The 23rd Sunday of Ordinary Time, Luke 14: 25-33

by Deacon Bob

Today's Gospel offers us a couple of conditions of discipleship. And like many of the previous week's Gospel's at first glance, Our Lord may seem to be quite harsh. If we get that impression, Jesus' message was lost in translation. To fully understand His message in 2025 we must set the table and understand the idioms and communication style of the time of Christ.

When Jesus says hate, He is not talking about the way Ohio State football hates Michigan football and vice versa, or how those in my generation who liked classic rock hated disco and vice versa. Rather, Jesus' term of hate was a Jewish idiom that used hyperbole to indicate preference. It was the culture of the day. An example would be in today's world, my wife hates watching reruns of the TV show Friends and watches the Hallmark Channel. Using the Jewish idiom of the day, what the last sentence said was that if she had the choice of Hallmark or Friends, she would pick Hallmark over Friends. (Much to my chagrin!)

So when Jesus says we must hate our family to follow Him, He is not saying stop loving our family. What He is saying is, if what our family wants is pulling us away from the teaching of Our Lord Jesus Christ, we must stay with the teachings of Our Lord.

In the second condition of discipleship, Jesus calls us to be willing to pick up and carry our cross. He is not telling us we must be excited about it, just that we must be willing to pick it up. As we know from Jesus in the Garden, He was not excited about what was to come. Rather, He was one hundred percent committed, determined, and accepting of His mission: because He loved (and loves) us so much.

The best example outside of Our Lord Himself who exemplified these conditions of discipleship was His Mom: our Blessed Mom. During the Passion and at Calvary, she lived those conditions of discipleship like no other person. Her only son was being sent to be crucified. But she loved Him and us so much she did not interfere. She knew Jesus would obey His mom, because of the Wedding Feast at Cana. Yet she did not try to contradict His purpose for the well being of her immediate needs or family. Not only that but she accompanied Him along His way to comfort Him during His Passion. She was along the road while people jeered, spit, mocked, and tortured Him. And she sat at the foot of His cross as He was crucified. She never once thought of herself, just His mission for us and how she could help Him help us. She put Our Lord's wants and needs over her own and picked up her own cross that Good Friday.

Jesus is asking us to do the same. Our Blessed Mom has also given us the perfect example of what a disciple is and what Jesus taught us today. There is no conceivable way we can reciprocate the love Jesus has for us to Him. But we can always do our best to put Him first. To do unto others as we would have done unto ourselves. To accept the difficulties that come with praising Him, proclaiming His goodness with our actions, honoring Him with our deeds, and celebrating Him with our words to everyone we encounter. As Jesus says elsewhere in the Bible, whatever you do to the least of my brothers, that you do unto me. If we listen to Him and follow the example of His (and Our) Blessed Mom, we will be what our God, who has love beyond all telling for us, wants us to be! We will be His disciples.

Our Pastor, Father George

From Father George:

Father Jan Rykala is leaving St. Martha Parish -

Father Jan came to St. Martha in 2017 after Father Sebastian Szczawinski left the parish. When Father Jan came here, he initially worked with Fathers Fausto, Patrick, Wojciech, and John. Through different personnel changes he continued his priestly ministry for the last eight years. When we were told to move out from our Rectory in March 2022, he went to stay in Incarnation Parish where he still resides and from where he commutes daily to St. Martha. On my behalf, and on behalf of the parish, I thank Father Jan for his hard work in preaching the word of God, in celebrating the sacraments of the Church in Schools, in Hospitals and Jail ministry, as well as his Biblical apostolate. May God bless him in his new assignment. He will be leaving St. Martha at the end of this month.

The Farewell Reception - in honor of Father Jan will be held in the parish hall on Tuesday, September 23, 2025, at 6pm.

Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary - (Tuesday, September 8). This 5th century feast marks the anniversary of the dedication of a basilica in Jerusalem built, according to tradition, on the location of the home of St. Anne, the mother of Mary.

September 11 - We remember the tragic events of September 11, 2001, in New York, and we pay honor to all firefighters, police officers, and emergency medical technicians who serve the local community as well as to remember those who have died this past year.

Next Sunday, September 14, 2025, is the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family, Father George

“Jesus calls us to be willing to pick up and carry our cross.”

His Holiness Pope Leo XIV

Prayer Intention for September 2025
For our relationship with all of creation

Let us pray that, inspired by Saint Francis,
we might experience our interdependence with all creatures who are loved by God and worthy of love and respect.

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us.

Amen.

Composed by Most Rev. Maurice Schexnayder (1895-1981), Second Bishop of Lafayette (1956-1973), following Hurricane Audrey in 1957

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C., is the national University of the Catholic Church in the United States. The University community works tirelessly to educate over 5,700 students in more than 250 academic programs throughout the year which will prepare them to serve as Catholic leaders of the Church and nation.

The research and training initiatives of the University support dioceses and parishes in addressing the most pressing needs of future Catholic leaders, both religious and lay, who are being formed by an exceptional, faith-rooted education. The Catholic Project initiative brings together clergy and laity to address the challenges that the Catholic Church faces in the U.S.

The Diocese of Venice will take up a collection for the Catholic University of America the weekend of September 6 and 7, 2025. Your contribution helps the University to educate thousands of young people in both faith and reason, while upholding the highest standards of education. May God Bless you for your generosity!

This opportunity is taken to extend to you the assurances of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers for you and your family.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane, Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida
