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

Helping the Homeless Be Housed

Please Help Make a Real Difference

Many of us wonder how we can help. Should we give a few dollars to those suffering? 90% of our homeless suffer from addiction and/or mental illness. Giving cash enables the continuation of the homeless lifestyle.

But what about our duty as Christians to help the poor and needy?

Aren't we supposed to help? YES, absolutely! But please let your donation truly do the good you intend. The church collects money to support our local homeless charities. The Homeless Outreach donation box is located near the main doors of the church. The monies collected go to:

Caritas Food Pantry: A parish ministry at St. Martha. The food pantry is open Monday-Friday and serves hundreds of families every week.

Resurrection House: Provides many free services to the homeless including breakfast, lunch, bathrooms, showers, toiletries, laundry service, clothing, chapel, barber, health screening, medical doctor, dentist, vaccines, and legal services.

Family Promise: An organization addressing the gap in local services for pregnant mothers experiencing homelessness. Expectant mothers and their children can be housed at the Family Promise Francis House or Family Promise funding housing. Family Promise currently houses 39 pregnant mothers with children.

The Homeless Outreach donation box is the way to truly help. Placing your donations in the box will make a real difference.

EVANGELIZATION AND RETREAT CENTERS

Celebrating

The Office of Evangelization reaches out with programs and ministries to Parishes, schools, homes, workplaces, prisons and the larger community. Opportunities to experience the fullness of the Catholic faith are provided so as to draw every person to the Lord. This is accomplished through conferences, retreats, Bible studies, prison ministry, Eucharistic Congresses and other vital initiatives to strengthen the faith throughout the Diocese.

The Office of Youth and Young Adult Outreach coordinates events like the Annual Youth Rally, as well as ongoing Theology on Tap for youth and young adults to deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ. The younger generations face numerous challenges in our society. These programs endeavor to illuminate spiritual growth and highlight our faith tradition.

The Office of Marriage and Family Life exists to promote and strengthen families to carry out God's plan allowing the basic unit of society to grow together in holiness and raise children in the Catholic Faith. Engaged couples are formed for sacramental marriage, and married couples are empowered to become active witnesses and supporters of family life.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help and Campo San Jose Retreat Centers provide an ambiance to inspire a deep personal relationship with the Lord. By removing the distractions and noise of everyday life, one can more clearly listen to the Lord.

A Message from
BISHOP DEWANE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) offers a unique way to help our neighbors, and people across the country, connect with Christ. Know that half the funds raised by the CCC support the collective communication programs of the Conference of Catholic Bishops of the United States, and the other half stays here in the Diocese of Venice.

The Catholic Communication Campaign supports the catholic media through the Catholic News Service Network's broadcasts of worldwide events that allow us to behold the joy and unity of our faith. During this Jubilee year, they will also be able to share the stories of the millions of Catholics who will travel to Rome as Pilgrims of Hope and be witness of our faith to others. At home, in the Diocese of Venice, this campaign partially funds TV Masses to the homebound who are unable to attend the Holy Mass, as well as the Witnessing Faith with Bishop Dewane radio show, and various social media channels.

The collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign allows us to tell both the world and our neighbors about our experience of faith, worship, and witness. Please support this important work in the upcoming collection which will take place on the weekend of May 31 and June 1, 2025, in the Diocese of Venice. Thank you for your generosity!

I take this opportunity to extend to you my continued consideration and my prayers.

Have a Blessed Holy Week! Sincerely yours in Christ,
+ Frank J. Dewane, Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
