The Exaltation of the Cross

by Deacon Pat

On Good Friday, the veiled cross is processed into the Church with three stops. At each of these stops, when the veil is proportionately removed, the Deacon intones Behold, behold the wood of the Cross on which is hung our Salvation. In St. Martha, we respond: Come let us adore!

In this feast of the Exaltation of the Cross, we are called to remember the importance of Jesus' Cross in our spiritual lives. Pope Benedict XVI, in his homily in Lourdes on September 14, 2008, describes the Cross' vital essence with these words: On this day when the Church's liturgy celebrates the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, the Gospel you have just heard reminds us of the meaning of this great mystery: God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, so that men might be saved. The Son of God became vulnerable, assuming the condition of a slave, obedient even to death, death on a cross. By His Cross we are saved. The instrument of torture which, on Good Friday, manifested God's judgment on the world, has become a source of life, pardon, mercy, a sign of reconciliation and peace. 'In order to be healed from sin, gaze upon Christ crucified!' said Saint Augustine. 'By raising our eyes towards the Crucified one, we adore Him who came to take upon Himself the sin of the world and to give us eternal life. And the Church invites us proudly to lift up this glorious Cross so that the world can see the full extent of the love of the Crucified one for mankind, for every man and woman. She invites us to give thanks to God because from a tree which brought death, life has burst out anew. On this wood Jesus reveals to us His sovereign majesty, He reveals to us that He is exalted in glory. Yes, Come, let us adore Him!' In our midst is He who loved us even to giving His life for us, He who invites every human being to draw near to Him with trust.

We joyfully and reverently accept Jesus' invitation!

Behold, behold the wood of the Cross on which is hung our Salvation.

And we say:

COME, LET US ADORE!

"Come let us adore!"

Our Pastor, Father George

Notes From Fr George:

Exaltation of the Cross - This Feast celebrates a double anniversary. In Jerusalem, Constantine erected a round church, the Anastasis, above the empty grave of Jesus, and a basilica, the Martyrium. In the square between the two churches was a shrine, Calvarium, marking the place of the crucifixion.

Dedicated in 335, they were destroyed by the Persians in 614. The two churches were rebuilt by Patriarch Modestus of Jerusalem but were later destroyed by the Muslims in 1009. The present Church of the Holy Sepulcher, rebuilt by the Crusaders, was dedicated in 1149. Today also commemorates the discovery of the Lord's cross by the empress, St. Helena in 320.

Our Lady of Sorrows (Memorial on September 15) - By the 14th century the sorrows of Mary numbered seven: The presentation of Jesus in the Temple; the flight into Egypt; Jesus being lost in Jerusalem; the meeting of Mary and Jesus on the way to Calvary; the crucifixion; the taking down of Jesus' body from the cross; and his burial.

St Carlo Acutis & St. Pier Georgio Frassati (Canonized on September 7, 2025) - Pray for us and for our families.

Fr. Jan Rykala is leaving St. Martha parish - Fr. Jan came to St. Martha in 2017 after Fr. Sebastian Szczawinski left the parish. When Fr. Jan came here, he initially worked with Frs. Fausto, Patrick, Wojciech and John. Through different personnel changes he continued his priestly ministry for the last 8 years. When we were told to move out from our Rectory in March 2022, he went to stay in Incarnation Parish where he still resides and from which he commutes daily to St. Martha. On my behalf and on behalf of the parish I thank Fr. Jan for his hard work in preaching the word of God, in celebrating the sacraments of the Church in School, in Hospital and Jail ministry as well as his Biblical apostolate. May God bless him in his new assignment. He will be leaving St. Martha at the end of this month.

The Farewell Reception - in honor of Fr. Jan will be held in the parish hall on Tuesday, September 23, 2025, at 6pm.

Next Sunday, September 21, 2025, is the 25th Sunday in Ordinary.

With prayers for God's blessing to you and your family,
Father George

Prayer for Safety in Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children.
The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.

You are still the Master of land and sea.
We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control: the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You,
O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother,
we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us.

Amen.

HELP WANTED

Hospital Volunteer

We are looking for a caring and compassionate person to serve the Catholic patients at Sarasota Memorial Hospital.

As a member of a three-person team, the duties include a weekly visit with patients to comfort, pray, and distribute the Holy Eucharist.

Visits last three hours. Volunteers are needed to join the Thursday morning team.

No experience required.

Training and mentoring provided.

Interested persons should contact

Stuart Love, Volunteer Coordinator

St Martha Legacy Society

The Legacy Society at St Martha is open to all parishioners. There is no financial donation required to join, only the commitment to leave something – anything – to St Martha in your will.

As a member of the Legacy Society, you will ensure the future of our beautiful historic church in downtown Sarasota. Through your efforts St Martha will be able to minister to present and future generations in Sarasota.

To become a member, you only need to get in touch with us and express your interest in leaving something to the church in your estate. We will never ask how much, and we will not ask for verification.

There are some nice perks, like having your name added to the donor tree in the church courtyard. And you will be hosted by Fr George at our Annual Legacy Society Dinner. This year's dinner at Michael's Wine Cellar on Tuesday, February 18 was enjoyed by over 20 members.

Helping the Homeless Be Housed

Please Help Make a Real Difference

Many of us wonder how we can help. Should we give a few dollars to those suffering? 90% of our homeless suffer from addiction and/or mental illness. Giving cash enables the continuation of the homeless lifestyle.

But what about our duty as Christians to help the poor and needy?

Aren't we supposed to help? YES, absolutely! But please let your donation truly do the good you intend. The church collects money to support our local homeless charities. The Homeless Outreach donation box is located near the main doors of the church. The monies collected go to:

Caritas Food Pantry: A parish ministry at St. Martha. The food pantry is open Monday-Friday and serves hundreds of families every week.

Resurrection House: Provides many free services to the homeless including breakfast, lunch, bathrooms, showers, toiletries, laundry service, clothing, chapel, barber, health screening, medical doctor, dentist, vaccines, and legal services.

Family Promise: An organization addressing the gap in local services for pregnant mothers experiencing homelessness. Expectant mothers and their children can be housed at the Family Promise Francis House or Family Promise funding housing. Family Promise currently houses 39 pregnant mothers with children.

The Homeless Outreach donation box is the way to truly help. Placing your donations in the box will make a real difference.
